SOPHOMORE SEASON (2016)

- Played in all 12 games and started nine contests (did not start vs. Texas, Nevada and Duke)
- Led the Irish in yards per carry (5.9), rushing yards (933), rushing yards per game (77.8), carries (158) and ranked second in rushing TDs (5)
- Fumbled just once in 179 touches (158 carries and 21 receptions)
- First running back in school history that totaled at least 800 yards on the ground in each of his first two seasons
- Averaged 103.4 rush yards/game and 7.5 yards/rush over the final five games of the season
- Only three running backs in school history have rushed for more yards over their first two years in an Irish uniform (Allen Pinkett, 2,037; Darius Walker, 1,982; Autry Denson, 1,941)
- Rushed for 100 or more yards on four different occasions (Nevada, Syracuse, Virginia Tech and USC), including each of the last two contests of the year
- 52 of his 158 carries went for a first down or touchdown
- Averaged 5.9 yards per carry on first down
- Averaged 6.5 yards per carry on second down

- Recorded 11 rushes of at least 15 yards and six carries of at least 20 yards
- Three TD runs of at least 41 yards and two TD runs of at least 67 yards

FRESHMAN SEASON (2015)

- Played in all 13 games and started three contests (Wake Forest, Stanford and Ohio State)
- Led the Irish in yards per carry (7.1), ranked second in rushing yards (835) and rushing yards per game (68.2), and ranked third in carries (117) and rushing TDs (6)
- His 835 rushing yards are the most by an Irish freshman in school history (bested previous record held by Darius Walker, 786, in 2004)
- Rushed for 100 or more yards in three of the team's last five games
- Equaled school freshman record with four 100-yard rushing games (UMass, Pittsburgh, Wake Forest and Stanford)
- Holds three of the top five and four of the top nine single-game rushing performances in school history by a freshman, highlighted by his freshman school-record 168 yards at Stanford (Nov. 28)
- Set a Notre Dame record, and tied the NCAA freshman record, with a 98-yard TD run against Wake Forest (Nov. 14)
- The 98-yard TD run was the longest play from scrimmage in the nation
- Although did not meet the minimum of 10 carries per game (just 13 carries short) to be included in the NCAA leaders, his 7.14 yards per carry average would have ranked fourth in the nation
- 32 of his 117 carries went for a first down or touchdown
- Averaged 7.5 yards per carry on first down
- Recorded 22 rushes of at least 10 yards and eight carries of at least 20 yards

BRIAN KELLY

35th Year Coaching, 27th Year as a Head Coach
Eighth Year At Notre Dame

NOTABLE HONORS

- 2012 AP National Coach of the Year
- 2012 Walter Camp National Coach of the Year
- 2012 Sporting News National Coach of the Year
- 2012 Home Depot National Coach of the Year
- 2012 Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year
- 2012 AFCA National Coach of the Year
- 2009 Home Depot National Coach of the Year

The Dick Corbett Head Football Coach Brian Kelly, a veteran in his 27th season as a collegiate head coach, brings a championship tradition to his eighth year as the 29th head football coach at the University of Notre Dame.

Currently the winningest active coach in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision, Kelly has guided the Irish to 59 wins over his tenure, ranking fifth in school history. Kelly was the first coach to ever take Notre Dame to a bowl game in each of his first six years at the helm.

His 153 victories as a head coach since 2001 are more than all but three active FBS head coaches — Ohio State's Urban Meyer, Alabama's Nick Saban and Miami, Fla.'s Mark Richt.

KELLY'S HEAD COACHING RESUME

- Twenty-third college coach to reach 200 career victories with at least five years of service or 50 victories at a school that was classified as a major college at the time
- Second-youngest and fifth-fastest coach to ever reach 200 career victories with at least five years of service or 50 victories at a school that was classified as a major college at the time
- Dating back to 1991 (a span that covers 26 seasons of Notre Dame football), the Irish have registered a winning percentage of greater than .700 over any four-year span six times and Kelly has three of those runs, including the only such runs dating back to the start of the 1997 campaign
- Since 1994, Notre Dame has registered a winning percentage of greater than .700 over any four-year span three times and Kelly has all of them
- Only coach in school history to lead the Irish to at least eight victories over each of his first six seasons — a feat only 20 coaches have ever done at contract bowl eligible schools
- Only two-time winner of The Home Depot Coach of the Year Award (2009, 2012)
- First coach to lead the Irish to bowl games during each of his first six seasons
- First coach to take Notre Dame to bowl games in six straight seasons at any stage in his career since Lou Holtz (1987-95)
- First coach with six consecutive seasons of at least eight wins since Lou Holtz reached the milestone seven straight years (1987-93)
- With 10 wins in both 2012 and 2015, Kelly joins Knute Rockne, Ara Parseghian and Holtz as the only Notre Dame coaches to hit the double-digit mark in wins twice
- Kelly is 21-18 (.538) in his career against Associated Press Top 25 teams
- Owns the fifth-most wins (102-41) among active NCAA FBS coaches since 2006
- Owns the ninth-best winning percentage (.713) among active NCAA FBS coaches since 2007
- Ranks first and ninth among active NCAA FBS coaches in career victories (230) and career winning percentage (.722), respectively
- Led Notre Dame to an undefeated regular season in 2012 — its first undefeated regular season in 24 years (1988)

- Guided Notre Dame to the 2013 Bowl Championship Series title game and its highest national ranking (No. 4/3) to close a season since 1993 (No. 2/2)
- Oversaw the first football program to be ranked number one in the football polls and first in NCAA GSR graduation rates while also playing for the BCS title
- Swept just about every possible coach of the year award in 2012 — Home Depot, Associated Press, Walter Camp Football Foundation, Sporting News, Liberty Mutual and American Football Coaches Association
- Only the second Irish coach to win 12 games in a season (Lou Holtz also did it in 1988)
- Continued focus on academics as Notre Dame won the 2014 American Football Coaches Association Academic Achievement Award with a 100 percent graduation rate for the freshman football student-athlete class of 2007
- Ten of Kelly's last 11 teams have participated in a bowl game, encompassing his first six Notre Dame teams, each of his three Cincinnati teams, and his final team at Central Michigan (2006)
- Eleven of Kelly's last 12 teams have finished the year with a winning record
- Every team of Kelly's head coaching tenure, except for his first Central Michigan team that went 4-7 in 2004 and Notre Dame in 2016 (4-8), has finished at .500 or better (24 out of 26 years)
- Nine active FBS coaches have guided their respective schools to an undefeated regular season since 2009 and only four of those 10 coaches, including Kelly, have done it on multiple occasions
- Career record includes a first seven seasons at Notre Dame where he has fashioned a 59-31 record that has included 15 losses by a combined 43 points (2.87 per game)
- Three seasons at Cincinnati from 2007-09, including a 34-6 record (.850) and two straight outright BIG EAST Conference title teams that earned BCS appearances in 2008 (FedEx Orange Bowl) and 2009 (Allstate Sugar Bowl)
- Three seasons at Central Michigan University from 2004-06, including a 19-16 overall record (.542) featuring a 9-4 mark and Mid-American Conference title in 2006
- Thirteen seasons at Grand Valley State University from 1991-2003, including a 118-35-2 record (.767) highlighted by NCAA Division II national championships in 2002 (14-0) and 2003 (14-1)
- An overall record of 230-88-2 (.722) in those 26 seasons as a head coach
- A record of 16-8 (.667) record in postseason play as a head coach

KELLY ERA AT NOTRE DAME

Brian Kelly, the winningest active coach in the FBS and the only two-time winner of The Home Depot Coach of the Year Award, enters his eighth season as the head coach at Notre Dame.

Kelly, the second-youngest and fifth-fastest coach to ever reach 200 career victories with at least five years of service or 50 victories at a school that was classified as a major college at the time, holds an overall record of 230-88-2 (.722) in 26 seasons as a head coach, including a 59-31 mark at Notre Dame.

Kelly led Notre Dame to an undefeated regular season in 2012 — its first undefeated regular season in 24 years (1988). He guided Notre Dame to the 2013 Bowl Championship Series title game and its highest national ranking (No. 4/3) to close a season since 1993 (No. 2/2). Kelly also oversaw the first football program to be ranked number one in the football polls and first in NCAA GSR graduation rates while also playing for the BCS title.

With 10 wins in both 2012 and 2015, Kelly joins Knute Rockne, Ara Parseghian and Holtz as the only Notre Dame coaches to hit the double-digit mark in wins twice

The 2015 regular season did not exactly start as many within the program might have hoped. The Irish lost projected defensive front-line standout Jarron Jones and likely freshman secondary contributor Shaun Crawford in preseason camp.

Then take a look at the depth chart for the Notre Dame opener against Texas: It included starting quarterback Malik Zaire, starting running back Tarean Folston, backup running back C.J. Prosise, starting tight end Durham Smythe, rookie wide receiver Equanimeous St. Brown, starting linebacker James Onwuali, starting cornerback KeiVarae Russell, experienced safeties Dru Tranquill and Avery Sebastian, none of whom would be in uniform for the finale at Stanford.

Along the way, the Irish were forced to use 38 different players in the starting lineup, yet still won 10 games (10-3) against a schedule that featured five teams ranked in the final College Football Playoff rankings. The three losses all came against teams that were ranked in the top five of the final AP poll — vs. No. 4 Ohio State, at No. 2 Clemson and at No. 3 Stanford — and two came by two points and, for all intents and purposes, decided on the game's final play.

The 2015 campaign marked the 12th time in school history the Irish had won 10 or more games during the regular season (also 10-1 in 1921, 10-0 in 1930, 10-0 in 1949, 10-0 in 1973, 10-1 in 1977, 11-0 in 1988, 11-1 in 1989, 10-1 in 1993, 10-2 in 2002, 10-2 in 2006 and 12-0 in 2012).

In 2015 Notre Dame featured one of the most explosive offenses in college football. The Irish averaged 34.2 points per game, not far off of the school record for points per game of 37.6 set in 1968 and its best average since 2005 when Notre Dame posted 36.7 points per game. Notre Dame averaged 466.4 yards of total offense per game, including three outings with over 500 yards of total offense (Texas, UMass and Stanford). The Irish have averaged more yards of total offense per game just once (2005) since setting the school record of 510.5 yards of total offense per game.

Following the season-ending injury to Zaire in just the second game, Kelly turned the offense over to sophomore quarterback DeShone Kizer. Despite having minimal playing experience, Kizer proved to be one of the better first-year signal callers in school history. He threw for 2,884 yards and 21 touchdowns (in 13 games and 11 starts). Kizer added 520 yards rushing and a quarterback school record 10 TDs on the ground. He registered 3,404 yards of total offense. In single-season school history, Kizer ranked fourth in completion percentage (63.0), seventh in passing efficiency (150.0), seventh in TD passes, seventh in passing yards, tied for seventh in 300-yard passing games (two), eighth in completions (211), ninth in pass attempts (335) and 10th in passing yards per game (221.8).

Kizer benefited from a dominant offensive line, punishing running game and dynamic passing attack. Senior LT Ronnie Stanley became the first Irish offensive lineman to earn consensus or unanimous All-America honors since Aaron Taylor in 1993. Senior RB C.J. Prosise ran for 1,032 yards and 11 touchdowns in his first year at the position. Prosise eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing barrier faster than all but one previous player in Notre Dame history (Reggie Brooks, 1992). While Prosise and freshman Josh Adams (835 yards on 117 carries) did the damage on the ground, junior Will Fuller took advantage through the air. The All-American and Biletnikoff Award semifinalist backed up a record-setting sophomore campaign in 2014 with another incredible season in 2015. Fuller caught 62 passes for 1,258 yards and 14 TDs. His 29 TDs and 2,352 receiving yards over the 2014-15 seasons combined rank first and second, respectively, among Irish wideouts over any two-year span in school history.

Junior LB Jaylon Smith and senior DL Sheldon Day led the Irish defense with All-America caliber campaigns.

Smith, the Butkus Award recipient as well as a consensus All-American, led Notre Dame in total tackles (114), solo tackles (69), assisted tackles (45), pass breakups (five) and fumble recoveries (two). He ranked third on the team with his nine tackles for loss. Smith was the first Notre Dame player with at least 113 tackles, nine tackles for loss and five passes defended since Courtney Watson in 2003. He was one of just three players at a contract bowl eligible school in 2015 with at least 113 tackles, nine TFLs and five passes defended.

Smith turned in some of his best individual performances late in the season, recording at least 10 tackles in five of Notre Dame's last seven games, including a career-high 15 at No. 9 Stanford on Nov. 28. In that game, the Irish held Heisman Trophy finalist Christian McCaffrey to just 94 yards rushing and 11 offensive yards, both his lowest totals over the Cardinal's final 12 games of the season.

Day registered 45 tackles, 33 solo stops, 15.5 tackles for loss, four sacks, 13 quarterback hurries, four passes defended, four pass breakups and two forced fumbles. He led the Irish in tackles for loss and quarterback hurries. His 15.5 tackles for loss were the most by an Irish player since 2006. He had at least one TFL in 11 different games and recorded multiple TFLs in four games.

The Irish saw an offensive renaissance in 2014, with Notre Dame averaging 32.8 points per game, its best mark since 2005. The Irish improved by an average of over 39 yards per game from their 2013 total offense mark, running an average of 6.1 more snaps per contest. Notre Dame's 444.9 yards per game of total offense are also the highest average of Kelly's tenure.

Notre Dame scored at least 27 points a school-record 11 times in 2014. In fact, the Irish accomplished the feat in 10 of their first 11 games, a feat that had not happened since 2005 and one which has never been eclipsed in school history. The Irish were particularly hot at the start of the 2014 season. Notre Dame scored at least 30 points in each of its first four games for the first time since 1943. Meanwhile, the Irish defense allowed just 46 points over those first four games, all victories by at least 16 points. It marked the first time since 1972 that Notre Dame started a season 4-0 with each win coming by 16 points or more.

The highlight of the dominant early season run came under the lights at Notre Dame Stadium on Sept. 6, when Notre Dame shut out Michigan, 31-0, in the final scheduled meeting between the teams. The Wolverines saw an NCAA-record streak of 365 games without being shut out snapped that night. In addition to being Michigan's first time being shut out since 1984, it was the school's most lopsided shutout loss since 1967 and its first non-conference shutout loss since 1926.

Notre Dame started 20 different players on defense in 2014 with only three (CB Cole Luke, DL Isaac Rochell and LB Jaylon Smith) starting all 13 games. Of the 20 defensive starters in 2014, 12 were making their first career start on defense and three others had just a single start prior to last year.

A Butkus Award finalist, Smith led the unit with 112 tackles in 2014, the most by a Notre Dame player since Heisman Trophy runner-up Manti Te'o stopped 113 ball-carriers in 2012. The Irish proved potent in the secondary, recording 16 interceptions on the season, ranking tied for 15th in the nation. Notre Dame intercepted a pass in each of its first 11 games and held a national-best active streak of 14 consecutive games with an interception before seeing it halted at USC.

Kelly's ideal of well-rounded student-athlete values were on display when sophomore Corey Robinson became the first sophomore since 2008, and just the fourth since 2002, to earn first-team Capital One Academic All-America honors. The wide receiver caught 40 passes on the year for 539 yards and five touchdowns. Robinson boasts a 3.83 cumulative grade-point average and has an extensive record of community service work, including holding leadership positions on the University's Student Government Executive Cabinet and the school's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

The 2013 defense saw an unusually high number of players gain valuable experience. Twenty-six different Notre Dame players made at least 10 tackles. The Irish had at least 26 different players reach double digits when 29 different Irish tacklers reached that milestone in 1962. Over that 51-year span, Notre Dame has seen no more than 23 double-digit tacklers, a sum reached four other times (1977, 1991, 2003 and 2011). Eleven different Notre Dame defensive players that opened 2013 in the two-deep depth chart missed at least three games due to injury, and 19 different Notre Dame defensive players started a game in 2013.

Notre Dame underwent all this turnover against arguably the most challenging schedule in the nation. The Irish were the only team to defeat Big Ten and Rose Bowl champion Michigan State in 2013. Notre Dame played five teams that won 10 games (Michigan State, Oklahoma, Arizona State, USC and Stanford). Eleven of Notre Dame's 13 opponents in 2013 played in bowl games, including three BCS bowl participants (Michigan State-Rose, Stanford-Rose, Oklahoma-Sugar). The Irish were the only team in the country to play three different BCS bowl participants during the 2013 regular season. Notre Dame played the champions of both the Big Ten (Michigan State) and Pac-12 (Stanford), and was the only team to defeat two different teams that played in championship games of BCS automatic qualifier conferences. Irish foes collected 86 wins in 2013, which using the NCAA strength of schedule metric, was third-best in the nation.

The 2012 defense led the nation in two different categories and ranked among the top 10 in 10 more, including total rushing touchdowns allowed (four, 1st), red-zone rushing touchdowns allowed (four, t-1st), scoring defense (12.77, 2nd), points allowed per red-zone trip (3.4, 2nd), passing yards/completion (9.95, 2nd), red-zone touchdowns allowed percentage (34.21%, 3rd), total red-zone touchdowns allowed (13, t-3rd), red-zone points allowed (130, 4th), total passing touchdowns (10, t-6th), total defense (305.46, 7th), red-zone defense (68.4%, t-7th) and first downs/allowed (17.00, t-8th).

Notre Dame allowed just 12.77 points per game in '12. The Irish were one of only three FBS top-10 scoring defenses to exclusively face FBS competition. Notre Dame allowed only 16 touchdowns (15 offensive) — four touchdowns fewer than any other FBS school. The Irish allowed 166 points over their 13 games. Notre Dame has never surrendered fewer points over a 13-game season in school history. The Irish allowed 12 offensive touchdowns over their last 11 games. In fact, the Irish held six opponents without an offensive touchdown and nine foes to one or fewer offensive touchdowns.

Notre Dame won all five of its games decided by a touchdown or less in '12 — one shy of the single-season school record of six (1939). Notre Dame has gone undefeated in at least four games decided by seven points or less in the same season on just two previous occasions in school history (1929 and 1974; both went 4-0). The Irish have never had a larger fourth-quarter comeback victory in Notre Dame Stadium's history than in 2012 in the 14-point deficit against Pittsburgh. Notre Dame rallied from halftime deficits in back-to-back weeks against Stanford and against BYU. The Irish in 2012 also had not recorded comeback victories when trailing at the half in consecutive weeks since Oct. 23 and Oct. 30, 1920 (nearly 92 years to the day).

Notre Dame also won all six of its 2012 regular-season games away from Notre Dame Stadium by at least nine points. The Irish had not won six games away from Notre Dame Stadium by at least seven points since 1949. Notre Dame's closest margin of victory in '49 was a seven-point win over SMU (27-20).

The month of November had not been kind to Notre Dame in the three years that preceded Kelly's arrival in South Bend. The Irish had won only three of 13 games in the final month of the regular season. However, Notre Dame has posted a 17-11 combined record in November games since 2010. The Irish also had a hard time hanging onto leads prior to Kelly's arrival. Notre Dame was a combined 9-6 when leading at halftime in 2008 and 2009, but improved under Kelly to 48-9 when taking an advantage into the halftime locker room.

The 2012 offense averaged 189.4 yards rushing (2,462 yards in 13 games) and 222.8 yards passing (2,896). Notre Dame nearly became the third team in school history to average 200 yards in both categories. The two teams to accomplish the feat were the 1977 national champions (231.9 rushing and 208.1 passing), and the 1970 squad that finished No. 2 (257.8 rushing and 252.7 passing). Notre Dame was one of 26 teams in the FBS to average at least 189 yards on the ground and 200 yards in the air. The Irish averaged 4.9 yards/rush, their highest per carry average over the last 16 years. The 189.4 rushing yards/game is the third-highest per game average over the last 15 years. Only the 2000 (213.5) and 1998 (212.5) Irish squads averaged more per game. Notre Dame ran for at least 200 yards seven times, including six of the year's last nine contests. The Irish had not posted more 200+ yard rushing games in a single season since 1996.

In 2012, Te'o became the 32nd unanimous All-American in Notre Dame history, and the first Irish defensive player to earn such an honor since cornerback Shane Walton in 2002. Te'o was named a first-team All-American as the Football Writers Association of America, American Football Coaches Association, Sporting News, the Walter Camp Football Foundation and the Associated Press selected him to their respective All-America squads.

Te'o qualified as Notre Dame's fourth unanimous All-America linebacker and first since Michael Stonebreaker in 1990 — also joining the likes of Jim Lynch (1966) and Bob Golic (1978).

Te'o became Notre Dame's first Heisman Trophy finalist since quarterback Brady Quinn in 2006. He finished second with 321 first-place votes and 1,706 points — the most ever by a defensive player in college football history. Te'o nearly became the third player to be named a first-team Academic All-American and win the Heisman Trophy in the same year, joining Pete Dawkins (Army) in 1958 and Danny Wuerffel (Florida) in 1996.

Te'o captured the Lott Trophy, Nagurski Trophy, Butkus Award, Lombardi Award, Bednarik Award, Maxwell Award and Walter Camp Award. He became the first player in college football history to sweep the aforementioned seven awards. In fact, no other player in college football history had ever captured more than five major awards in one season.

Tyler Eifert finished his career as the most prolific tight end in Notre Dame history. The 2012 John Mackey Award winner, Eifert holds the school record for career receptions (140) and career receiving yards (1,840) by an Irish tight end. He bested Ken MacAfee's school records in both career categories that had stood since 1977. Eifert also holds single-season school records for receptions (63) and receiving yards (803) by a Notre Dame tight end.

Eifert was named a first-team All-American by Pro Football Weekly and second-team All-American by the Associated Press, Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, the Walter Camp Football Foundation and CBS Sports.com.

Following the season, Eifert was selected in the first round of the 2013 NFL Draft. He was taken with the 21st overall pick by Cincinnati. Eifert was the first Notre Dame tight end to be taken in the first round of the NFL Draft since Irv Smith in 1993 (20th overall by the New Orleans Saints).

Te'o was selected with the 38th overall pick by San Diego. He was the highest-drafted linebacker from Notre Dame since Demetrius DuBose was the 34th overall selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 1993 draft. Te'o is the fourth-highest drafted Irish linebacker since 1960. Bob Crable was chosen with the 23rd pick in the first round of the 1983 NFL draft, while Myron Pottios was the 19th overall selection of the 1961 NFL draft (second round).

The 2011 defense ranked 30th in the nation in yards allowed per game, a vast improvement from the defense Kelly inherited that ranked 86th in that category in 2009. The Irish ranked in the top 50 nationally in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and passing defense in 2011, marking just the second time in the last nine seasons Notre Dame had ranked that high in all four categories.

Notre Dame was one of 24 schools that opened 2011 with a 0-2 record, but was one of only three teams (Georgia and Western Kentucky being the others) to rebound and have a winning season. In the 11 years from 2001-11, 275 FBS teams started 0-2 and Notre Dame became one of only 27 schools that won at least eight of its next 10 games. The Irish offense that Kelly directed eclipsed 500 yards of offense in five games, equal to the combined number of 500-yard games Notre Dame tallied in the previous five seasons. Notre Dame scored at least 45 points in three games in 2011, the most by an Irish offense since 1996.

The Irish were led on offense by wide receiver Michael Floyd's school-record 100 receptions and the running back duo of Cierre Wood and Jonas Gray, who combined for 1,893 yards and 21 touchdowns. Floyd capped his career by breaking former teammate Golden Tate's two-year-old school record of single-season receptions. Wood and Gray formed a potent one-two punch out of the backfield. The tandem was one of only three running back duos in the FBS that featured each player having at least nine rushing TDs in the 2011 regular season. The other two running back teammates played on the high-octane offenses at Oregon and Oklahoma State.

Defensively, Notre Dame held 12 of 13 teams below their season scoring average and held 11 of 13 schools below their season rushing average. When Kelly arrived at Notre Dame, the Irish were coming off a season where the defense ranked 86th in the nation in total defense at 397.8 yards per game. Two years later, Notre Dame's defense ranked 30th in yards allowed per game at 344.7 and was 25th in scoring defense.

Te'o was named a finalist for the 2011 Butkus Award and Lott Trophy after leading Notre Dame with 128 tackles, 13.5 tackles for loss and five sacks. Safety and team captain Harrison Smith paced the secondary with 90 tackles and 10 pass breakups.

Following the season, Floyd and Smith both were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. Floyd was chosen 13th overall by Arizona, while Minnesota tabbed Smith with the 29th selection. It marked the first time since 1994 that Notre Dame had multiple first-round NFL draft picks. Combined with Kyle Rudolph being drafted 43rd overall in the 2011 NFL Draft, Kelly became the first Notre Dame coach in 17 seasons to produce three combined players selected in the first 43 picks of consecutive NFL drafts.

Despite enduring a slew of injuries at key positions, Kelly's first Irish squad in 2010 came on strong to play perfectly in November. In addition to a convincing 28-3 victory over once-beaten and 15th-ranked Utah (Notre Dame's widest margin over an Associated Press Top 20 opponent in 14 years), the Irish defeated Army in the first football game played at the new Yankee Stadium — then ended an eight-game losing streak to arch-rival USC with a come-from-behind win at the Los Angeles Coliseum. Then, in the convincing 33-17 Hyundai Sun Bowl triumph against Miami, the Irish charged to a 30-3 lead after three trips, as Kelly became the first Notre Dame football coach to record a bowl victory in his first season on the Notre Dame sidelines.

The Irish success down the stretch came mainly because of their defense, as Notre Dame went 13 consecutive periods over one late four-game stretch without allowing an offensive touchdown (the best sequence in that category in 30 years). In those final four wins Notre Dame's defense limited the Utes, Black Knights, Trojans and Hurricanes to combined averages of 9.8 points (best stretch for an Irish team since 1989), 91.8 yards on the ground and 276.5 total yards. In the last four contests, the Irish defense faced teams that were averaging 38 (Tulsa), 41 (Utah), 31 (Army) and 32 (USC) points per game, yet yielded only two offensive touchdowns, combined, to that quartet. Among individual defensive leaders was Te'o, Notre Dame's top tackler in 2010 with 133 and a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award and Butkus Award. Each of those four victories came in the first four career starts by Tommy Rees, following a season-ending injury to Dayne Crist. Among the pacesetters for Kelly's spread offense was Floyd who caught 79 balls in 2010 for 1,025 yards and 12 touchdowns and was named the MVP of the Hyundai Sun Bowl (six catches for 109 yards and two TDs in that contest).

Meanwhile, the Irish kicking game also sparkled in 2010, thanks to placekicker David Ruffner, who successfully converted his first 18 field-goal attempts (18-of-19 overall in 2010 and 23-of-24 in his career). Ruffner became one of three finalists for the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award as the top placekicker in the nation.

Kelly's debut season in South Bend saw the 2010 Irish play arguably the most difficult schedule in the country, as all but one of the Notre Dame opponents finished .500 or better — something no other team could claim. Notre Dame's agenda ranked first nationally in the official NCAA schedule strength standings at the end of the regular season, with Irish opponents playing at a .652 clip (79-42).

On the academic side, Kelly's first season at Notre Dame featured a first-team Academic All-America honor for Ruffner, an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship for offensive lineman Chris Stewart (he attended law school at Notre Dame during the 2010 season) as a National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete selection — and a first-place finish by Notre Dame among all FBS programs in the latest NCAA Graduation Success Rate standings with a 96 mark. In 2011, Te'o was named a second-team Academic All-American, and Notre Dame, once again, led all FBS programs in NCAA Graduation Success Rate standings with a 97 score.

Te'o and Mike Golic Jr. were selected as first-team members on the 2012 Capital One Academic All-America® Football Team which is selected annually by CoSIDA (College Sports Information Directors of America). The last time Notre Dame had two football players earn first-team academic honors in the same year was in 1987 (Ted Gradel and Vince Phelan).

KELLY ERA AT CINCINNATI

Architect of two consecutive BCS appearances at the University of Cincinnati, including a perfect 12-0 regular season in 2009 that earned him national coach-of-the-year honors. Kelly earned the ESPN/Home Depot National Coach of the Year Award in 2009, was the BIG EAST Conference Coach of the Year in 2007, 2008 and 2009 (the first time a BIG EAST football coach won the award three straight years) — and received the American Football Coaches Association Division II Coach of the Year Award in both 2002 and 2003. He was also a finalist for four other national awards in 2009 — the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award (Football Writers Association of America), the Bear Bryant Coach of the Year Award (National Sportscasters and Sports-writers Association), the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award and the George Munger Coach of the Year Award (Maxwell Football Club).

He boasted a 2-1 record at Cincinnati in postseason bowl games — including a 27-24 win over Western Michigan in the International Bowl after the 2006 season (he coached in that game immediately after taking the job at Cincinnati), a 31-21 win over Southern Mississippi in the Papajohns.com Bowl after the '07 season and a 20-7 loss to Virginia Tech in the FedEx Orange Bowl after the '08 campaign. Kelly's '06 Central Michigan team finished 9-4 and qualified for the Motor City Bowl (Central Michigan defeated Middle Tennessee 31-14, though he did not coach after accepting the head coaching position at Cincinnati) — and his 12-0 team in '09 earned an Allstate Sugar Bowl assignment against once-beaten Florida.

In six NCAA Division II playoff appearances at Grand Valley State, Kelly's teams combined for an 11-4 (.733) postseason record — including four straight victories in winning both the '02 and '03 NCAA titles. His '01 Grand Valley State team fell 17-14 to North Dakota in the Division II national title game.

Kelly's '09 team at Cincinnati finished third in the final BCS standings and fourth in both the final regular-season Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN polls. His '08 team ended up 11-3 and 17th in both polls — and his '07 Bearcat squad finished 10-3 and 17th (AP) and 20th (USA Today/ESPN) in the final polls.

Through the end of the 2009 regular season, his Cincinnati team won all 12 of its games, led the nation in passing efficiency (166.19), ranked second in kickoff returns (29.2 each) and sixth in total offense (464.25 yards per game), passing yardage (320.33) and scoring (39.83 points). Meanwhile, Kelly's Bearcat defense rated third nationally in tackles for losses (8.42 per game) and eighth in sacks (2.92). The '09 Cincinnati squad set Bearcat single-season records for points (495), passing yards (3,844), fewest fumbles (10), fewest fumbles lost (two) and fewest turnovers (10). Cincinnati concluded the '09 campaign with a record 18 straight regular-season victories.

Among the standouts Kelly coached on the '09 Bearcat roster were first-team All-America receiver Mardy Gilyard (he ranked second nationally in all-purpose yards at 203.5 per game at the end of the regular season) and quarterback Tony Pike (ninth in passing efficiency at 155.36). Eleven Cincinnati players merited all-BIG EAST honors for '09 (five first-team selections), including Gilyard, the league's Special Teams Player of the Year for the second straight season.

In three years at the helm of the program, Kelly put together a 34-6 record and led the Bearcats to their first two BIG EAST championships in 2008 and '09. Cincinnati achieved a then-school-record 11 victories in 2008, followed that up with a dozen wins in '09 and had back-to-back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time in school history. Kelly's Bearcats in '08 won the school's first outright conference championship since 1964 and earned the school's first berth in a BCS game, playing against Virginia Tech in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl. In '08, Cincinnati achieved its then-highest ranking to close the regular season — 12th in the AP and USA Today/ESPN polls and the BCS standings entering the Orange Bowl. The Bearcats held a postseason ranking of 17th in both polls, tying the top postseason ranking in school history.

Following the close of the '08 regular season, Kelly was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year for the second straight season. He also was named the American Football Monthly Schutt Sports FBS Coach of the Year, earned AFCA Region 1 Coach of the Year honors and was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year by Sporting News.

Cincinnati placed 10 players on the 2008 all-BIG EAST teams (including first-team selection Connor Barwin) — with kick returner Gilyard named the BIG EAST Special Teams Player of the Year and punter Kevin Huber earning the first AFCA All-America nod in program history. Huber became the first two-time AP first-team All-America selection in Bearcat football history.

The Bearcats' 27-24 bowl victory over Western Michigan in 2006 came just 34 days after Kelly was hired. Then, in his first full season at the helm in '07, he put Cincinnati on the national radar by jumping out to a 6-0 start and earning the Bearcats their first appearance in the polls in more than 30 years. By winning 10 games for the first time since 1951, Cincinnati earned its 10th bowl appearance in program history and sixth bowl appearance in eight years. The Bearcats finished 17th in the AP poll and 20th in the USA Today/ESPN rankings, earning their first appearances in the final polls.

Along the way to the 2007 PapaJohns.com Bowl victory, the Bearcats' third straight bowl win, Kelly earned BIG EAST Coach of the Year honors. Cincinnati listed seven individuals on the all-BIG EAST teams, including BIG EAST Special Teams Player of the Year and consensus All-America punter Huber. The national leader in punting, Huber was one of three Bearcats to be named to an All-America team. Cincinnati ranked second in the BIG EAST and 24th nationally in passing offense (254.1), and also was second in the league and 27th nationally in passing efficiency (139.4). At the same time, the Bearcat defense led the BIG EAST in sacks (2.9) and tackles for a loss (6.5). Kelly's Bearcats led the FBS in net punting (41.5 yards per punt), and Cincinnati also paced the BIG EAST in kickoff returns (24.2).

KELLY ERA AT CENTRAL MICHIGAN

During his three years at Central Michigan, he transformed a Chippewa program that had won more than three games only once in the past four seasons into a conference champion. Central Michigan posted a 9-4 regular-season record in 2006 en route to winning the MAC title and qualifying for its first bowl game in 12 years. Kelly inherited a program that had produced a mere 12 wins over its previous four seasons when he took the helm at Central Michigan in 2004. He guided the Chippewas to a 4-7 record in 2004 and a 6-5 slate — the school's first winning season in seven years — in 2005.

The Chippewas in 2005 defeated both defending MAC divisional champions, Miami and Toledo, and also knocked off eventual '05 league champ Akron. Central Michigan ranked first nationally in fewest turnovers (10) and fewest fumbles lost (four), while the team's rushing defense ranked 20th and led the MAC at 113.7 yards per game (compared to 245.8 in '03 — the year before Kelly arrived).

In 2006, Central Michigan rolled to a 7-1 record in conference play to win the MAC West and then dominated Ohio, 31-10, in the league championship game. Central Michigan boasted the 19th-most prolific passing attack in the nation, averaging 252.4 yards per game, set a Chippewa season mark with 28 TD passes and led the MAC in total offense (375.3 yards per game) and scoring (29.7 points). MAC Freshman of the Year Dan LeFevour passed for 2,869 yards and 25 TDs to rank 20th nationally in passing efficiency and 14th in total offense.

Kelly had 12 of his players achieve first-team all-conference honors over his three years at Central Michigan (including '05 MAC Defensive Player of the Year Daniel Bazuin) — and three advanced to the NFL (including 2005 draftees Eric Ghiaucic and Adam Kieft and free agent Tory Humphrey). Bazuin, who led the nation in '05 in tackles for losses, also was a '06 first-team Academic All-American.

KELLY ERA AT GRAND VALLEY STATE

Kelly arrived at Central Michigan after winning back-to-back NCAA Division II national titles at Grand Valley State in Allendale, Michigan. The all-time winningest program in NCAA Division II history, the Lakers were 41-2 in Kelly's final three seasons, at one point winning 32 consecutive games. Grand Valley State went 14-0 in 2002 en route to its first national title and was 14-1 in 2003 when it claimed its second crown. Kelly was named the AFCA Division II Coach of the Year after both seasons.

Kelly led the Lakers to five conference titles (1992-97-98-2001-02) and six Division II playoff appearances in his 13 seasons at Grand Valley. The Lakers never finished lower than third in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletics Conference.

Kelly mentored a pair of finalists for the Harlon Hill Award, presented annually to the top player in Division II. Quarterback Curt Anes won the award in 2002 after finishing as runner-up in 2001. He threw for 10,581 career yards and 114 TD passes — 48 in '01 and 47 in '02 (12 games with at least five TD passes). Anes still holds the NCAA Division II single-season passing efficiency record for '01 at 221.6 (189 for 271 for 3,086 yards, with 21 TDs, three interceptions). Quarterback Jeff Fox was third in the balloting in 1998, as he became the first Laker quarterback to throw for more than 2,000 yards in multiple seasons. Kelly's Grand Valley State players earned 77 All-America awards (11 in 2002 alone). Four players moved on to the NFL and another three to the Canadian Football League.

His 2001 national runner-up squad set 77 NCAA, GLIAC and school records, including the Division II scoring record by averaging 58.4 points per game (and an average victory margin of 48.0 points). The 2001 team also became the first Division II unit in 53 years to average more than 600 yards per game in total offense (600.8), leading the nation in that category.

Grand Valley State followed its record-shattering 2001 season by averaging 497.5 yards and a nation-leading 46.7 points during its undefeated 2002 national championship run in which Kelly's squad went wire-to-wire as the top-rated Division II squad. That '02 campaign ended with a 31-24 championship game win over second-ranked and unbeaten Valdosta State — as All-America receiver David Kircus caught 11 passes for 270 yards and three TDs. Kircus holds the NCAA Division II season record for TD receptions with 35 in '02, catching at least one TD pass in 24 straight games in 2001-02. He ended his career with 4,142 receiving yards and 76 TD catches and led the nation (Division II) in scoring in both '01 and '02.

The 2003 team, meanwhile, became more noted for its defense, leading the country in rushing defense at 62.0 yards per game. The Lakers defeated North Dakota 10-3 in the 2003 national title game (played annually in Florence, Alabama). In 10 of his 13 seasons at Grand Valley State, Kelly's teams won eight or more games — and he finished with a 103-22-2 mark in GLIAC contests. The seniors on his final team in '03 won 47 of their final 49 games (and finished 34-4 in four seasons of GLIAC play) and won 20 straight games in 2002-03. Kicker David Hendrix led the nation in '03 with 25 field goals.

KELLY OFF THE GRIDIRON

Born in Everett, Massachusetts, and raised in Chelsea, Massachusetts,

Kelly attended St. John's Prep School in Danvers, Massachusetts. He was a four-year letter-winner at Assumption College (Worcester, Massachusetts) as a linebacker, captaining the squad in both '81 and '82 under coach Paul Cantiani on teams that finished 8-3 and 7-1-1. After graduating from Assumption in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in political science, he served as linebacker coach and defensive coordinator (as well as softball coach) from 1983-86 at Assumption under head football coach Bernie Gaughan.

Kelly was invited back to Assumption in 2012 where he served as commencement speaker and received an honorary degree from his alma mater. Kelly also endowed a $250,000 scholarship for Assumption football players.

Kelly joined the Grand Valley State staff in 1987 as a graduate assistant and defensive backs coach. He became the defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 1989 and took over (at age 28) as head coach in 1991 (replacing Tom Beck, who left to become running backs coach at Notre Dame under Lou Holtz). His first Laker team finished 9-3 and qualified for the NCAA playoffs. In 2009, Kelly was inducted into the Grand Valley State Athletics Hall of Fame and in 2011, Grand Valley State renamed its Laker Turf Building the Kelly Family Sports Center. The Kelly Family Sports Center is a 138,000 square-foot building that houses a regulation football field, a six-lane, 300-meter track, all of the amenities for field events, batting cages that drop from the ceiling, an athletic training room, locker rooms, multi-purpose rooms, classrooms, bleacher seating for 800 in the grandstand and bleachers on the field level for another 260 spectators. In addition to intercollegiate athletics, the movement science department, campus recreation/intramurals and club sports also use the facility.

Kelly was announced as the Notre Dame head coach on Dec. 10, 2009. He signed a five-year contract to coach the Irish. On Jan. 10, 2012, the University announced it extended Kelly's contract two seasons through the 2016 campaign. Kelly received another contract extension, this one extending through 2017, following the 2013 season-opening victory over Temple.

Considering his wife Paqui is a two-time breast cancer survivor, it's hardly surprising that University of Notre Dame football coach Brian Kelly and his wife have collaborated to fully embrace the fight against cancer.

In June 2010, Brian and Paqui made a $250,000 gift to the University of Notre Dame in support of endeavors in research, academics and community engagement. The benefaction directly supports three Notre Dame initiatives — cancer research, the Hesburgh Libraries and the Robinson Community Learning Center (RCLC). In the area of cancer research — the fight against breast cancer is a deeply personal cause for the Kelly family — the gift benefits the Mike and Josie Harper Cancer Research Institute that opened in 2011 in Notre Dame's new Harper Hall. The institute brings together scientists from Notre Dame and Indiana University School of Medicine-South Bend to collaborate to advance basic and clinical research as it pertains to the diagnosis, treatment and prevention of cancer.

The Kelly Cares Foundation, now in its ninth year, has established itself as a "Playbook for Hope." The Foundation's mission strengthens communities and inspires hope by investing resources to improve health and education. The communities touched by the Foundation are a model of educational success and wellness that provide hope and inspiration to all.

Since its founding in 2008, the Kelly Cares Foundation has donated nearly $3.5 million to support causes locally, nationally and globally. Some notable organizations that have received contributions from the Foundation include the Breast Cancer Research Foundation, The Paqui and Brian Kelly Comprehensive Breast Center, The University of Notre Dame, Breezy Point Disaster Relief Fund, Andean Health Global, Ronald McDonald House Charities, Memorial Children's Hospital, Boys & Girls Club, and the YMCA.

The Kelly Cares Foundation hosts a series of events throughout the year. Starting with its largest fundraiser, the Irish Eyes Gala, held annually in New York City, followed by Football 101, a Ladies Only Clinic held at the Notre Dame Football Facilities, a Golf Invitational, Game Day Chase 5K/10K held on a Notre Dame home football weekend, and Paqui's Playbook—October Series of events focusing on breast cancer research and patient advocacy.

In 2014 Saint Joseph Health System announced the creation of the new Paqui and Brian Kelly Comprehensive Breast Center (CBC). The Paqui and Brian Kelly CBC, which offers a team of dedicated professionals and state-of-the-art services, was advanced by a generous gift from the Kelly Cares Foundation.

The Paqui and Brian Kelly CBC delivers specialized care for all aspects of breast health, setting the standard of care in Michiana. The Paqui and Brian Kelly CBC allows women access to:

- Evaluation/treatment for a variety of benign breast diseases, as well as breast cancer
- The highest quality screening, detection and diagnostic technology, including 3D mammography and molecular breast imaging
- A peaceful, comfortable patient-centered environment
- Access to forward-thinking clinical trials and research
- Comprehensive genetic screening, genetic testing and genetic counseling services
- Individualized patient consultation, education, treatment and community support resources
- A multidisciplinary team approach to breast cancer that ensures all patient cases are reviewed by a team of experts who work closely with the patient to create an individualized treatment plan
- Reconstructive surgery, survivorship and rehabilitation

In 2016 the Kelly Cares Foundation donated $100,000 to Ronald McDonald House Charities of Michiana. RMHC of Michiana started construction of a new Ronald McDonald House, a home-away-from-home for families of seriously ill and injured children. The new 20-bedroom house will be located in the Skyway Building across from Memorial Children's Hospital.

Kelly and his wife Francisca (Paqui) are parents of three children — Patrick, Grace and Kenzel.

- Kelly has been a college head coach for 26 seasons; however the NCAA lists him for 27 because of the 2006 season when he coached at both Central Michigan during the regular season and at Cincinnati for a bowl game.

THE NFL DRAFT UNDER BRIAN KELLY

- Brian Kelly had a first-round pick in three straight NFL Drafts: Michael Floyd (2012), Harrison Smith (2012), Tyler Eifert (2013) and Zack Martin (2014). The Irish program had not previously accomplished the feat since 1991-94.
- Six Notre Dame players have been selected in the first round of the NFL Draft since 2012, which ranks as the sixth-most in the FBS over the span. The Irish have the same amount of first-round picks since 2012 than Oklahoma (one), Michigan (one), Texas (two) and Tennessee (two) combined.
- Kelly and Notre Dame have had 26 players selected in the NFL Draft since 2012. Only eight schools in the nation have had more NFL draft picks over the same span. Kelly has done this while also maintaining a program that ranks among the top in the NCAA's annual Graduation Success Rate.

- Ronnie Stanley (Baltimore Ravens, sixth overall pick of 2016 NFL Draft) and Will Fuller (Houston Texans, 21st overall pick of 2016 NFL Draft) gave Kelly six first-round picks in a five-year span of the draft (2012-16).

NOTRE DAME FIRST-ROUND NFL DRAFT PICKS

Years	First Round Picks
2012-2016 (5 drafts)	6

- Kelly has produced twice as many first-round NFL Draft picks (six) than the three previous Notre Dame head coaches combined (three). In fact, only Ara Parseghian (12), Lou Holtz (12) and Frank Leahy (10) have produced more first-round picks during their entire Irish coaching tenures. Of course, Kelly's total has come over just six NFL drafts.

Rank	Coach (Tenure)	First Rounders	NFL Drafts
1.	Lou Holtz (1986-96)	12	11
	Ara Parseghian (1964-74)	12	11
3.	Frank Leahy (1941-43, 46-53)	10	11
4.	Brian Kelly (2010-)	6	6

- With seven picks in the first four rounds of the 2016 NFL Draft, the most recent Irish draft class matches the 1955, '67, '93 and '94 draft classes for the most in school history at this elite stage.
- Notre Dame's seven overall picks tied Alabama and Florida for the fourth-most of any school in 2016. Only Ohio State (12), Clemson (nine) and UCLA (eight) saw more players chosen.
- Notre Dame had six players chosen in the first three rounds of the 2016 NFL Draft. It's the most since the Irish had a school-record seven players selected in the top three rounds of the 1994 draft.
- Notre Dame had four players (Ronnie Stanley, Will Fuller, Jaylon Smith, Nick Martin) selected in the top 50 picks of the NFL draft for the first time since 1993 when the Irish had six (Rick Mirer, Jerome Bettis, Tom Carter, Irv Smith, Demetrius DuBose, Reggie Brooks).
- With Stanley, Fuller, Smith and Martin all being selected in the top two rounds of the 2016 NFL Draft, Notre Dame has had 11 players selected in the top two rounds since 2012.

Rank	School	Top-Two Round Draft Picks*
1.	Alabama	21
2.	Florida State	15
3.	Ohio State	14
4.	LSU	12
5.	Notre Dame	11

* Since 2012

- Here's the top five list for rookie contract values by 2016 NFL Draft picks according to Spotrac.com.

Rank	Total Value	School
1.	$117,499,008	Ohio State
2.	$51,251,888	Notre Dame
3.	$39,218,233	Alabama
4.	$38,718,582	Florida
5.	$37,782,517	Clemson

- Notre Dame has produced at least seven draft picks twice in the last three years, and at least six draft picks in three of the last four years (2013, '14 and '16).
- Notre Dame had eight players chosen in the 2014 NFL Draft. The Irish have not had a larger haul in the draft since 1994 when Notre Dame had 10 players selected.
- Notre Dame's eight drafted players were tied for the second most of any school in the nation. LSU led the country with nine selections, while the Irish were tied with Alabama.
- Stanley was the second Notre Dame offensive lineman in the last three years to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft joining Zack Martin (16th pick of the 2014 draft by the Dallas Cowboys).
- Stanley is the highest-drafted Notre Dame player since quarterback Rick Mirer was the second overall selection by the Seattle Seahawks in the 1993 draft. He is the highest drafted Irish offensive lineman since the Atlanta Falcons chose George Kunz with the second pick of the 1969 draft.
- In the past four drafts (2014-17), Notre Dame has seen four offensive linemen selected in the first three rounds in Stanley, Zack Martin, Nick Martin and Chris Watt. Over the previous 12 drafts (2002-13), only two Notre Dame offensive linemen were drafted in the first three rounds.
- KeiVarae Russell and C.J. Prosise continue a trend that has followed Brian Kelly at his previous coaching stops at Central Michigan and Cincinnati. They joined the Notre Dame program as a running back and safety, respectively. Russell was converted to a cornerback during preseason camp of his freshman year, while Prosise spent his freshman campaign on defense, then played two seasons at wide receiver and one at running back.
- Russell and Prosise join the likes of Bennett Jackson and Troy Niklas of Notre Dame, Joe Staley from Central Michigan and Jason Kelce and Connor Barwin from Cincinnati. All seven opened their respective careers under Kelly at one position before ultimately getting drafted into the NFL at another position.
- That group does not include NFL All-Pro and former first-round pick J.J. Watt, who Kelly recruited to Central Michigan. Watt ultimately transferred and walked on at Wisconsin.

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- First season as the Irish wide receivers coach in 2017
- Spent five years at Arizona State (2012-16), including four as the passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach and one as the tight ends coach
- Helped the 2015 Sun Devil aerial attack continue to operate at a high rate of efficiency (299.1 yards/game)
- Mentored graduate transfer wideout Devin Lucien in his only season at Arizona State, where Lucien led the Sun Devils with 1,075 receiving yards and eight TDs on 66 catches (Lucien had caught 58 passes for 752 yards and four TDs in his three previous seasons at UCLA)
- In 2014, Alexander's wide receivers accounted for 57 percent of the Sun Devils TDs and 61 percent of their total yardage

- Under his tutelage, Jaelen Strong, Gary Chambers and Cameron Smith all recorded career seasons
- Arizona State averaged 36.9 points/game (16th in the nation) and registered 34 receiving TDs (13th in the nation)
- The Sun Devils' passing game thrived in '12 as ASU pass catchers caught 33 TDs (second-most in school history) and helped (then) first-year quarterback Taylor Kelly establish a single-season school record for completion percentage
- Before joining the Arizona State staff, Alexander spent five seasons at Wisconsin as the wide receivers coach (2007-11)
- Part of two Big Ten championships and five bowl appearances, including back-to-back Rose Bowls in 2010 and 2011
- Saw the Badgers offense turn in some of the most prolific passing seasons in school history
- In 2011, Wisconsin passed for 3,280 yards -- the highest total in school history
- Mentored All-Big Ten wide receiver Nick Toon, who led the team with 64 catches for 926 yards and 10 TDs
- Toon finished with the third-most receiving yards in school history and the fifth-most TD catches
- In 2009, the Badgers passed for the fourth-highest yardage total in school history (2,770 yards)
- Prior to his tenure at Wisconsin, Alexander served as the running backs coach, assistant travel coordinator, assistant special teams coordinator and NCAA rules representative at the University of San Diego (2005-06) under then-coach Jim Harbaugh
- The Toreros, who led the nation in offense in 2005, won conference championships in both '05 and 2006
- Served as the recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach at Oregon State for two years (2003-04)
- Beavers placed wide receivers on the All-Pac-10 first team during each of his two seasons
- Coached wide receivers and quarterbacks at UNLV for three seasons (2000-02), ad also served as the passing game coordinator for the Rebels in 2000-01
- Coached players earned first-team All-Mountain West accolades in each of his three years
- Worked for the San Diego Chargers in 1999 as a senior offensive assistant (running backs) and also had responsibilities with quality control, video analysis, opponent summaries and self scout
- Coached wideouts at UNLV in 1998
- Began coaching career in 1995 at USC as an assistant video coordinator
- Spent two years (1996-97) as a graduate assistant for the Trojans working with the tight ends

- Four-year monogram winner, three-year starter and two-time Most Valuable Player at Notre Dame (1995-98)
- All-time leading rusher (4,318 yards) in school history
- Recorded 43 career rushing TDs and 5,327 all-purpose yards, both of which rank second in Notre Dame annals
- Eclipsed 1,000 yards rushing over each of his final three years with the Irish
- Named an Associated Press All-America selection as a senior in 1998
- Earned 1999 Gator Bowl Most Valuable Player

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Third season as the Irish running backs coach in 2017
- Coached a Notre Dame running back group in 2016 that rushed for 10 TDs and 1,471 yards on 275 carries — good for a 5.35 yards per carry average
- Helped Josh Adams lead the Irish in rushing in 2016 with 933 yards on 158 carries and five TDs
- Adams is the fastest Notre Dame running back to reach 1,000 career rushing yards (16th career game) since Darius Walker accomplished the feat in his 14th Irish game in 2005
- Adams closed the '16 campaign with his eighth career 100-yard rushing game and a career-best 180 yards at rival USC
- Coached a Notre Dame running back group in 2015 that rushed for 18 TDs and 1,967 yards on 299 carries — good for a 6.58 yards per carry average
- Mentored C.J. Prosise in 2015 — who rushed for 1,032 yards (18th 1,000-yard rushing season in school history) in his first season at the position
- Prosise eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing barrier faster than any Irish running back in school history with the exception of All-American Reggie Brooks in 1992
- Prosise was drafted in the third round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks
- Tutored Josh Adams — who rushed for 835 yards in 2015 — best in freshmen school history
- Adams ran for 168 yards at Stanford — topping the school's 40-year-old single-game freshman record
- The Irish ran for a season-high 457 yards vs. UMass — the best rushing total by Notre Dame in 23 years
- Notre Dame registered 299 yards on the ground vs. Stanford — the most by an opponent in Cardinal head coach David Shaw's five seasons (35 carries for an 8.5 per-carry average against nation's No. 22 rush defense)
- The Irish averaged 207.6 rushing yards per game in 2015, including six games with 200+ yards (Texas, Virginia, Georgia Tech, UMass, USC and Stanford)
- Notre Dame had only two 90+-yard rushes in the first 126 seasons of Irish football, yet matched that total in 2015 with a pair of 90+-yard TD runs (Adams 98, Prosise 91)
- Returned to his alma mater following a brief stint as the running backs coach at the University of South Florida
- Spent one season as the running backs coach at Miami University (2014)
- Served as the head coach for one season at Pope John Paul II High School in Boca Raton, Florida (2010)
- Coached running backs at Bethune-Cookman University for three years (2011-13)
- Member of a coaching staff that helped the Wildcats to a 10-3 record and Football Championship Series playoff berth in 2013
- Guided a Bethune-Cookman running back group that registered 2,179 rushing yards, 24 touchdowns and a 5.4 yards-per-carry average
- Mentored Isidore Jackson (828 rushing yards, 5.6 yards per carry, eight rushing TDs), Cary White (485, 5.1, eight) and Anthony Jordan (410, 5.0, five) — each of whom rushed for at least 400 yards, averaged over 5.0 yards per carry and recorded at least five rushing TDs in 2013
- Coached a 1,000-yard rusher in 2012 as Jackson ran for 1,069 yards, becoming the first Wildcat to eclipse 1,000 yards rushing since 1997 and the first Bethune-Cookman player to finish the season ranked either first or second in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference in rushing
- Guided a 2012 Wildcats' running back group that recorded 2,928 yards, collected 28 of the team's 43 TDs, and saw four different players run for more than 400 yards on the year

- Part of an offensive coaching staff in 2012 that helped Bethune-Cookman lead the MEAC and rank 10th nationally in rushing (244.4 yards per game)
- Coached his inaugural Wildcats' running back group in 2011 to 2,058 rushing yards, which led an offensive ground attack that finished fifth nationally in rushing (259.3 yards per game)
- Worked with the Indianapolis Colts and Miami Dolphins as part of the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship, where he reunited with former Tampa Bay and Indianapolis head coach Tony Dungy, who drafted him for the Buccaneers in the seventh round of the 1999 NFL Draft
- Formed a youth program called POISE (Perseverance, Opportunity, Intelligence, Sacrifice and Effort) that worked with teenage athletes throughout Broward County, Florida, in education, on the field and in Bible study
- Served as the inaugural commissioner of the Run for Your Goal Youth (RFYG) Flag Football League, which provided a safe place for the youth of South Florida to learn the game of football

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- First season as the Irish defensive coordinator in 2017
- Comes to Notre Dame following three seasons as the defensive coordinator/safeties coach at Wake Forest (2014-16)
- One of only two defensive coordinators in the nation to have a unit rank in the top-40 of the Football Bowl Subdivision in total defense over the last five years
- In 2016, the Demon Deacons' defense ranked in the top-20 of the FBS in fumbles recovered (third), turnovers forced (10th), sacks (12th), defensive TDs (17th), red zone defense (17th) and scoring defense (20th)
- Wake Forest was one of four schools in the FBS to rank in the top-20 in turnovers forced, sacks and scoring defense in 2016 (the other three schools -- Alabama, Clemson and Washington -- qualified for the College Football Playoff)
- In addition to his role as defensive coordinator, Elko coached the Demon Deacons safeties
- Instrumental in the development of All-ACC and ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year runner-up Jessie Bates III, who finished with 93 tackles and five interceptions, including two that were returned for TDs
- In 2015, Wake Forest ranked 38th in the FBS in total defense, allowing just 363.8 yards per game
- The Deacons also ranked among the national leaders in fewest first downs allowed (10th), red zone defense (31st), pass defense (32nd) and third-down conversion percentage (36th)
- In 2014, Wake Forest finished 12th nationally in passing yards allowed, 24th in fewest first downs allowed and 40th in total defense
- Spent five seasons as Bowling Green's defensive coordinator (2009-13)
- The Falcons' defense led the Mid-American Conference in scoring defense, total defense, rush defense and pass defense in each of his last two seasons
- Bowling Green's defense excelled at forcing turnovers and stopping opponents on third down
- Over his five seasons as defensive coordinator, the Falcons forced 106 turnovers or 1.7 per game and held opponents to just 35.9 percent third down conversions
- In both 2012 and 2013, the Falcons ranked in the top 10 in the nation in both total defense and scoring defense
- The 2012 season was a banner year for the BGSU defense, finishing the season ranked sixth in the country in total defense (296.6) and 10th in scoring (16.7)
- The Falcons held the opposition to under 100 yards rushing in nine contests as BGSU had six different players earn All-MAC Honors

- The 2012 defense would finish as the fourth-best third down defense in the nation, allowing a first down just 28.1 percent of the time
- Served as the defensive coordinator at Hofstra for three seasons (2006-08)
- Coached the No. 1 passing defense in the Colonial Athletic Association in 2007, holding opponents to just 136.8 yards per game
- Hofstra's defense ranked 11th in the Football Championship Subdivision in rushing defense and 15th in total defense in 2007
- Came to Hofstra after two seasons as recruiting coordinator, linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at the University of Richmond (2004-05)
- In 2005, the Spiders went 9-4, captured an Atlantic 10 Championship and reached the quarterfinals of the FCS playoffs
- Helped Richmond rank 12th in the FCS in scoring defense (17.7 points per game) and 22nd in rushing defense (120.1 yards per game)
- Served as the Fordham linebackers coach and co-defensive coordinator for two years (2002-03)
- Coached a defense in 2002 that led the Patriot League in scoring defense (14th in the FCS)
- Coaching experience includes time at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, where he served as defensive coordinator and at his alma mater, the University of Pennsylvania, directing the secondary
- Began his coaching career at Stony Brook in 1999 where he guided the linebackers in the fall and the defensive backs in the spring

PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Four-year member of Michigan's football team (1993-96)
- Three-year letter winner for the Wolverines as an outside linebacker (1994-96)

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Member of the Notre Dame coaching staff since 2010 and recruiting coordinator since 2015
- Coached the Irish linebackers for two seasons (2015-16)
- Returns to the defensive line in 2017, a position he coached at Notre Dame from 2010-14
- Spearheaded Irish recruiting effort that brought in consensus top-15 classes each of the last two seasons
- Jaylon Smith eclipsed 100 tackles in consecutive seasons and no Power 5 linebacker, other than Smith, made the following claim in 2015: 114 or more tackles, 9.0 TFLs and five PBUs
- Oversaw the Notre Dame special teams units in 2010 and 2011
- Aided in the mentorship of four freshman defensive linemen in 2014, Jay Hayes, Daniel Cage, Andrew Trumbetti and Grant Blankenship — all of whom played significantly as rookies
- Played critical role in the development of Sheldon Day, who was drafted in the fourth round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars
- Developed Stephon Tuitt and Louis Nix III into second- and third-round NFL Draft picks (2014), respectively
- Mentored the first tandem of Irish defensive linemen to be chosen in the top three rounds of the same draft since 1997
- Helped Tuitt finish his career with 21.5 sacks — tied for third in school history
- Major impact on Kapron Lewis-Moore's development into a sixth-round NFL Draft pick in 2013 — would have been drafted much higher had it not been for a torn ACL suffered in the 2013 Bowl Championship Series National Championship Game
- Injuries ravaged the Irish defensive line in 2013 — trio of Day, Nix III and Tuitt were on the field together for only 23 plays over final 10 games of the season

- Led an Irish defensive line that allowed only four rushing touchdowns in 2012 (first did not come until the eighth game of the year) — the fewest in the FBS
- Tuitt and Nix III became the first pair of Irish defensive linemen to earn All-America status in same season since 1989
- Oversaw a Notre Dame defensive line that helped hold eight different opponents to under 100 yards rushing in 2012, which was tied for the most of any BCS automatically-qualifying school
- Mentored an Irish defensive line unit that helped limit their foes to 3.47 yards per rush, which ranked 17th in the FBS
- Helped Notre Dame kick returner George Atkinson III rank 19th in the FBS in kickoff return average (26.1) in 2011
- Irish kick return unit improved from 75th in the FBS in 2010 to 36th in 2011
- Helped David Ruffer to an All-America caliber season in 2010 and was named a finalist for the Lou Groza Award, presented to college football's top place kicker
- Helped Ruffer convert his first 18 field-goal attempts of 2010, which snapped school records for most consecutive made field goals in a season (18) and career (23)
- Held responsibilities of assistant head coach, recruiting coordinator, special teams coordinator, tight ends coach and defensive line coach over three years at Cincinnati (2007-09)
- Helped implement a new scheme in 2009 with three first-year starters on a Bearcats' defensive line that limited their opponents to 3.6 rushing yards per carry
- Coached a Cincinnati defensive line in 2009 that played a major role as the Bearcats registered the third-most tackles for loss and 10th-most sacks in the FBS
- Helped Ricardo Mathews earn second-team all-BIG EAST honors as he led Cincinnati with 12.5 tackles for loss, and Alex Daniels paced the defensive line with 56 tackles and 8.5 sacks
- Served as Cincinnati's special teams coordinator in 2009 for the third straight season
- Guided Mardy Gilyard as he captured BIG EAST Special Teams Player of the Year for the second consecutive season in 2009
- Gilyard averaged 30.5 yards per kickoff return and 12.6 yards per punt return
- Coached a Bearcats' kickoff return unit that ranked second in the nation in 2009, averaging 28.5 yards per kickoff return
- Mentored two-time Associated Press All-America punter (2007, 2008) and 2007 consensus selection Kevin Huber at Cincinnati
- Critical reason the Bearcats became only the fourth team in FBS history to lead the nation in net punting in consecutive seasons
- Helped Kevin Huber capture the 2007 BIG EAST Special Teams Player of the Year award after he led the nation averaging 46.9 yards per punt
- Spent three seasons at Central Michigan (2004-06) under Irish head coach Brian Kelly
- Coached two all-MAC linebackers in 2006, including the league's top tackler
- Served as CMU's co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach in 2005 and mentored Dan Bazuin, who led the nation with 26.5 tackles for loss and tied a MAC record with 16 sacks
- First full-time coaching job came at Eastern Michigan University (2001-03) where he coached defensive line and then added recruiting coordinator responsibilities his final two years
- First taste of coaching came as a graduate assistant at the University of Michigan from 1999-2000

PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Began his college career as an offensive lineman at Springfield College (Mass.) before transferring to East Stroudsburg, where an injury ended his playing days

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- A 35-year coaching veteran who has coached offensive line at the FBS or NFL level for 28 consecutive seasons, including each of the last five years at Notre Dame
- Guided offensive lines at Notre Dame, as well as programs in the Southeastern Conference, Big Ten Conference, Big Eight Conference and NFL for the past 23 seasons
- Developed four offensive linemen into top-three round NFL Draft picks since 2013 (Ronnie Stanley, 1st; Zack Martin, 1st; Nick Martin, 2nd; and Chris Watt, 3rd)
- Over the 11 NFL Drafts (2002-12) prior to Hiestand's arrival at Notre Dame, only two Irish offensive linemen were drafted in the first three rounds and not a single one since 2007
- Stanley was the highest-drafted Notre Dame offensive lineman since 1969
- Stanley, who was drafted sixth in 2016, was the highest-drafted Irish player since quarterback Rick Mirer was the second overall selection by the Seattle Seahawks in the 1993 draft
- The Irish averaged 207.6 rushing yards per game in 2015, including six games with 200+ yards (Texas, Virginia, Georgia Tech, UMass, USC and Stanford)
- Notre Dame's average of 5.63 yards per carry set a modern (post-WWII) school record
- Four pupils were chosen in the 2014 NFL Draft — Zack Martin (first round) and Chris Watt (third round) of Notre Dame and Tennessee's Ja'Wuan James (first) and Zach Fulton (sixth)
- Mentored a unit that allowed just eight sacks in 2013, which ranked tied for second in the FBS in fewest sacks allowed
- Guided an offensive line in 2012 that nearly helped the Irish average over 200 yards per game in both rushing and passing, which had previously happened only twice in school history (1977, 1970)
- Coached offensive line for two years at the University of Tennessee (2010-11)
- Mentored the Volunteers offensive line unit that allowed only 18 sacks while attempting 400 passes in 2011—and only Alabama, among conference schools, allowed fewer sacks
- Inherited a Tennessee offensive line group in 2010 that featured only one player with starting experience and that amounted to only three career starts
- Guided three true freshmen on a 2010 offensive line that helped Tauren Poole rush for 1,034 yards and tie for the SEC lead with six 100-yard rushing games
- Spent five seasons coaching the offensive line of the Chicago Bears (2005-09)
- Member of a coaching staff that not only helped the Bears win division championships in 2005 and 2006, but also advanced to Super Bowl XLI following the '06 season
- Guided a pair of players to Pro Bowl honors while in Chicago — Olin Kreutz (2005 and 2006) and Ruben Brown (2006)
- Helped Kreutz in 2006 become the first Bears' offensive lineman to be named first-team All-Pro in 17 years
- Coached the offensive line for eight years at the University of Illinois (1997-2004)
- Held the title of assistant head coach for his final five seasons in Champaign (2000-04)
- Tutored 12 All-Big Ten selections on the offensive line, and every senior starting offensive lineman in his first seven years with the Illini signed with an NFL team
- Developed six offensive linemen into NFL Draft picks during his tenure at Illinois
- Coached the offensive line for three years at the University of Missouri (1994-96)

- Mentored four All-Big 12 selections on the Missouri offensive line in 1996
- Spent five years coaching the offensive line at the University of Cincinnati (1989-93)
- Held the title of run game coordinator and the duties of offensive coordinator in 1993
- First coaching job at the FBS level was at Toledo with tight ends in 1988
- Coached the tight ends at Ivy League champion Penn (10-0) in 1986
- Served as a student assistant in 1982, assistant offensive line coach in 1983 and offensive line coach in 1984-85 at alma mater, East Stroudsburg

PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Began college career at Birmingham-Southern College where he was a member of the baseball team that captured the NAIA World Series title in 2001
- Lettered in baseball at Belmont in 2002 before transferring to Vanderbilt for football

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- First season as the Irish linebackers coach in 2017
- Over his 11-year career, Lea has mentored one All-American (Akeem Ayers, UCLA) and 10 all-conference selections
- Comes to Notre Dame following a one-year stint as linebackers coach at Wake Forest, alongside Irish defensive coordinator Mike Elko
- In 2016, the Demon Deacons' defense ranked in the top-20 of the FBS in fumbles recovered (third), turnovers forced (10th), sacks (12th), defensive TDs (17th), red zone defense (17th) and scoring defense (20th)
- Wake Forest was one of four schools in the FBS to rank in the top-20 in turnovers forced, sacks and scoring defense in 2016 (the other three schools -- Alabama, Clemson and Washington -- qualified for the College Football Playoff)
- Instrumental in the development of Demon Deacon linebacker Marquel Lee, who not only earned All-ACC second team honors in 2016, but was also selected to take part in the 2017 East-West Shrine Game
- Lee was the only FBS linebacker to post at least 100 tackles, 20 TFLs and 7.5 sacks in 2016 (only one other linebacker in the country met at least two of those three figures)

- Spent three seasons (2013-15) as the linebackers coach at Syracuse
- Developed Zaire Franklin into an All-ACC caliber linebacker
- In 2015, as a sophomore captain (the fourth sophomore captain in school history and first since 1945), Franklin led the Orange in tackles (81) and was second on the squad in tackles for loss (11)
- The 2014 Orange defense held nine of its 12 opponents to less than its season average for total offense and was one of four FBS teams to surrender fewer than 10 rushing touchdowns (Alabama, TCU, and Ole Miss were the others)
- In 2013, Syracuse ranked nationally in multiple categories, including third-down defense (15th), rush defense (24th), sacks (18th) and tackles for loss (18th)
- Lea worked with Irish defensive coordinator Mike Elko in 2012 at Bowling Green
- Helped assemble a unit at Bowling Green that ranked sixth in the country in total defense (296.6) and 10th in scoring defense (16.7)
- Bowling Green ranked fourth in the nation in third-down defense, fifth in first downs allowed (15.1), 11th in sacks (38), 12th in rushing defense (106.5) and 13th in pass defense (190.1)
- Finalist for Linebackers Coach of the Year by FootballScoop.com in 2012
- Graduate assistant at UCLA in 2006 before moving to South Dakota State for two seasons (2007-08)

- Four-year letterwinner at tight end for North Alabama from 2002-05
- 2005 Football Gazette First Team All-American
- Gulf South Conference All-Decade Team at tight end (2000-09)

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- First season as the Irish offensive coordinator coach in 2017
- Instrumental in the development of dynamic offenses over his entire coaching career, most recently as offensive coordinator at Memphis (2016)
- In 2016, the Tigers ranked among the top-20 Football Bowl Subdivision schools in passing offense (304.4, 14th), scoring offense (38.8, 16th), completion percentage (.635, 17th), passing efficiency (152.53, 19th) and first downs gained (303, 20th)
- Memphis was one of six FBS teams to rank in the top-20 in each of those offensive categories in 2016
- Prior to his tenure at Memphis, Long spent four seasons at Arizona State (2012-15) as the recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach
- Also coached the Sun Devils running backs in 2015
- Worked closely with then Sun Devils offensive coordinator and now Memphis head coach Mike Norvell
- The Sun Devils averaged 37 points a game, finished with consecutive 10-win seasons (2013, 2014), earned a pair of top-25 finishes in the national polls and won the 2013 Pac-12 South crown
- His direction and guidance played a significant role in the development of Arizona State tight end Chris Coyle, the school's top performer at the position this decade
- As a senior in 2013, Coyle finished third in the nation among tight ends with 4.38 receptions per game, averaged 14.6 yards per catch and caught four touchdowns
- Coyle finished his Sun Devil career third on the program's all-time list for most receptions by a tight end (92) while his nine touchdown grabs tied for fourth in ASU history among tight ends
- Made an immediate impact in first season in Tempe (2012) as Coyle set the single-season school record for most receptions by a tight end with a team-leading 57 catches and was one touchdown shy (five) of tying the school's single-season record for touchdown receptions by a tight end
- Recognized as one of the nation's top-25 recruiters by both Rivals and 247Sports in 2015
- Listed by Rivals as one of the top recruiters in the Pac-12 Conference from 2012-14

- Lead recruiter for wide receiver Jaelen Strong, who earned 2014 ESPN All-America first team accolades and was a 2015 NFL Draft third-round selection by the Houston Texans
- Served as the tight ends/fullbacks coach at Illinois for two seasons (2010-11)
- Given the task of molding tight ends and fullbacks out of a roster that was largely designed to run the spread offense in first season at Illinois
- True-freshmen Evan Wilson and Jay Prosch thrived under his tutelage, with Wilson starting 11 games at tight end and Prosch starting seven at fullback
- Coaching was instrumental as Prosch eventually developed into a Pro Football Weekly first-team All-American in 2011
- Mentored the Arkansas tight ends as an offensive graduate assistant for two years (2008-09)
- Helped develop tight end D.J. Williams, who in 2008, became the first Mackey Award semifinalist in Arkansas history
- Williams had a record-breaking season that saw him garner All-Southeastern Conference first team honors as he led the Razorbacks in both receptions (61) and receiving yards (723)
- In 2009, Williams was a second-team All-SEC selection and ultimately captured the 2010 Mackey Award as the nation's most outstanding tight end
- Worked with wide receivers and quarterbacks as a member of Louisville's staff as an offensive graduate assistant for two years (2006-07)
- The 2006 Cardinals (ranked No. 5 (AP)/No. 6 (coaches) in the final national polls) squad posted a 12-1 overall record and earned a spot in the 2007 Orange Bowl, where it posted a 24-13 victory over No. 15 Wake Forest
- Played an integral role in developing an offense that finished among the nation's top-10 in scoring offense three times in his career
- Associated with offenses that have ranked among the nation's top-20 in scoring offense in seven of 11 seasons as a collegiate coach

DYNAMIC DISCIPLES*QB Riley Ferguson (Memphis)

- Father, Bill, enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2015

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- First season as the Irish special teams coordinator in 2017
- Worked with special teams, defensive backs and linebackers in his first stint at Notre Dame (2005-09)
- Spent the last four years as the head coach at Nevada (2013-16)

- Led the Wolf Pack to consecutive bowl games in 2014 and 2015, including a victory in the inaugural '15 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl -- Nevada's fifth bowl win in school history
- Guided Nevada to 22 wins, 26 individual All-Mountain West honors and unprecedented academic honors
- Nevada posted a 7-6 overall record with a 4-4 mark in Mountain West play in 2015, marking consecutive seasons he led the Wolf Pack to a winning record
- Nevada used a lethal ground-and-pound offense in '15, as James Butler and Don Jackson each eclipsed 1,000 yards rushing (the Wolf Pack were one of just three teams in the nation with a pair of 1,000-yard rushers)
- Turned the tide from year one to year two of his tenure as the program reached new heights on and off the field in 2014
- Registered a 7-6 record and returned to a bowl game, playing in the 2014 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl
- The Wolf Pack defeated Pac-12 foe Washington State, scored impressive road wins at BYU, Hawaii and San Jose State, and capped the regular season with a dominating win at UNLV
- Helped nine student-athletes earn 2014 All-Mountain West honors, including Cody Fajardo, who became just the second player in NCAA history to pass for 9,000 yards and rush for 3,000 yards in a career
- Selected to represent the Mountain West Conference on the inaugural College Football Officiating Competition Committee in June of 2015
- Came to Nevada after a year as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Texas A&M, which capped an 11-2 season in 2012 with a win over Oklahoma in the Cotton Bowl and an historic Heisman Trophy for then-freshman quarterback Johnny Manziel
- Two-year run with Stanford (2010-11) was marked by a pair of BCS bowl appearances and two of the top recruiting classes in school history
- Served as the special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator while also coaching the safeties with the Cardinal

DR. CHRIS BALINT

Orthopedic Surgeon

Dr. Chris Balint is a board certified, fellowship-trained orthopedic surgeon who specializes in sports medicine. He is in his 15th year in 2017 as an orthopedic surgeon for Notre Dame football team and other Irish athletic squads.

Balint received his undergraduate degree from the University of Notre Dame in 1990. He is a 1996 graduate of the Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine in Kirksville, Missouri, and completed his orthopedic residency at Genesys Regional Medical Center in Grand Blanc, Michigan. He also performed a fellowship specializing in sports medicine (shoulder and knee arthroscopy) at New England Baptist Hospital in Boston.

Balint not only serves as the chairman of the Notre Dame Orthopaedic Society, but is an active member of the following medical societies: Diplomate of American Osteopathic Board of Orthopedic Surgery, American Academy of Osteopathic Orthopedic Surgeons, American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons, Indiana Orthopedic Society, Indiana State Medical Association, St. Joseph County Medical Society, Arthroscopic Association of North America, American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine and the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners.

Balint has previous professional and collegiate athletic physician experience with the Boston Celtics, and Harvard and Northeastern universities.

Balint and his wife, the former Susan Gomez, have four children: Emma, Owen, Evan and Ella.

DAVID BALLOU

Co-Director Football Strength and Conditioning

David Ballou is in his first year in 2017 as co-director of strength and conditioning at Notre Dame. He has held the credential as a certified strength and conditioning specialist (with distinction) since 2001. Ballou was a finalist for the 2014 NSCA National High School Strength Coach of the Year Award.

Ballou comes to Notre Dame after one year as the physical conditioning coach at IMG Academy. His work was most evident in speed gains and injury prevention. IMG had seven players laser-timed in the 40-yard dash at under 4.5 seconds in 2016. A year prior, not one of that group was even close to approaching 4.5-flat. As far as injury prevention, 21 of the 22 players on the 2016 squad who started the season opener also started the season finale.

Prior to working at the IMG Academy, Ballou served as the head strength and conditioning coach at Avon High School, a top tier 6A school in Indiana, for 14 years. Avon won six team state championships in multiple sports and seven other teams were finalists. Ballou assisted in the development of 80 NCAA Division I athletes while serving as the strength coach at Avon.

Ballou was a three-year letterwinner and fullback at Indiana University. He was recognized as the Hoosier Strength Challenge Champion. Ballou graduated in 2001 from IU with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology. He earned his master's degree in human movement from A.T. Still University in 2015.

MIKE BEAN

Associate Athletic Trainer

Mike Bean is an associate athletic trainer at Notre Dame, working with the Irish football team since 1996. He also supervises the student-athletic trainer program.

A native of Belle Fourche, South Dakota, he has been at Notre Dame since 1991 as a full-time member of the sports medicine staff after a one-year internship. During his tenure at Notre Dame, he also has served as the athletic trainer for the University's baseball, women's and men's soccer, hockey and men's and women's tennis teams.

While obtaining his master's degree in sports medicine at Western Michigan University, Bean served as the head athletic trainer at Kalamazoo College, as well as working as a part-time assistant athletic trainer at the Southwestern Michigan Sports Medicine Clinic. During his undergraduate days at Southwest Missouri State University (now Missouri State University), Bean was a student athletic trainer for the Bears' football, baseball and volleyball teams. He also spent time at Evangel College in Springfield, Missouri, working with the school's football and basketball squads.

Bean began his athletic training education at Black Hills State University in Spearfish, South Dakota, working with its football, basketball and wrestling programs. He received his bachelor's degree in education from Southwest Missouri State in 1989. He also received an honorary monogram from the Notre Dame Monogram Club in 2006.

Bean is married to the former Colleen Waldron of South Bend, and they have two daughters: Taylor and Courtney.

CLAY BIGNELL

Graduate Assistant - Defense

Clay Bignell is in his second year in 2017 at Notre Dame as a defensive graduate assistant.

Bignell was a defensive graduate assistant at Northwestern for two years (2014-15). In 2015, the Wildcats reached the 10-win plateau for the fourth time in program history. Northwestern had five defensive players earn All-Big Ten honors as its defense ranked among the top 20 in the Football Bowl Subdivision in pass efficiency defense (3rd), scoring defense (12th), total defense (13th) and fewest first downs allowed (19th).

Bignell, who played linebacker at Montana State, served as a defensive intern at his alma mater in 2013. His duties included significant work on video breakdown, scouting and practice preparation for his fellow defensive coaches.

Bignell won a pair of Big Sky championships at Montana State (2007-11). He was a second-team All-Big Sky Conference selection as a redshirt sophomore in 2009 when he registered 71 total tackles despite missing two games due to an injury. Bignell, who battled an ankle injury that limited him to only five starts in 2010, still put together an 11-tackle performance in the Bobcats' near-upset of Washington State. As a senior captain in 2011, Bignell started 13 games, registered 67 tackles and helped Montana State to a 10-3 record and Football Championship Subdivision playoff berth.

Bignell graduated from Montana State in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in business.

Bignell and his wife, the former Kaylee Davies, were married in 2015.

HARLAND BOWER

Graduate Assistant - Defense

Harland Bower is in his second year in 2017 at Notre Dame as a defensive graduate assistant.

Bower joined the Irish coaching staff after a two-year stint as the outside linebackers coach at Central Arkansas (2014-15). He mentored two-time All-Southland Conference performer Ricky Wyatt, who registered 146 tackles and 31.0 tackles for loss over the last two seasons.

Bower's coaching career includes stops at Troy (2013, defensive graduate assistant), Rutgers (2012, defensive quality control coach), Murray State (2011, assistant football strength and conditioning coach) and Georgia Military College (2010, defensive backs coach and assistant strength and conditioning coach).

Bower began his playing career in 2005 at Central Michigan, where he redshirted as a freshman. He transferred to Georgia Southern where he recorded 56 tackles in 27 career games.

Bower graduated from Georgia Southern in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in general studies and a minor in criminal justice.

AARON COELING

Graduate Assistant - Offense

Aaron Coeling is in his first year in 2017 at Notre Dame as an offensive graduate assistant.

Coeling joined the Irish coaching staff after a two-year stint as an offensive graduate assistant at Miami University (2015-16). He assisted George Barnett with the Redhawks offensive line.

A Centerville, Ohio native, Coeling graduated from Wittenberg University in 2014 with a degrees in business marketing and sport management. He was a four-year starter on the offensive line for the Tigers from 2011-2014.

Coeling was a three-time All-North Coast Athletic Conference selection and three-time all-region nominee. He was named a third-team All-American as a junior in 2013. During his playing career, Wittenberg finished with a 37-8 record and won the NCAC Championship three times.

TIM COLLINS

Video Coordinator

Tim Collins is in his 27th year in 2017 in charge of all video and filming needs for Notre Dame's athletic department as its video systems coordinator. In addition to traveling to shoot Irish football games, Collins compiles all video packages utilized by Notre Dame's football coaches in their scouting and game preparation. Collins and his staff also tape men's and women's home basketball games as well as hockey.

A native of South Bend, Collins is a 1987 graduate of John Adams High School and attended Indiana Vocational Technical College. He also spent three years as a part-time news photographer at WNDU-TV, the NBC affiliate in South Bend. Collins was named the independent conference video coordinator of the year in 1997, 1998, 2003 and 2004 by the Collegiate Sports Video Association.

In 2001, Collins was elected an executive officer of the CSVA, serving as secretary, and in 2002 was named treasurer of the organization. In 2004, the Notre Dame Monogram Club awarded Collins an honorary monogram in recognition of his years of service.

Collins and his wife, the former Michelle Williamson, married in 1990, and have one son, Carson.

JULIE DEBUYSER

Senior Staff Assistant

Julie DeBuyser is in her 34th year in 2017 as the administrative assistant for the coaching staff in the Notre Dame football office. In her role, DeBuyser serves as the primary assistant to Notre Dame's assistant coaches. A native of South Bend,

DeBuyser is married to Denny DeBuyser and the couple has a son, Chris Martin, a 2003 Notre Dame graduate, and two daughters: Cara DeBuyser and Deanne Burton.

JACOB FLINT

Co-Director of Strength and Conditioning

Jacob Flint is in his eighth year and first in 2017 as co-director of strength and conditioning at Notre Dame. He is a registered strength and conditioning coach by the NSCA and certified by USAW as a level one sports performance coach.

Prior to joining Notre Dame's staff in January 2010, Flint was a member of the strength and conditioning staff at the University of Cincinnati from 2007-09. While at Cincinnati, Flint helped the Bearcats to a 33-6 record, while winning back-to-back BIG EAST championships in 2008 and 2009.

Flint played for Notre Dame head coach Brian Kelly at Central Michigan University as a walk-on and was rewarded for his dedication to the football program with a scholarship in his last season in 2005. Following his senior season, Flint worked as a staff assistant, serving primarily in the weight room while also assisting with the development of the running backs in the 2006 Mid-American Conference championship season.

Flint competes in the 85-kilogram weight class of USA weightlifting and is a national level lifter.

A native of Shepherd, Michigan, Flint was a four-sport letter-winner at Shepherd High School and was twice named an all-league running back. He graduated with honors from Central Michigan University in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in education.

Flint is married to the former Katie Schafer and they have three daughters: Blayke, Parker and Beckett.

DAVID GRIMES

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Former Notre Dame football captain David Grimes returned to the program in 2011 and started his role as assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2012. He is a registered strength and conditioning coach by the NSCA.

As the player development intern in 2011, Grimes served as a resource for the Irish football players. He acted as a liaison between the players and coaching staff, and served as a primary contact between Notre Dame's student welfare and development office and academic services for student-athletes department. Through the student welfare and development office, Grimes helped coordinate community service projects through the "Irish Around the Bend" program. He also helped coordinate and monitor the study hall sessions at the Guglielmino Athletics Complex.

Grimes graduated from Notre Dame in 2009 with a degree in marketing and participated in the training camps of the Denver Broncos in 2009 and Kansas City Chiefs in 2010.

Voted a team captain as a senior, Grimes played wide receiver for the Irish from 2005-08. He played in 45 games during his Notre Dame career and started 24 contests. Grimes played in three bowl games, including two Bowl Championship Series games (2006 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and 2007 Allstate Sugar Bowl).

Born in Los Angeles, Grimes graduated from St. Martin DePorres High School in Detroit, Michigan, and was valedictorian at his senior year commencement.

RYAN GROOMS

Head Football Equipment Manager

Ryan Grooms is in his eighth year in 2017 at Notre Dame as the head football equipment manager. He directs all facets of athletic equipment management for the Irish football team and oversees one assistant equipment manager and 50 student managers.

Grooms came to Notre Dame following two years at the University of Minnesota, where he served in a similar capacity. Prior to Minnesota, he spent five seasons as a football equipment specialist for the United States Air Force Academy.

During his time at Air Force, Grooms supervised 30 Cadet student managers and oversaw the daily football operations that included laundry for more than 240 varsity and junior varsity football players. He was responsible for organization and upkeep of the Falcon Athletic Center equipment room and bi-annual inventory.

Grooms has been involved in equipment management since 2000, when he was a student at Ohio University. He spent two seasons with the Bobcat football team working with equipment and also taking part in film exchange and highlight videos.

Following graduation, Grooms was an equipment intern for the New Orleans Saints' summer training camp. He spent one year as a graduate assistant at Marshall University, where he supervised 12 student managers and assisted with equipment travel.

Grooms is a member of the Athletic Equipment Manager Association and was a 2008 nominee for the Knight Pickard Award as the District 7 Equipment Manager of the Year. He also serves on the McDavid Advisory Committee.

He and his wife Lynzee have two sons, Easton and Brecken.

DR. JERRY HOFFERTH, D.C.

Chiropractor

Dr. Jerry Hoffert, D.C., is in his 13th year in 2017 as the chiropractor for Notre Dame football and all other Irish athletic teams. He also enters his 26th year of private practice at Hoffert Chiropractic Center in Mishawaka.

Hoffert earned his undergraduate degree from North Central College (Naperville, Illinois) in 1988. He's a 1992 graduate of Palmer College of Chiropractic in Davenport, Iowa. Hoffert collected a post-graduate certification in spinal trauma from the International Chiropractors Association in 1996.

Hoffert has been a board member of the Indiana State Chiropractic Association since 2007.

A native of Munster, Indiana, Hoffert is married to the former Kelly Day and the couple has two daughters: Sydney and Madison.

TORI HOMMEL

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Tori Hommel is in her third year in 2017 with the Notre Dame sports medicine department. She primarily works with the Irish football team. Hommel helps with treatment and rehabilitation of student-athlete injuries plus covers practices and games.

Hommel graduated in 2013 from Idaho with a bachelor's degree in education/athletic training. She then earned her master's degree in kinesiology and exercise science from LSU in 2015.

Prior to working at Notre Dame, Hommel was a LSU graduate assistant athletic trainer who worked with the men's and women's swimming and diving teams and football program. As an Idaho student athletic trainer, she worked with the women's basketball, women's volleyball, football and men's basketball squads.

ROB HUNT

Director of Athletic Training

Rob Hunt is in his seventh year in 2017 at Notre Dame and second as director of athletic training. Hunt provides oversight for all athletic trainers and physical therapists within the sports medicine department.

Prior to Notre Dame, Hunt worked at Oklahoma State University for five years, serving as the head football athletic trainer from 2006-07 and the head athletic trainer for the Cowboys starting in 2007. At Oklahoma State, Hunt served as athletic trainer for the football team all five years and in his final four years in Stillwater, he coordinated all aspects of medical care for the athletic department's 16 athletics teams as well as supervised six assistant athletic trainers, eight graduate assistants and two insurance coordinators.

Prior to moving to Oklahoma State, Hunt was the head athletic trainer at Southeast Missouri State (2004-06) after serving as an assistant athletic trainer with the University of Missouri football team (1999-2004). In his final year with the Tigers, Hunt also served as director of rehabilitation services.

A graduate of Ball State in 1997 with a degree in athletic training, Hunt earned his master's degree in education at Missouri and served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer (1997-99).

A native of West Lafayette, Indiana, Hunt is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association. He and his wife Krista are parents of four children: Robbie, Alexa, Rachel and Cole.

JASMINE JOHNSON

Coordinator of On-Campus Recruiting

Jasmine Johnson enters her third year in 2017 with the Notre Dame football program as the coordinator of on-campus recruiting. A graduate of Notre Dame in 2013 with a degree in psychology, Johnson worked with the Irish recruiting office for two seasons (2011-12) as a student ambassador.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Johnson served General Mills, Inc., as a business management associate. She acted as an internal consultant responsible with identifying opportunities in market, supporting customer growth with analytics, and developing and executing customer business plans.

Johnson served on the Orange Bowl Committee as the junior hospitality team captain (2010-13). She also offered services as a resident assistant, sports nutrition assistant and student athletic trainer during her undergraduate days at Notre Dame.

DALE JONES

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Dale Jones enters his first year in 2017 with the Notre Dame football program as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Jones joined the Notre Dame staff after a four-year stint at Texas A&M (2013-16). He worked with Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Manziel and the rest of the Aggie quarterbacks. Jones not only guided quarterback-specific workouts during his tenure, but he also worked with NFL first-round offensive line draft picks in Germain Ifo, Cedric Ogbuehi and Jake Matthews, as well as wide receiver Mike Evans, who was also selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

Jones designed flexibility and mobility programs for specific individuals, while also co-writing the team's strength and conditioning program.

Prior to Texas A&M, Jones spent 12 years as an assistant director of sports performance at the University of Houston. He worked with football, baseball, women's basketball, softball, track (field events), soccer, swimming and diving and tennis over his tenure with the Cougars.

Jones focused in all areas of sports performance with his assigned teams, individualizing many aspects of the student-athletes training.

In addition to his strength and conditioning duties at Houston, Jones served as an adjunct lecturer for the Health and Human Performance Department, instructing graduate courses in strength and conditioning. He also worked as a senior advisor for strength and conditioning at The Edge Extreme in Flower Mound, Texas.

Jones joined the UH Athletics Department in 2001 after teaching undergraduate courses in the Health and Human Performance Department at the University for a year. In 2003, he received his master's degree in exercise science from Houston.

Jones served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at North Texas during the 1997-98 season and was a volunteer strength and conditioning coach at SMU in 1997.

He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise physiology with magna cum laude honors from Washburn in 1994. In addition, he was recognized as the 1994 Physical Education Major of the Year and the NASPE Physical Education Major of the Year.

Jones is certified by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. He also is a certified strength and conditioning specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association and Sports Performance Coach by USA Weightlifting. He has completed his CrossFit Mobility training. Jones is also a certified person trainer through ISSA (International Sports Science Association).

Jones lives in Granger, Indiana, with his wife, Nicole, and their two daughters, Abigail and Madison.

AARYN KEARNEY

Director of Recruiting

Aaryn Kearney enters his third year in 2017 with the Notre Dame football program as the director of recruiting. He assists recruiting coordinator Mike Elston and director of player personnel Dave Peloguin in the recruiting department. He organizes all official and unofficial visits by prospective student-athletes, manages compliance and academic records for recruits, oversees student workers and helps organize game day recruiting efforts.

Kearney came to Notre Dame after a six-season tenure in a similar role at the University of Nebraska. He joined the Huskers' football staff in February 2009 as a recruiting staff assistant. Kearney was promoted to director of recruiting operations in 2014.

Kearney directed the day-to-day operations of Nebraska's recruiting staff and was responsible for the implementation of the Huskers' recruiting plan. He oversaw the football staff's evaluation process. Kearney assisted with roster management, initial eligibility of prospective student-athletes and organizing NCAA compliance records pertaining to recruiting activities and campus visits. Kearney also served as the program's NFL liaison for pro personnel.

In addition to assisting the football staff in recruiting, Kearney was actively involved with the Big Red Football School and coaching clinics. Kearney worked in the recruiting office as a student worker for the previous year before his full-time appointment.

A native of Auburn, Nebraska, Kearney started his association with the Husker football program in 2003, working as a student manager for five seasons. Kearney served as the head student manager during the 2007 season.

Kearney graduated from the University of Nebraska in December, 2008, with a bachelor's degree in communication studies.

CHAD KLUNDER

Associate Athletics Director, Football Operations

Chad Klunder is in his 15th year at Notre Dame in 2017 and fifth as associate athletics director for football operations. He coordinates and oversees all day-to-day administrative and operational details including team travel, budgets, pre-season camp arrangements, the annual coaches clinic and summer camps.

A former graduate assistant coach at Notre Dame in 2003-04, Klunder worked with the Irish offense for two seasons. He previously served as running backs coach and coordinator of football operations at Harvard (1998-2002). During his tenure at Harvard, his running backs led the Ivy League in rushing on three occasions. He coached three all-Ivy League players, including Chris Menick, Harvard's all-time leading rusher. Harvard in 2001 finished 9-0 in the Ivy League and became the first Harvard team to go unbeaten or untied in conference play since 1913.

Klunder also served as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach at Minnesota — and worked as a graduate assistant football coach at St. Cloud State. At St. Cloud, he coached Randy Martin, who was a finalist in 1995 and '96 for the Harlon Hill Trophy that goes to the NCAA Division II player of the year.

The Waverly, Iowa, native played defensive back at Wartburg College in Waverly. He earned four letters, was twice a unanimous all-league pick and gained honorable mention All-America recognition. He served as a Wartburg co-captain in 1994, when his team advanced to the NCAA Division III quarterfinals.

Klunder received a degree in sports management from Wartburg in 1995 and has done master's degree coursework at St. Cloud State, Minnesota and Notre Dame.

Klunder is married to the former Lisa Malin, who is executive director of the Kelly Cares Foundation. The couple has one daughter, Allyson.

DR. MATT LEISZLER, M.D.

Team Physician

Dr. Matt Leiszler, M.D., is in his fourth year in 2017 at Notre Dame as the head football team physician.

Leiszler graduated from Harvard University in 2003 with a degree in biology. He finished medical school at the University of Kansas School of Medicine in 2008.

After his residency with the University of Colorado (HealthONE Rose Medical Center) Program (2009-11), Leiszler did a sports medicine fellowship with the University of Colorado Hospital in 2012.

Leiszler was on the faculty at the University of Colorado Hospital, splitting his time between primary care family medicine and sports medicine, for two years (2013-14).

A native of Derby, Kansas, Leiszler was a varsity letter-winning running back on the football team at Harvard. He ran for six touchdowns and 483 yards during his sophomore season. Leiszler was projected to be the starting running back as a junior, but he suffered a career-ending repeat ACL injury before the season started.

Leiszler and his wife Tori are parents of two children: Teegan and Tana.

BRANDON LEMON

Offensive Analyst

Brandon Lemon is in his first year in 2017 as the offensive analyst at Notre Dame.

Lemon joined the Irish staff following one season at the University of New Haven (2016), where he coached wide receivers. Lemon helped Ty Headen earned First Team All-Northeast-10 honors as a senior in 2016. Headen hauled in 56 receptions for a career-high 991 yards and eight TDs. Headen finished his New Haven career second all-time in receptions with 179 and fourth in receiving yards with 2,416.

Prior to New Haven, Lemon was an assistant coach at St. Lawrence University for two years (2014-15). He worked with the receiving corps. In 2015, the Saints set school records for nearly all passing categories featuring All-Liberty League selections Mitch Gallagher and Leondre Simmon.

In 2013, he coached the cornerbacks at Methodist University where he mentored two all-conference players as Tyler Mitchell received First Team All-USA South honors and D.J. Payne was named to the second team. He also coached special teams and spent time in the spring guiding slot receivers.

Lemon also has coaching experience with two USA National Development camps.

As a student-athlete, Lemon played four years at Salisbury University. As a senior, Salisbury advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division III Tournament losing to eventual National Champion Wisconsin-Whitewater.

Lemon received his Bachelor's Degree in Sociology in May 2012.

JOY MCCAUSLAND

Senior Staff Assistant

Joy McCausland is in her 10th year in 2017 in the Irish football office and her 18th year overall at the University of Notre Dame.

McCausland serves as the primary contact for all general communication and donation requests at the Guglielmino Athletics Complex. Prior to joining the Irish football office, McCausland worked at Notre Dame's Hesburgh Library for five years and the chemistry/physics library for three years.

A native of Lakeville, Indiana, she has three sons: Kyle, Kayne and Michael.

JASON MICHELSON

Coordinator of Football Operations

Jason Michelson enters his sixth year in 2017 with the Notre Dame football program and fourth as coordinator of football operations. He spent the 2012 campaign as the program's operations intern.

Michelson coordinates and oversees all day-to-day administrative and operational details including team travel, preseason camp arrangements, the annual coaches clinic and summer camps.

Prior to his arrival at Notre Dame, Michelson was an operations intern with the Detroit Lions during the 2011 campaign.

Michelson graduated from Ohio University in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in sports management. He was born in Kansas City, Missouri, but was raised in Lebanon, Ohio.

Michelson is married to the former Lexi Merritt.

OLIVIA MITCHELL

Football Operations Intern

Olivia Mitchell enters her first year in 2017 with the Notre Dame football operations office.

Mitchell previously served as a team operations intern for the College Football Playoff. She assisted in the planning and execution of all events and operations associated with the teams participating in the 2017 College Football Playoff National Championship. Mitchell supervised all planning materials requested from the four participating teams, assisted participants' personnel in the execution of various tasks as it relates to practice, schedules, travel and facilities. She participated in the development and managed the execution of the team and official party hospitality programs.

Mitchell graduated from Notre Dame in 2016 with a bachelor's degree in marketing. She was a senior recruiting assistant for the Irish football program during her undergraduate years. Mitchell also interned for Athletes First, LLC., and the National Football League's Chicago Bears.

ADAM MYERS

Assistant Football Equipment Manager

Adam Myers is in his eighth year in 2017 as the assistant football equipment manager at Notre Dame.

Prior to his arrival in 2010, Myers spent two years at the University of Minnesota, where he managed the Golden Gophers' student equipment managers, repaired damaged equipment and packed team trunks for travel to away games.

Prior to joining the Minnesota staff, Myers served as a graduate assistant equipment manager at Marshall University, where he was responsible for fitting student-athletes with helmets, shoulder pads, footwear and other equipment. He was also charged with equipment repair, inventory, laundry, transportation assistance and other duties at Marshall.

He served as a student manager at Marshall from 2002 through 2007 and worked with the wide receivers and quarterbacks in addition to handling laundry duties.

Myers completed a summer internship in 2005 with the New York Jets and was involved in laundry, maintenance of protective equipment, packing trunks for home preseason games and sideline and locker room setup for home preseason games.

A member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association since 2006, Myers was certified by the AEMA in June, 2006.

KARI OLIVER

Sports Nutrition Associate

Kari Oliver is in her third year in 2017 as a sports nutrition associate.

In her role, Oliver fuels and educates the Fighting Irish football team. She coordinates all meals and snacks at home and on the road, as well as overseeing training table. Oliver conducts body composition testing, runs one-on-one nutrition counseling sessions for student-athletes and gives nutrition lectures to football, as well as volleyball, baseball, softball, fencing, men's golf and cheerleading. She also serves on the Athletics Supplement Committee.

Prior to working at Notre Dame, Oliver was a sports nutrition intern at USC. She also served as a lifestyle educator at Kaiser Permanente for nearly four years, educating and counseling those with physical limitations and various medical conditions on exercise and healthy living practices. Oliver served as a sports nutrition summer intern at Baylor University.

Oliver graduated from California Baptist University in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and exercise science. She earned a master's degree in nutritional science from California State University-Los Angeles in 2015. Oliver completed her dietetic internship in 2014-15, and completed her rotations at Huntington Memorial Hospital, the Los Angeles County Sheriff's department men's and women's jails and at USC.

Oliver was a four-year member of the California Baptist women's volleyball team, playing libero and serving as captain her senior year.

CHRISTIAN PARKER

Defensive Analyst

Christian Parker is in his first year in 2017 as the defensive analyst at Notre Dame. He joins the Irish staff following a brief stint as the cornerbacks coach at William & Mary.

Parker joined the Tribe's staff in February 2017 after a two-year stint as an assistant at Norfolk State where he coached the safeties in 2015 and the defensive backs in '16. Additionally, he served as the recruiting coordinator both seasons.

Honored as a 2017 AFCA/NCAA 30 Under 30 Coaches Leadership Institute selection, Parker helped Norfolk State rank among the top 10 nationally in interceptions (18), pass efficiency defense (106.9) and passing yards allowed (171.1) last season. All three figures led the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference.

The successful 2016 campaign came one year after the Spartans ranked second in the league in interceptions.

Highlighting the individual players who benefited from Parker's tutelage were Sandy Chapman and Brandon Walker, who both earned All-MEAC honors last season. Chapman ranked second in the league in interceptions (five) and third in pass breakups (12).

Parker's recruiting efforts were also recognized, as Boxtorow ranked both of his recruiting classes in the top four among all Historically Black Colleges and Universities. NSU's 2016 class ranked as the best in the MEAC and third among HBCU's, while the 2017 class ranked second and fourth, respectively.

Parker was hired by NSU after a successful two-year stint helping mentor defensive backs at Virginia State University. Parker served as the cornerbacks coach at VSU in 2014 after working as a defensive graduate assistant in 2013.

The VSU secondary played a key role in the Trojans' defensive success in 2013 and 2014, when the Trojans went 19-4 and 15-0 against CIAA competition. VSU's defense ranked in the Division II top 20 in total defense in both 2013 (12th) and 2014 (20th). Also in 2014, the Trojans led the CIAA and ranked 12th nationally with 18 interceptions, and ranked 17th nationally in pass defense (174.2

ygs allowed) en route to a 10-3 overall record, the CIAA title and a first-round win in the Division II playoffs.

Parker coached an All-CIAA first-team performer in both of his years with the Trojans, mentoring Sean Smith in 2013 and Darion Thomas in 2014.

A native of Glen Allen, Virginia, Parker is a 2013 graduate of the University of Richmond with a degree in political science. He was a wide receiver and cornerback for the Spiders and was a member of CAA championship teams in 2009 and 2012. He also ran track for UR.

TYLER PLANTZ

Special Teams Analyst

Former Notre Dame monogram winner Tyler Plantz is in his third year in 2017 with the Irish football program and first as a special teams analyst.

Over his two years with the program's operations office, Plantz planned and organized summer youth camps and high school camps, and prepared team travel functions for training camp, home and away games. He also worked with director of player development Ron Powilus on various areas such as community service, team building projects, and coordinating meal and housing checks.

Plantz graduated from Notre Dame in 2014 with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

DAVE PELOQUIN

Director of Player Personnel

Dave Pelouquin is in his 14th year with the Notre Dame football program in 2017 and fifth as director of player personnel. Pelouquin's responsibilities include serving as a liaison between the program and various University departments, including admissions, academic services for student-athletes and campus housing.

Pelouquin also works with the program's recruiting efforts and handles special projects assigned by head coach Brian Kelly. He played a critical role in helping the Irish secure four top-10 recruiting classes in a six-year period.

Prior to being promoted to director of football development, Pelouquin served as coordinator of player personnel development for two seasons. In 2004, Pelouquin served in a similar capacity as a recruiting assistant, a role in which he worked with the coaching staff assisting in all recruiting aspects.

A 2003 Notre Dame graduate with a bachelor's degree in business marketing from the Mendoza College of Business, Pelouquin served as a student manager from 2000 to 2002 and was named head senior manager for the 2002 season.

Pelouquin is a native of Blue Island, Illinois, and is married to the former Jamie Meisenhelder. The couple has two daughters, Mackenzie and Kylie, and one son, DJ.

RON POWLUS

Director of Player Development

Former Notre Dame quarterback and assistant coach Ron Powlus is in his third year in 2017 as the director of player development.

Powlus is responsible for helping develop the Irish football players in three of the five core areas head coach Brian Kelly uses to develop complete student-athletes: intellectual development, social development and spiritual development (the coaching staff is charged with skill development and the strength and conditioning staff is responsible for physical development).

Powlus acts as a liaison between the football players and the coaching staff serving to aid in their development and all matters related to life off-the-field. He has created the 4for40: Excellence Beyond Player Development Program designed to further develop players in the areas of community, leadership, investment, NFL, integration, career and service. He coordinates community service projects via the football team's "Irish Around the Bend" initiative.

Powlus also works closely with academic services for student-athletes to coordinate and assist academic support efforts with resources, study sessions, and scheduling.

Prior to his return to Notre Dame, Powlus spent the better part of three seasons as the quarterbacks coach at Kansas University (2012-14). He was the passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach at the University of Akron for two years (2010-11).

Powlus previously spent five years at Notre Dame in two different roles: quarterbacks coach (2007-10) and director of personnel development (2005-06). In his initial role with the program, Powlus played an integral role in helping the 2006 and 2007 recruiting classes rank in the top 10 nationally as he helped direct the administrative aspects of Irish recruiting.

As an assistant coach, Powlus helped develop Jimmy Clausen into one of the most prolific passers in school history. Clausen still ranks first or second in 32 different passing categories, including tops in single-game completions, career completions per game, single-season completion percentage, career completion percentage, single-season pass efficiency, single-game passing yards per attempt, single-season 300-yard passing games, consecutive passes without an interception and lowest career interception percentage.

A four-year starter at quarterback for the Irish from 1994-97, Powlus was a two-time captain who set 20 school records at Notre Dame. He started all 44 regular-season games (plus two bowl games) in which he played and completed 558 of 969 passes for 7,602 yards and 52 TDs.

He signed as a free agent in 1998 with the Tennessee Oilers and then was on the Detroit Lions' preseason roster in 1999 and the Philadelphia Eagles' roster in 2000.

A native of Berwick, Pennsylvania, Powlus earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from Notre Dame in 1997. He and his wife, Sara, are parents of two sons, Ronnie and Tommy.

JEFF QUINN

Senior Offensive Analyst

Jeff Quinn is in his third year in 2017 with the Notre Dame football program and first as an offensive analyst.

Quinn, who served as Notre Dame's offensive analyst in 2015 and an assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2016, enters his 34th year of college coaching. He has produced NCAA, conference and school record-breaking offenses along with winning multiple conference, bowl and national championships.

Quinn served as the head coach at the University at Buffalo from 2010-14, which included a 2013 campaign that saw the Bulls finish with an 8-5 record. The eight wins were the most for Buffalo in the regular season since it moved to the FBS in 1999. The Bulls also won a school-record six Mid-American Conference games. Buffalo registered a seven-game winning streak, including the program's first victory over a school from a Bowl Championship Series conference (UConn). The Bulls participated in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl — the program's second bowl appearance.

Quinn had three of his players selected in the National Football League draft, including linebacker Khalil Mack who was chosen fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in 2014. Mack was the highest NFL Draft pick in school history and the highest defensive player ever selected from the Mid-American Conference. Quinn's teams also performed well in the classroom. Buffalo recorded the best overall GPA and APR ranking in program history during his tenure.

As offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Cincinnati (2007-2009), Quinn helped the Bearcats to a 12-0 regular-season record in 2009 and served as interim head coach for the Sugar Bowl meeting with defending national champion Florida.

Quinn was named a finalist for the 2009 Broyles Award, which is given to the nation's top assistant coach. Unranked in preseason polls, Cincinnati's undefeated regular season catapulted the Bearcats to No. 3 in the BCS standings and earned them an invitation to the Sugar Bowl, the school's second consecutive BCS game.

Prior to his stint at Cincinnati, Quinn was the associate head coach and offensive coordinator at Central Michigan. He helped the Chippewas to the 2006 MAC title. Quinn served as interim head coach for Central Michigan in its 31-14 victory over Middle Tennessee in the 2006 Motor City Bowl.

Quinn arrived at CMU in 2004 after 15 seasons at Grand Valley State. He was part of the staff that led the Lakers to back-to-back national championships in 2002 and 2003.

Quinn is a 1984 graduate of Elmhurst College where he was a two-sport standout in football and wrestling. He was twice named Student-Athlete of the Year at Elmhurst. Quinn was inducted into Elmhurst's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993.

Quinn earned a master of arts degree from DePauw in 1986 and an educational leadership master's degree endorsement from GVSU in 2000.

Quinn and his wife, Shannon, have two sons, Kyle and Ryan.

Director of Scouting

Bill Rees is in his first year in 2017 as the director of scouting at Notre Dame. He joins the Irish program following a two-year stint in a similar role at Wake Forest (2015-16).

Prior to Wake Forest, Rees spent three seasons as a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFL. He was an offseason outside consultant with the Buccaneers for the NFL Draft in 2009 and 2010 while also serving as the coordinator of player personnel and assistant director of football operations at Northwestern.

Before his most recent stint at Northwestern, Rees was a veteran of 16 years in the NFL, where he served as a scout for the Kansas City Chiefs (1994-97), the Director of College Scouting for the Chicago Bears (1997-2001), the Director of College Scouting (2001-03) and the Director of Player Personnel (2003-04) for the San Francisco 49ers, the Director of Player Personnel/College Scouting for the Cleveland Browns (2004-08) and a Pro and College Scout for the Chiefs (2008-09).

Rees began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Northwestern in 1976-77 before serving one year as an assistant coach for the Wildcats in 1978. He earned a master's degree in education administration from Northwestern in 1977. Rees then went on to serve as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for 15 years at UCLA from 1979-94.

Rees is a 1976 graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University with a bachelor's degree in history. He and his wife, Susan, have three children: Danny, a graduate of UCLA where he was a two-year letterman as a punter/holder; Meghan, a graduate of Miami (Ohio); and Tom, a four-year monogram winner at Notre Dame and current Irish quarterbacks coach.

BETH REX

Director of Football Administration

Beth Rex is in her eighth year in 2017 as director of football administration at Notre Dame after serving as the football program associate from 2008-09 at the University of Cincinnati.

Rex served as the assistant to current Irish head football coach Brian Kelly at Cincinnati and that continues to be part of her duties at Notre Dame, where she serves as the primary contact person in all matters for Kelly. Rex coordinates Kelly's schedule, is responsible for all football staff and office operations and assists in event planning.

Rex has been a driving force behind the very successful Football 101 initiative that benefits Kelly Cares Foundation and introduces women over the age of 21 to the game of football. She also has organized the Notre Dame Football Awards Show (ECHOES) that replaced the year-end celebratory banquet each of the last five seasons.

Rex has worked in athletics for 19 years, primarily as an athletics trainer. She served as an athletics trainer at Cincinnati from 2001-08 and worked with the football, baseball, women's basketball, men's soccer, tennis, men's and women's golf, cheerleading and dance teams. Among her various duties, Rex managed the administrative responsibilities of the athletics training room, oversaw the budget, handled all purchases and inventory and processed all medical claims for Cincinnati's student-athletes.

Rex also served as an adjunct professor at Cincinnati from 2006-08 and taught medical terminology, sports administration and athletics training.

Prior to Cincinnati, Rex was an assistant athletics trainer at the University of Memphis for two years (1999-2001) and one year at the College of Wooster (1998-99). She worked with the baseball, women's basketball and men's soccer teams at Memphis and at Wooster she managed the athletic training duties for 21 varsity sports. While living in Memphis, she assisted the Memphis Maniax of the Xtreme Football League in the spring of 2001.

Rex worked at the National Athletic Trainers Association from 1997-98, where she was a continuing education assistant.

Rex graduated in 1996 from Cincinnati with a bachelor's degree in education. She began her career as a graduate assistant at Eastern Kentucky where she earned her master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sports administration.

A native of Tiffin, Ohio, Rex is married to Byron Rex.

TYLER SANTUCCI

Senior Defensive Analyst

Tyler Santucci is in his first year as the defensive analyst at Notre Dame in 2017.

Santucci served as the outside linebackers coach at Texas State in 2016 after serving as a graduate assistant at Wake Forest in 2014 and 2015. He worked with the rovers under current Irish defensive coordinator Mike Elko.

Prior to Wake Forest, Santucci spent four years at his alma mater, Stony Brook (2010-13). He was the Seawolves defensive line coach and assisted with the defensive play calling in 2013. That season, Stony Brook ranked second in scoring defense and total defense in the Colonial Athletic Association. The Seawolves were also among the league's top five teams in rushing defense.

Santucci tutored defensive end Victor Ochi, who led Stony Brook with 10 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks in 2013. During the previous three years, he worked with safeties and defensive line. Under his leadership, Ryan Haber and Roosevelt Kirk earned All-Big South honors in 2011.

As a player for the Seawolves, Santucci earned second team All-America honors by the Associated Press after a senior season in which he led the defense with 93 tackles. The 2009 Big South Defensive Player of the Year, Santucci finished his career with 284 tackles, fourth all-time in school history. His 145 solo tackles are tied for the most in SBU history.

In December 2013, Santucci was one of four linebackers named to the Big South's All-Decade Team. He earned a sociology degree from Stony Brook in the spring of 2010.

RYAN SEHRER

Assistant Video Coordinator

Ryan Seherer is in his first year as the assistant video coordinator for the Notre Dame football team in 2017, serving as the primary assistant to video coordinator Tim Collins. In this role, Seherer assists with all video and filming needs for the football team in addition to traveling to all football games.

Seherer helps compile all video packages utilized by Notre Dame's football coaches in their scouting and game preparation and also works on special assignments within the program, such as highlight videos.

Seherer spent the 2016 season as a video intern with the National Football League's Cleveland Browns. He shot coaching video from end zone and sideline views at practices and other team-related activities. Seherer logged and archived both NFL and college game film, and data via XOS Thunder HD. He produced weekly in-house team highlight videos to be viewed for team meetings. Seherer assisted video staff with creating cut-ups and managing video at the college and professional level for coaches, scouts and players through DVSPORT Gameday.

Seherer, who also interned with the Michigan State football program in 2015, graduated from James Madison University in 2014 with a bachelor's degree in media arts and design.

STEVE SMITH

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Steve Smith is in his seventh year with the Notre Dame sports medicine department in 2017 and third primarily with the Irish football team. Smith helps with treatment and rehabilitation of student-athlete injuries plus covers practices and games.

Smith joined the Notre Dame sports medicine department as an assistant athletic trainer in August 2011, overseeing the Irish men's soccer team and women's tennis team. He has also worked with the Irish women's lacrosse team.

Smith was previously an assistant athletic trainer at Eastern Michigan University. He was responsible for men's basketball, as well as women's volleyball and women's crew.

A native of Negaunee, Michigan, Smith graduated in 2007 from Northern Michigan with a bachelor's degree in athletic training and worked with the football and hockey programs. He spent multiple summers covering summer camps at Notre Dame as an undergraduate student.

Smith earned a master's degree in 2009 in health care administration from Grand Valley State University. He was a graduate assistant and worked with both the football and baseball programs.

Smith is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association as well as Indiana Athletic Trainers Association.

PRYCE TRACY

Graduate Assistant - Offense

Pryce Tracy is in his fifth year with the Notre Dame football program in 2017 and first as an offensive graduate assistant.

Tracy, who served as the Irish special teams analyst in 2015 and offensive graduate assistant in 2016, assisted with valuable information designed to improve the efficiency and success of Notre Dame's special teams.

Tracy prepared statistical information acquired from the use of analytical platforms for the coaching staff to dissect and improve production.

Tracy was responsible for research projects and reports that assisted the coaching staff with game plan preparation and aided in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes.

Tracy spent two years with the program as a recruiting and personnel assistant. In that role, Tracy worked with recruiting efforts, handled projects assigned by the Irish coaches and assisted in the day-to-day strategies of the program.

Prior to his time at Notre Dame, Tracy spent the 2011 season with the University of Alabama football team. He directly worked under then Crimson Tide director of player personnel Ed Marnowitz, who was formerly the vice president of player personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Tracy served as a recruiting specialist for Alabama head coach Nick Saban. He assisted in player evaluation breakdowns and compiled the recruiting prospect board. Tracy also helped in the daily operations for the 2011 and 2012 Nick Saban Summer Camps. During his time in Tuscaloosa, the Crimson Tide captured the 2011 Bowl Championship Series title and brought in the top-ranked recruiting class in the country, according to Rivals.com, ESPN and 247Sports.com.

Prior to his tenure at Alabama, Tracy spent two seasons (2009-10) as an assistant coach at Clay High School in South Bend. The Colonials had five players who signed national letters of intent with Football Bowl Subdivision schools during his stay.

Note: The NCAA decided to include all bowl game statistics along with regular-season statistics starting in 2003. Before the '03 season, all bowl game statistics were not reflected in a player's final year stats and the NCAA decided not to make the ruling retroactive. Therefore, players who participated in bowl games before the 2003 season do not have their respective bowl game statistics reflected on these lists.

* Notre Dame record

NCAA LEADERS

Since the NCAA began producing its annual statistical rankings in 1937, individual Notre Dame players have finished in the final top 10 on 92 occasions.

From 1937 through 1969, all individual rankings were by season totals. Beginning in 1970, most season individual rankings were by per game averages. In total offense, rushing and scoring, it is yards or points per game; in receiving and interceptions, it is catches per game; in punt and kickoff returns, it is yards per return and in field goals, field goals per game. Punting always has been by average.

Beginning in 1970, passers were ranked on completions per game, and starting in 1979, were ranked on efficiency rating points. The all-purpose running rankings have been compiled only since 1970. The field-goal rankings began when the goal posts were widened in 1959. Kick scoring is no longer an active category.

Before 2002, postseason games were not included in NCAA final football statistics or records. Beginning with the 2002 season, all postseason games were included in NCAA final football statistics and records.

Here's a complete listing of all Irish players finishing among the top 10 in any individual statistical category:

* Consensus national championship seasons in bold. The coaches poll was switched from United Press International to USA Today in 1991.

In 127 seasons of football beginning in 1887, Notre Dame has had 107 winning years, only 14 seasons with a losing record (1887, '88, 1933, '56, '60, '63, '81, '85, '86, '99, 2001, '03, '07 and '16) and only six others with a .500 mark (1950, '59, '61, '62, 2004 and '09).

The Fighting Irish have had 12 unbeaten, untied seasons, 10 others in which they were unbeaten but suffered one or more ties — and 29 seasons in which only a single loss spoiled an unbeaten record.

Here is a compilation of Notre Dame's outstanding seasons in its football history:

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

The University of Notre Dame's longstanding historical success in football features 11 consensus national championships captured over the course of six different decades. The Irish title tradition dates back to Knute Rockne and the Four Horsemen who collaborated on Notre Dame's first consensus crown in 1924.

The national championship team in college football generally is considered to be the top-rated squad in the final polls issued each year by the poll of sportswriters and broadcasters (Associated Press) and the poll of coaches (United Press International through 1990, USA Today since 1991).

Since the AP began certifying the winner of the national crown in 1936, Notre Dame has won eight national championships (1943, '46, '47, '49, '66, '73, '77 and '88), second only to Alabama (nine).

The coaches' poll has selected a national champion since 1950, including winners of Bowl Championship Series and College Football Playoff title games. Notre Dame has won three coaches' titles (1966, '77 and '88—all UPI crowns) during that period. The UPI poll was taken following the end of the regular season each year until the 1974 season, when the coaches first waited until the bowl games had been played to issue their final poll (a practice continued by the UPI poll's successor, USA Today).

In addition, the NCAA also recognizes national championships awarded by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), the National Football Foundation and the College Football Hall of Fame.

The FWAA has presented the Grantland Rice Award to the national champion since 1954, with Notre Dame teams earning the trophy four times (1966, '73, '77 and '88). The National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame have presented the MacArthur Bowl to the national champion since 1959, with Notre Dame winning this honor five times (1964, '66—tie with Michigan State, '73, '77 and '88).

A variety of other rating systems have been recognized through the years in attempting to determine the nation's top college football team each season.

Including Notre Dame's 11 consensus national titles, there have been 22 seasons in which the Irish have qualified as a national champion from at least one legitimate poll.

FOUR HORSEMEN HELP NOTRE DAME AND KNUTE ROCKNE ENJOY RIDE TO FIRST NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

The 1924 Notre Dame football team will always be known best for New York Herald Tribune sportswriter Grantland Rice's account of the Notre Dame vs. Army game played October 18 at the Polo Grounds in New York:

"Outlined against a blue-gray October sky, the Four Horsemen rode again.

"In dramatic lore they are known as famine, pestilence, destruction, and death. These are only aliases. Their real names are Stuhldreher, Miller, Crowley, and Layden. They formed the crest of the South Bend cyclone before which another fighting Army team was swept over the precipice at the Polo Grounds this afternoon as 55,000 spectators peered down on the bewildering panorama spread out on the green plain below."

Quarterback Harry Stuhldreher, fullback Elmer Layden and halfbacks Jim Crowley and Don Miller were the cornerstone of a team considered one of the best in college football history.

The Fighting Irish won the Army game 13-7, as the Four Horsemen played magnificently. Miller rushed for 148 yards, Crowley for 102 and Layden for 60, while Stuhldreher orchestrated the offense masterfully from the quarterback position. It was the third victory of the season for the Irish, it came against a foe considered the toughest on the schedule, and it spurred the Irish on to a perfect 10-0 season and the school's first recognized national championship.

Rice's account led to near-mythic status for the Irish backfield, but the Seven Mules, who did the blocking, and the Shock Troops, who were perhaps the best second string in the game, played indispensable roles, too. Each week in 1924, seventh-year Notre Dame coach Knute Rockne started his second stringers, his Shock Troops.

When Rockne felt his Shock Troops had done their job, he brought in the Four Horsemen and the Seven Mules, a group so good "that the Holy Ghost couldn't have broken into that lineup," said Harry O'Boyle, a kicker and reserve halfback on the Shock Troops. Center Adam Walsh was the heart of the Seven Mules, a group that also included ends Ed Hunsinger and Chuck Collins, tackles Rip Miller and Joe Bach, and guards Noble Kizer and John Wiebel. Walsh characterized the win over Army with a late interception—which he made with two broken hands.

The combination of the Shock Troops, the Seven Mules and the Four Horsemen worked 10 times in 10 tries in 1924 against a national schedule that took the Irish to New York, Princeton, N.J., Madison, Wis., Soldier Field in Chicago and Pittsburgh during the regular season while giving them only four home games. In addition, at the end of the season, Rockne was able to convince the University administration to permit the football team to travel to California to play Stanford in the Rose Bowl, where the Irish clinched the Helms Athletic Foundation's national championship with a 27-10 victory.

In the Rose Bowl—Notre Dame's only bowl appearance until the team began making regular bowl trips with the 1970 Cotton Bowl—the Irish were faced with stopping an undefeated, once-tied Stanford team that included legendary coach Pop Warner and quarterback Ernie Nevers. Rockne was concerned his players might not be ready physically for the heat of the West Coast, so he arranged for a slow, cross-country train trip that included stops in Louisiana, Texas and Arizona so players would have time to adjust to warmer, more demanding weather.

It worked, as Elmer Layden scored Notre Dame's first touchdown on a three-yard run and returned interceptions of Nevers' passes 78 and 70 yards for two more touchdowns. The Irish took advantage of eight Stanford turnovers and made a critical goal-line stand in the fourth quarter to come up with the 17-point win.

"That would always be my favorite team," Rockne once said. "I think I sensed that the backfield was a product of destiny. At times they caused me a certain amount of pain and exasperation, but mainly they brought me great joy."

—Willie Shearer

1924: 10-0-0

*On the gridiron fields of football fame,
Ride the four great horsemen of Notre Dame,
From Princeton East to Nebraska West
They have charged through the lines of the country's best
"They shall not pass," the Army cried,
But nothing could stop the horsemen's ride
On to victory and immortal fame
Still rise the four great horsemen of Notre Dame.
—Pittsburgh Gazette Times*

"There's a kick in Notre Dame; not alone in Notre Dame football, but in every effort, every endeavor, every activity that its men undertake. It is a training camp for more than famous backfields, mighty captains, invincible Horsemen. There's where the kick is — in the knowledge that America's acclaimed champions of the gridiron are the representatives of an ideal that works, and will work for all time to come, like a strong leaven in our national soul — the ideal of manliness, sportsmanship, chivalry, of friendly rivalry and inspiring competition."

—Charles Phillips

*Sing a song of Notre Dame,
Shout their praises wide.
Tell of Crowley's sturdy might,
Sing of Layden's stride.
Spread the news
of Miller's speed,
Speak of Walsh's game,
Fighters of the bulldog breed,
Here's to Notre Dame."
—Ford C. Frick*

IRISH FOLLOW LEAD OF ELDER AND SAVOLDI TO UNDEFEATED 1929 SEASON

If the Great Depression wasn't reason enough for Notre Dame football partisans to be a little down, then the fact the Irish were without a home for the 1929 season was surely enough to bring some anxiety into the minds of both the team and its followers. Plans were underway at Notre Dame for a new stadium to be built, and 1929 was the transition year in which the Irish had no home.

That didn't keep Notre Dame from winning, however, something the team had accomplished only five times in nine tries in 1928. Knute Rockne had promised to return Notre Dame football in 1929 to what had become its customary level of excellence, homefield advantage or not. He would not be stopped from fulfilling that promise.

The closest the Irish came to having a home game in 1929 were three games contested at Soldier Field in Chicago. The Irish defeated Wisconsin there, 19-0, October 19, Drake, 19-7, November 9, and USC in the most important game of the year, 13-12, before 112,912 fans on November 16.

The lack of home turf was not the only major difficulty of the 1929 season for Notre Dame. The team's legendary coach was in battle with phlebitis, which doctors said stood a 50-50 chance of taking Rockne's life if he tried to coach that season. But coach the team he did, through one dramatic victory after another, either by telephone from a hospital bed or from a wheelchair on the sidelines.

Rockne's leg problems continued and the announcement was made that he would not accompany the team on its trip to Baltimore to face Navy. Line coach Tom Lieb took over for Rockne that day, as the Irish won 14-7. But back in South Bend, doctor's orders couldn't keep Rock away from practice at Cartier Field, where he set up his command post in his car and used a loudspeaker to direct activities.

By the time the USC contest rolled around, the Irish were 6-0, and recognized as one of the top teams in the nation. Running back Joe Savoldi had earned acclaim in the Wisconsin game with dazzling touchdown runs of 71 and 40 yards, and he provided the only score of the game in Notre Dame's 7-0 win at Carnegie Tech October 26.

When the Irish faced USC at Soldier Field November 16, Rockne's status was as bad as ever, but the team needed him. The Notre Dame-USC tradition was already a great one, and the first half foretold the kind of game everyone expected, with the teams battling to a 6-6 tie. In the locker room, the Fighting Irish were in desperate need of one of Rock's famous speeches, but he was nowhere to be found. So former Irish running back Paul Castner stepped up to do what he could, and in the middle of his oration, who should two Irish managers wheel into the room but Rockne himself.

He was in great pain and had undergone quite a strain — not only from making the trip to Chicago but also from watching his team struggle in the first half. He gave an impassioned speech with what strength he had, during which a blood clot in one leg broke loose, passed through his heart and settled safely in the other leg. His speech worked, as the Irish escaped Chicago with a 13-12 win and an unblemished 7-0 record.

The Irish still had traditional foes Northwestern and Army left. Northwestern fell relatively easy, as the Irish posted a win on the Wildcats' home field. But the November 30 matchup with Army at Yankee Stadium proved to be a real battle.

The game was played on turf that was frozen solid, and neither team was able to accomplish anything. It was eight degrees at gametime and a biting wind cut across the field as the players dashed out for the opening kickoff.

The first quarter was scoreless, but in the second period Army drove deep into Irish territory. When Red Cagle lofted a pass for his end, Carl Carlmark, it looked like a certain score for the Cadets. But Notre Dame's Jack Elder came out of nowhere to snatch the ball away. He took it 93 yards for the game's only touchdown. The extra point was added to make it 7-0 Irish, and that's the way it stayed. Notre Dame was 9-0 and the season was over. The team had survived without a home, Rockne had survived his illness and Notre Dame had its second national championship.

IN THEIR WORDS

1929: 9-0-0

"Yeah, fair, just fair."

— Knute Rockne on the prospects of his 1929 team

"Keep on going, Joe! Don't stop when you are tackled! Keep those legs going! Don't stop even when you are on the ground with half of the other team on top of you. Keep on going until you can't wiggle a toe! Don't stop till the referee takes the ball from you. Keep on going, keep on going!"

— Jack Chevigny, Assistant Coach, to Joe Savoldi, who scored two TDs against Wisconsin

"Notre Dame football is, apparently, too much in demand to allow any appreciable let-up in the matter of booking straight high-grade attractions through the season. Rockne tries hard to say no to the various schedule-makers who want Notre Dame on their cards, but they all want the Irish so intensely that it's hard to turn 'em down. Besides, Rock's natural tendency is to 'Take 'em all on!'"

ANOTHER NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP FINDS A HOME IN NOTRE DAME STADIUM

Brand new stadium, same old result — another national championship for the Notre Dame football team.

The 1930 football season marked the opening of Notre Dame Stadium, just another in the long line of Knute Rockne masterpieces, only this was a football stadium instead of a team. With typical meticulousness, he had supervised every minute detail of the construction of the stadium.

In addition, Rockne had for the first time a full-time equipment manager, a trainer, a doctor who traveled with the team, a business manager, several secretaries, a staff to handle the complex sale and distribution of tickets. On top of all that, Rockne was healthy again. The doctors at the Mayo Clinic had given him a thorough going-over from head to foot during the offseason and had given him a clean bill of health.

All the Rock had to do was coach, and what a job he did.

On October 4, 1930, the Fighting Irish opened their season in the imposing new stadium — an impressive amphitheatre of dull red brick trimmed with limestone. Rockne had the original sod from Cartier Field transplanted just for good measure.

The Irish christened the good earth with a 20-14 win over Southern Methodist. The stadium was officially dedicated the following week, as Notre Dame trounced Navy, 26-2. In the third week of the season, Notre Dame played its third straight home game, defeating Carnegie Tech, 21-6, to cap off a successful first homestand.

Preseason prognosticators across the country considered the 1930 Notre Dame team to be Rockne's strongest yet. Rockne had said as much himself prior to the start of the season, and he had good reason for such high expectations. Frank Carideo, Markey Schwartz, Marty Brill, and Jumpin' Joe Savoldi made up a latter day version of the Four Horsemen in the backfield, and all of them earned All-America status on one team or another for that season. The Fighting Irish were not only stocked with an explosive collection of running backs, but the team also sported a tremendous crew of linemen. Center Tommy Yarr, guards Nurdy Hoffman and Brent Metzger, tackles Joe Kurth and Al Culver and end Tom Conley all made All-America teams either that season or the following one.

The Irish left home three times in the fourth through eighth weeks of the season but continued to roll. Notre Dame traveled to Pitt and beat the Panthers, 35-19. A 27-0 romp over Indiana followed, before the Irish visited a 60-20 walloping on the Quakers of Pennsylvania. Marty Brill, who had transferred to Notre Dame from Pennsylvania, played the greatest game of his career that day, breaking loose for three touchdowns on runs of 45, 52 and 65 yards.

The Notre Dame winning streak stood at 15 games over two seasons, and it quickly grew to 17 as the Irish sprinted past Drake and Northwestern. All that remained between Notre Dame and another national title were games against Army and USC.

On a November 29 afternoon that saw rain and sleet turn Soldier Field into a swamp, the Cadets and the Irish squared off, and it appeared that neither team was going to budge. Near the end of the game, however, Schwartz broke loose for a 54-yard scoring run. The all-important extra point gave the Irish a 7-0 lead. Army scored quickly thereafter, though, on a blocked punt, and it appeared that things would be knotted up. But Notre Dame blocked the extra point, and that's the way it ended.

To finish off the season, Rockne used all his psychological expertise in a ploy that helped the Irish get ready for USC. Injuries during the season left the team with only one healthy fullback, Dan Hanley. So Rock decided to turn Bucky O'Connor, a second-team halfback, into a first-string fullback. However, in practice, Rock had O'Connor and Hanley trade jerseys, and not a single soul suspected anything unusual.

When the game got underway, Notre Dame had one of the speediest fullbacks the Trojan defense had ever seen. O'Connor scored two touchdowns, including one on an 80-yard dash, and the Irish dominated the favored home team to the tune of 27-0.

It was a fitting script to what turned out to be Rockne's final game as the Notre Dame head football coach. The team won its second consecutive national championship, and the following March Rockne died in a plane crash in Kansas.

IRISH MARCH TO 9-1 MARK AND FOURTH CONSENSUS NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP BEHIND HEISMAN WINNER ANGELO BERTELLI AND FRANK LEAHY'S T-FORMATION

At the beginning of the 1943 season many experts called Notre Dame's schedule its most difficult in school history. The Irish faced seven teams that season that were ranked among the nation's top 13 teams in the year's final Associated Press poll.

Frank Leahy's squad only had two returning starters from the '42 squad that finished 7-2-2. To make matters worse, seven of the 10 games in '43 were on the road.

The Irish were still in the early stages of adjusting to the T-formation, which Leahy installed the season before, moving away from the traditional Notre Dame "Box Formation." The new offense enabled the '43 team to score 340 points, 156 more than the season before. The T-formation also led to the emergence of Angelo Bertelli, who moved from tailback to quarterback to lead the Irish offense.

Bertelli led the Irish to a 6-0 start as the team outscored its opponents 261-31. Included in that stretch were key victories over second-ranked Michigan and third-ranked Navy.

A record crowd of 85,688 witnessed the 35-12 Irish win in Ann Arbor. Bertelli was brilliant, completing five of eight passes for two touchdowns while All-America running back Creighton Miller averaged 16 yards per play against Michigan.

Led by Bertelli and All-America tackle Jim White, both of whom finished in the top 10 in the Heisman balloting that year, the Irish rolled to a 50-0 victory over Wisconsin and a 47-0 bashing of Illinois following the win over Michigan, to extend their record to 5-0.

Those wins were followed by a colossal matchup between top-ranked Notre Dame and third-ranked Navy in Cleveland. The Irish cruised to a 33-6 win but lost their quarterback. The Marine Corps called Bertelli into service with four games left in the season.

Leahy called on a sophomore to be Bertelli's replacement in the following week's game against Army, the third-ranked team in the country that week.

All Bertelli's replacement did was throw for two touchdowns, run for another and intercept a pass to lead the Irish to a 26-0 win. A new star was born—the incomparable John Lujack.

With Lujack calling the signals, the Irish defeated two more top ten teams in the following two weeks, Northwestern and Iowa Pre-Flight.

All that stood between Leahy's first undefeated and untied season was Great Lakes, a team the Irish had tied in their two previous meetings during the 1918 and 1942 seasons.

Notre Dame scored first but trailed 12-7 late in the fourth quarter. Miller capped off an 80-yard drive with a touchdown to put the Irish ahead 14-12 with 1:05 to play.

With 33 seconds remaining, Great Lakes quarterback Steve Lach connected on a 46-yard pass to Paul Anderson, who fielded the ball at the six-yard line and then went into the end zone for the game-winning score, ruining Notre Dame's perfect season.

After the game, Leahy told his team, "You're still champions to me, boys. You fought your hearts out every inch of the way in the greatest drive I've ever seen. Nobody is to blame for that last Great Lakes touchdown. It was just a fine play, splendidly executed."

Despite the season-ending loss, Notre Dame picked up several awards that would become commonplace for the school. The Irish were crowned national champions by the Associated Press for the first time and Bertelli became the first Notre Dame player to win the Heisman Trophy.

Bertelli easily outdistanced Bob O'Dell of Pennsylvania and Otto Graham of Northwestern for the Heisman.

LEAHY RETURNS FROM SERVICE TO LEAD IRISH TO FIRST OF FOUR CONSECUTIVE UNDEFEATED SEASONS

World War II had finally ended and the United States was ready to think about something more pleasant than international conflict for a change — like Notre Dame football. The year was 1946, the coach was hard-driving Frank Leahy and it was the beginning of a dynasty for Notre Dame football.

In 1943, Leahy had guided the Fighting Irish to their first wire-service national championship, and fourth overall, behind Heisman Trophy winner Angelo Bertelli and future Heisman winner John Lujack. World War II took many football players from college, including Bertelli in the middle of his Heisman campaign in '43, but many returned to the gridiron after the war ended, including Lujack, who would go on to win the Heisman in 1947.

For the players who returned to Notre Dame in '46, losing a college football game was not to be one of their post-war experiences. From 1946 to 1949, Notre Dame went 36-0-2 and won three national championships in one of the most successful four-year periods in college football history.

The 1946 season started it all. Halfback Terry Brennan and linemen Bill Walsh, Bill Fischer and John Mastrangelo were among the group of returnees from the previous season. There were several new faces who came to Notre Dame after Navy hitches had interrupted their respective careers at Holy Cross and Texas A&M. There were also players for whom the war had postponed college football, like end Jim Martin and running back Emil (Red) Sitko, and there were freshmen like Leon Hart. Returning to Notre Dame along with Lujack were veterans such as tackle Zygmunt (Ziggy) Zarowski, end Jack Zilly, and fullback Jim Mello. Even Leahy was coming back to Notre Dame after a couple years in the service.

Leahy was a perfectionist and strict disciplinarian, and enduring his practices wasn't much more fun than being a soldier. But it sure produced results. The Irish usually had two separate platoons ready for each game, and often the first string didn't play much more than half the game. On the football field, the Irish had strength in numbers, and Leahy fought a war of attrition.

The season began with the Irish routing their first five opponents — Illinois, which went on to win the Western (now Big Ten) conference championship, Pittsburgh, Purdue, Iowa and Navy before facing top-ranked Army. Coached by the great Earl (Red) Blaik and featuring Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis in the backfield, Army had won two straight national championships and 25 straight games, including two defeats of Notre Dame in the previous two seasons by a combined score of 107-0.

The showdown was set for November 9 in Yankee Stadium where 74,121 fans turned out to see a 0-0 tie. Notre Dame advanced to the Army four-yard line in the second quarter for the game's deepest scoring threat, but the Cadets held on downs. Blanchard broke into the clear once and appeared to be headed for a score, but an open-field tackle by Lujack saved the Irish from defeat.

Army retained its top ranking in the Associated Press poll after the game. But the Irish walloped their final three opponents by a combined score of 94-6 and were named national champions in the final poll of the season. When the smoke cleared, the Irish found themselves the nation's statistical leaders in total offense (441.3 yards per game), rushing offense (340.1 yards per game), total defense (141.7 yards per game) and scoring defense (2.7 points per game) and had allowed only Illinois, Purdue, Iowa, and USC to score points against them. For the season, Notre Dame outscored its opponents 271 to 24 in nine games.

It was only the beginning.

DOMINATING '47 SQUAD RUNS TO PERFECT RECORD AS HEISMAN WINNER LUJACK HEADS LIST OF ALL-STARS

In any discussion of college football's greatest teams, one team that always comes to mind is the 1947 Notre Dame squad. The Irish never trailed in any game that year and compiled a 9-0 record, their first unblemished record in 17 years.

Notre Dame held its opponents to under six points a game while averaging over 32 points. Only one team — Northwestern — scored more than one touchdown against the Irish that year. But maybe the most impressive note about the squad is that it sent 42 players to professional football.

The mainstays on that team included consensus All-Americans George Connor, Bill Fischer and John Lujack, who won the Heisman Trophy that year. The team also included future Heisman winner Leon Hart and the man who later succeeded Leahy as head coach of the Irish, Terry Brennan.

The Irish began the season with six turnovers against Pittsburgh, but Lujack scored three times to lead Notre Dame to an easy 40-6 win. Leahy's squad stumbled a little bit in the next game, too, but came out ahead of Purdue, 22-7.

Notre Dame then exploded for three consecutive shutouts over Nebraska (31-0), Iowa (21-0) and Navy (27-0). The win over the Cornhuskers avenged a 17-0 loss that Knute Rockne's 1925 squad suffered to Nebraska, the last time the two schools had met.

Following three impressive shutouts, the Irish faced Army, a team that had become such a fierce rival in previous years that the series was discontinued for 10 years after the 1947 game. The two teams battled to a 0-0 tie in 1946 in one of the most famous games in Notre Dame history.

Notre Dame entered the game as the top-ranked team in the country while Army was rated eighth. The Irish struck first when Brennan broke loose for a 97-yard kickoff return. Notre Dame built a 20-0 lead before Army finally scored. The Irish won 27-7 before a record crowd of 59,171 at Notre Dame Stadium.

The next week was the only close game of the year. Northwestern became the only team in 1947 to come within two touchdowns of the Irish as Notre Dame won 26-19.

The Irish ended the season with a 59-6 thrashing of Tulane and an impressive 38-7 win over third-ranked Southern California. When the final national polls came out, Notre Dame was No. 1 for the second straight year.

Just how good was this '47 team? Well, consider that several of the first-string players that year (such as Brennan) didn't even try out for professional football but opted to coach instead.

The great '47 squad also included six players who were elected into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame — Lujack, Connor, Hart, Fischer, Sitko and Ziggy Czarowski. And to top that off, their coach, Frank Leahy, wound up the second winningest coach in college history just behind his mentor, Knute Rockne.

The Boston Herald called the '47 Irish team, "the greatest Notre Dame squad of all time. Its third string could whip most varsities."

The immortal sportswriter Grantland Rice added after the final game of the season, "There no longer is any doubt as to the best team in college football, it happens to be Notre Dame. College football never before has known a team so big, so fast and so experienced."

His words may still hold true today.

IRISH EXCEED ALL EXPECTATIONS WITH THIRD TITLE UNDER LEAHY

November 15, 1945, ranks as one of the most important dates in Notre Dame football history. Check the record books, though, and you won't find one of the greatest games in Irish history played on that day.

November 15, 1945, was a Thursday, not a Saturday, and that was the day Lieutenant Frank Leahy was discharged from the Navy. He returned to Notre Dame campus, signed a 10-year contract and began what was to be one of the most successful four-year runs in college football history.

The 1946 and 1947 seasons brought national championships to Notre Dame. The 9-0-1 1948 team was runner-up to Michigan. But a national championship in 1949 would allow Notre Dame to close the decade in magnificent style.

And that is exactly what happened. Notre Dame went 10-0 which made for a four-year mark of 36-0-2. End Leon Hart won the Heisman Trophy and Leahy had his fourth championship and the school's seventh.

Before the season, however, nobody expected a championship team to emerge from the South Bend campus. The Irish needed somebody to emerge as a leader and attention was focused on Hart, already recognized as the finest end in the college game, along with Emil Sitko, Larry Coutre and co-captain Jim Martin. But most observers agreed that the Fighting Irish would need more than that.

Soon enough, they got it. In the sixth game of the season, against Michigan State on November 5, quarterback Bob Williams stepped to the fore. He led the top-ranked Irish to a 34-21 victory over the 10th-ranked Spartans in a game at East Lansing that the press thought would knock Notre Dame from its lofty perch atop collegiate football.

Williams continued to shine in subsequent games. He was at his daring best the following week in a game versus North Carolina played at Yankee Stadium. Leahy had given Williams instructions that he was never to pass the football on the fourth down situation on their own 19-yard line with the score tied 6-6 in the second quarter. He couldn't help himself. Knowing that if he failed he'd have to head to the nearest exit to avoid Leahy, the self-assured Williams completed an 18-yard pass to Larry Coutre for an Irish first down. Notre Dame went on to a 42-6 win, and Williams soon became recognized as the nation's best quarterback.

The Irish eased through their final two home games, rolling over Iowa, 28-7, and 17th ranked Southern Cal, 32-0. All that remained was what was sure to be an easy win over Southern Methodist in Dallas. SMU would be without its top player, 1948 Heisman winner Doak Walker, and the nation had virtually conceded the national championship to Notre Dame.

Notre Dame jumped to an early lead before Mustang running back Kyle Rote came to life in the steady afternoon drizzle. Running at will, he scored two quick touchdowns and thanks to a missed extra point by SMU, the score was tied at 20 with seven minutes to go.

Notre Dame's back was to the wall for the first time all season, and the offense rose to the occasion. In blitzkrieg fashion, the Irish simply pushed SMU straight back into its own end zone with 10 determined rushes that covered 54 yards and put Notre Dame up by a touchdown, 27-20.

The drive was so quick, however, that SMU still had time to score. But in the shadow of the Notre Dame goal post, when Rote tried to pass for the tying touchdown, Notre Dame's Jerry Groom made a game-saving interception.

It was the final play of the game and of a decade that saw Frank Leahy lead the Fighting Irish to three national championships in four years.

IRISH WIN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP AT START OF NOTRE DAME'S ERA OF ARA

Coach Ara Parseghian, in his third season at Notre Dame, made a difficult decision at the start of the 1966 season, picking sophomore Terry Hanratty as his starting quarterback over classmate Coley O'Brien, yet the decision proved without a doubt to be the correct one. Hanratty and split end Jim Seymour, also a sophomore, turned out to be one of the best passing combinations Notre Dame fans have ever seen.

The two had begun working together during the previous winter, developing their timing, moves and patterns so they would know each other's habits inside out when the 1966 season began. Seymour was a good bet to take over one of the end positions that was being vacated after the '65 season, but Hanratty had no such assurances of whether or not he would be the number-one quarterback.

Fortunately for Hanratty, Parseghian decided to balance an already steady running game, manned by Nick Eddy, Larry Conjar and Rocky Bleier, with the passing talent of Hanratty.

The decision bore fruit in the first game of the season, as Hanratty and Seymour hooked up 13 times for 276 yards — Notre Dame records for receptions and yards — and three touchdowns, which tied a school record. The Irish defeated Rose Bowl-bound Purdue that day, 26-14, in South Bend.

Notre Dame traveled to Northwestern for the second game of the season and won, 35-7. The Irish defense gave up its last points for the next three games and showed the kind of stiffness that ensured Notre Dame would never be out of any contest. Notre Dame returned home for the next two games and defeated Army and North Carolina by a combined score of 67-0, setting the stage for a showdown with Oklahoma.

Notre Dame traveled to Norman for what was supposed to be anybody's ballgame. The game was billed as a matchup between the small, quick, strong Sooners and the big, slow Irish. But Oklahoma was out of its element. Although the Irish lost Seymour to an ankle injury that would cost him two games, the Fighting Irish rolled to a 38-0 victory and their third straight shutout of the young season.

Notre Dame pounded its next three opponents—Navy, Pittsburgh and Duke, giving up only one score, a touchdown to Navy. Meanwhile, the offense was hitting on all cylinders, racking up 31 points versus the Midshipmen, 40 against Pitt and a whopping 64 against the Blue Devils.

The game of the century took place on November 19 when number-one ranked Notre Dame traveled to East Lansing to play second-ranked Michigan State for all the marbles.

Notre Dame fell behind 10-0 in the second quarter, but O'Brien, who had been diagnosed with diabetes only a few weeks earlier and was still adjusting, brought the Irish back to a tie in the second half. The Spartan offense was unable to net a single yard running the ball in the second half, and when Notre Dame intercepted a pass and returned it to the Spartan 18-yard line in the fourth quarter, it looked like Notre Dame's chance to win. But three plays and minus-six yards later left the Irish with a 41-yard field goal attempt, which sailed wide to the right.

Notre Dame had the ball again on its own 30 with 1:24 left in the game. But rather than gamble with passes deep in their own territory, the Irish attempted to run the ball out of danger. The game was a 10-10 tie.

The Irish held on to their top ranking and traveled to Los Angeles to play Rose Bowl-bound USC. The Irish tore the Trojans apart, 51-0, posting the team's sixth shutout in 10 games and ensuring another unanimous number-one selection for the national championship.

CLEMENTS AND TALENTED IRISH BACKFIELD CLINCH TITLE WITH SUGAR BOWL WIN OVER NO. 1 TIDE

Every college football season seems to have its own game of the century, but the 1973 matchup between Notre Dame and Alabama was special. It came in the Sugar Bowl, and it was to be a dream game.

Two undefeated, highly-ranked teams with long and storied gridiron traditions were set to battle for the national championship. The prognosticators' predictions rang true as the Fighting Irish emerged 24-23 victors over the Crimson Tide of Alabama in a thriller that saw the lead change hands six times.

Bob Thomas, who had missed two earlier attempts in the game, kicked a 19-yard field goal with 4:26 remaining to give the Irish and coach Ara Parseghian the one-point triumph over top-rated Alabama. The win clinched Notre Dame's sixth wire-service national championship and ninth overall as the Irish finished the season with a perfect 11-0 record.

The balanced Irish attack was keyed by four backs who gained over 300 yards apiece: fullback Wayne Bullock (752), halfback Art Best (700), halfback Eric Penick (586) and quarterback Tom Clements (360). It was one of the fastest backfields Notre Dame had ever assembled, as Penick had 9.5 speed in the 100-yard dash, while Best checked in at 9.7.

The Irish were ranked in the eighth spot with wins over Rice and Army, setting the stage for what everyone considered to be Notre Dame's first real test of the year, a home battle with sixth-ranked USC.

The Trojans came to town riding a 23-game unbeaten streak, and Notre Dame was full of memories of the previous season's clash, which saw running back Anthony Davis romp for six touchdowns in a 45-23 Trojan win.

Squib kicks were the solution to the problem of Davis returning kicks, and a fired-up defense held him to just 55 yards on 19 carries. Quite simply, the day belonged to Notre Dame, as Penick ran for 118 yards, 50 more than the entire USC squad. The Irish pulled off a 23-14 win and jumped to fifth in the polls.

Notre Dame cruised through the remainder of the schedule. Navy was an easy victim, 44-7, and 20th-ranked Pittsburgh played the docile host to the Irish and fell 31-10. The Irish finished off Parseghian's first perfect regular season with a 48-15 win over Air Force and a 44-0 whitewashing of Miami at the Orange Bowl.

The stage was set for the contest between number-one Alabama and third-ranked Notre Dame that seemed to deserve every phrase of its high-powered buildup. The Irish opened the contest with a superb defensive effort that held the Tide without a yard in the first period as Notre Dame took a 6-0 lead. Alabama's thoroughbred backs made it out of the starting gate in the second period, however. They produced three long drives that resulted in a pair of touchdowns, the first of which put the Tide up 7-6.

Early in the fourth quarter, the game took a wild turn with three turnovers in 90 seconds. Alabama took charge and put in its own version of the razzle-dazzle.

With the ball on the Notre Dame 25, quarterback Richard Todd handed off to halfback Mike Strock, then raced to the sidelines where he took a return pass from Strock and went in for the score.

But Alabama missed the conversion try and the Tide had only a slim two-point lead.

Notre Dame then marched 79 yards in 11 plays. Strong runs by Hunter, Penick and Clements and a 30-yard pass from Clements to Dave Casper carried the drive to the Alabama 15-yard line. The Irish got to the three, but couldn't get any closer before the call went to Thomas. His kick was true, the game belonged to the Irish and so did the national championship.

THEN THERE WERE NONE — IRISH DEFEAT TOP-RANKED, UNBEATEN TEXAS FOR '77 TITLE

Who could forget the cover of Sports Illustrated the week after Notre Dame had defeated Texas 38-10 in the 1978 Cotton Bowl? A fierce Terry Eurick was pictured fighting through a hole in the offensive line, the caption reading, "The Irish Wake the Echoes." On the inside, "Shakin' Down the Thunder" was the title of an article about how Notre Dame's victory over the previously-unbeaten Longhorns was enough to vault the Irish from fifth to first in the wire-service polls and give the University its seventh wire service national championship and 10th overall.

The theme for that January 2 in Dallas could have been "and then there were none." For there was not one unbeaten team remaining after the Irish had knocked Texas from its No. 1 ranking. Third-year Irish coach Dan Devine made sure his charges were ready to take care of America's last undefeated team. An unrelenting defense was the reason why. The defense featured 1976 Outland Trophy winner Ross Browner at one end and Willie Fry at the other, supported by a tough, mobile group of linebackers headed by All-American Bob Golic. The Irish forced six Texas turnovers in the Cotton Bowl, and an opportunistic offense capitalized on five of them. Notre Dame's devastating strength in the trenches roped up Texas' Heisman Trophy winner Earl Campbell. He managed a tough 116 yards on 29 carries.

Notre Dame's defensive strength came as no surprise in 1977, and it was the primary reason the Irish were near the top of the polls in the preseason rankings. But it was an unexpected boost from the offense that gave Notre Dame the national championship in 1977. Quarterback Joe Montana and running back Jerome Heavens both rebounded on offense, teaming with All-America tight end Ken MacAfee, who led the team in receiving for the third straight year.

The offense came on strong in 1977 as Montana threw for over 1,600 yards and 11 touchdowns and Heavens led the team with 994 rushing yards. Montana earned a reputation as "The Comeback Kid" with performances like the one he had in the third game of the season when, in his first appearance in over a year, he engineered the Irish to 17 fourth-quarter points in Notre Dame's come-from-behind 31-24 win at Purdue. Later in the season, the Irish traveled to Death Valley to play the 15th-ranked Clemson Tigers, and Montana scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns to bring the Irish to a 21-17 win.

Heavens was healthy again in 1977 and he joined the explosive Vagas Ferguson behind Montana. Heavens proved himself fully recovered with 136 yards against Michigan State and followed his outburst against the Spartans with a Notre Dame-record 200 yards rushing versus Army. Two weeks later he went for 100 against Navy.

But the key regular season win came in a mid-season 49-19 thrashing of fifth-ranked USC in Notre Dame Stadium. In that one, the Irish warmed up in their usual blue jerseys, only to emerge in green just prior to kickoff. That triumph helped wipe out the memory of Notre Dame's second-game road loss, a 20-13 defeat at Ole Miss that proved its sole '77 blemish.

The Irish ran out to a 24-10 halftime lead in the Cotton Bowl and then added touchdowns in each of the final quarters for an overwhelming 28-point victory. Few questioned who was number one.

Notre Dame leapfrogged over the four teams ranked ahead of it to grab the nation's top position.

IN THEIR WORDS

1977 — 11-1-0

"Pressure comes from within the family. There's no pressure hanging over our heads. We've got this guarded optimism."

— Dan Devine, during the preseason

"You have to remember that defenses are made on the football field, not in the preseason polls, not in newspaper or magazine articles and not at press conferences."

— Willie Fry, Irish Captain

"I don't like to say it was easy, but ... well, the way we played today, we could have dominated any line in the country."

— Tim Foley, Irish offensive tackle, on the Irish win over Texas

"We earned it on the field. We played number one and we beat them."

— Dan Devine

"At least the team that beat us was a good one. Everyone can't say that."

— Fred Akers, Texas Coach 1988

HOLD-YOUR-BREATH SEASON ENDS PERFECTLY WITH NATIONAL TITLE IN FIESTA BOWL

It wasn't long after Lou Holtz's arrival as head football coach at Notre Dame that he opined that the Irish couldn't expect to be a great team until they were great on defense. That prophecy came true for Holtz and the Irish in 1988 - ironically, just a year after Notre Dame's Tim Brown had captured the Heisman Trophy. But with his departure came a revitalization of the defense, led by senior defensive end Frank Stams, junior linebacker Michael Stonebreaker, sophomore defensive tackle Chris Zorich and senior linebacker Wes Pritchett, all of whom merited some sort of All-America honors. They were supported by cornerback Todd Lyght, linebacker Ned Bolcar and defensive tackle Jeff Alm, who went on to earn that same All-America acclaim a year later.

The end result was a consensus national championship for the Irish in 1988, thanks to a perfect 12-0 campaign. The title came in Holtz's third season as Irish head coach, much as Frank Leahy, Ara Parseghian and Dan Devine before him had claimed national crowns in their respective third seasons as Irish head coach. It came thanks to riveting regular-season triumphs over Michigan, Miami and USC — and it ultimately featured wins over teams ranked first, second and third in the polls when they faced Notre Dame.

When the 13th-ranked Irish debuted against ninth-rated Michigan in Notre Dame Stadium, Holtz knew his youthful offense would be tested, particularly with a green group of receivers featuring Ricky Watters at flanker in a switch from tailback, plus rookies Derek Brown and Raghib Ismail. His concern was borne out when Notre Dame did not score a touchdown from scrimmage.

But Watters returned a Michigan punt 81 yards for a touchdown, and unheralded walk-on kicker Reggie Ho knocked through four field goals, twice bringing the Irish from behind including the game-winner with 1:13 remaining. A field-goal miss from 48 yards as time expired by the Wolverines earned Notre Dame a 19-17 opening victory.

Four wins later, the fourth-rated Irish welcomed top-ranked Miami and its 36-game regular-season unbeaten streak to Notre Dame Stadium. The streak bit the dust that day by a 31-30 count, as Notre Dame forced seven Hurricane turnovers and made use of a bevy of heroes, lastly Pat Terrell, who knocked down Miami quarterback Steve Walsh's two-point conversion pass with 45 seconds remaining.

Terrell previously ran an interception back 60 yards for a score, Stams forced two Walsh fumbles, recovered another and tipped the pass Terrell intercepted — and quarterback Tony Rice threw for a career-high 195 yards. The Irish took the lead for good midway through the third period after thwarting a fake punt by Miami and then held on down the stretch. Though Walsh threw for 424 yards, the stingy Irish front line limited the 'Canes to 57 rushing yards.

The season finale found the 10-0 and top-ranked Irish underdogs against second-rated and also unbeaten USC in the Los Angeles Coliseum. Again, it was defense that dominated for Notre Dame in a 27-10 victory. Stams had nine tackles, two and a half sacks and a fumble recovery and made life miserable for Trojan standout Rodney Peete. Cornerback Stan Smagala ran an interception back 64 yards for a 20-7 halftime lead after Rice had skirted left end for 65 yards for the Irish preview of the game.

The first prevailed despite going 29 minutes in the second and third periods combined without a first down — and in spite of the fact leading rusher Tony Brooks and leading receiver Watters, both sophomores, were suspended the day before the game.

Notre Dame met third-ranked and unbeaten West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl in hopes of claiming the championship — and the Irish rode early leads of 16-0 and 23-3 to an eventual 34-21 victory, banking on another staunch defensive effort.

Rice ran for 75 yards and completed seven throws for 213 more yards. Meanwhile, Stams had two sacks on his way to the defensive MVP award, and the Irish dominated a heralded Mountaineer offensive line that had been one of the main reasons West Virginia had never trailed in a game all season. The more physical Notre Dame team knocked quarterback Major Harris out of the contest early due to a bruised shoulder and limited the potent Mountaineer ground game to 108 yards.

Holtz's final pronouncement: "This team will go down as a great football team because nobody proved otherwise."

IN THEIR WORDS

1988 — 12-0-0

"If you look at it on paper, there is no justification for Notre Dame to be rated in the top 20."

—Lou Holtz in the preseason

"If we are number one, I don't care who is number two."

—Lou Holtz

"I was so tired, I was wondering if we'd ever get off the field."

—Frank Stams, defensive end, after the USC game

"I think this team is underrated even if we are No. 1. I've read articles that people have sent to me all year saying we were lucky against this team or that. Our football team is prettier than I am, but that's about it. We don't play pretty all the time, but we sure play together as a team."

—Lou Holtz

"The poll is great and it creates a tremendous amount of interest. But I only pay attention to the last one. It's amazing. Here we are number one and I'm scared to death of a team that hasn't won a game."

—Lou Holtz

"I'm exactly the same today as when I woke up yesterday. The players are the same. We're not bigger. We're not stronger. We're not faster. We're not going to change our uniforms. If you start worrying about No. 1 and try to defend it, the pressure would be tremendous."

—Lou Holtz

"Winning the national championship was never in my thoughts. I have been asked the question did I ever dream about winning the national championship. Yeah, you dream about it, but I never really thought it would happen to me. I never thought I would coach a national championship team. It still hasn't sunk in on me yet."

—Lou Holtz

"We're going on a mission this year, a couple of weeks of sacrifice for something that we're going to be able to enjoy and celebrate the rest of our lives. That's a small price to pay."

—Mark Green, senior tailback

The University of Notre Dame has produced seven Heisman Trophy winners—and no college football program in the country can claim more.

Since the inception of the award in 1935, Angelo Bertelli (1943), John Lujack (1947), Leon Hart (1949), John Lattner (1953), Paul Hornung (1956), John Huarte (1964) and Tim Brown (1987) have stamped their names in college football history as Heisman Trophy winners.

Notre Dame also has had a player finish among the top five in the Heisman voting in 25 of the 82 years the award has been presented. In addition to the seven recipients, the Irish have had four players finish second (Bertelli in '41, Joe Theismann in '70, Raghib Ismail in '90 and Manti Te'o in '12), six finish third (Bill Shakespeare in '35, Lujack in '46, Nick Eddy in '66, Terry Hanratty in '68, Ken MacAfee in '77 and Brady Quinn in '06), five finish fourth (Creighton Miller in '43, Ralph Guglielmi in '54, Tom Clements in '74, Tony Rice in '89 and Quinn in '05) and seven finish fifth (Bob Williams in '49, Lattner in '52, Hornung in '55, Jack Snow in '64, Ross Browner in '77, Vagas Ferguson in '79 and Reggie Brooks in '92).

Officially known as the John W. Heisman Memorial Trophy Award, it is presented annually to the top college football player by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York. First known as the D.A.C. Trophy, the award was renamed in 1936 for John W. Heisman, the first athletic director of the Downtown Athletic Club, as well as a football player at Pennsylvania and Brown, and a coach for 36 years. During his coaching tenure, Heisman led teams at Auburn, Oberlin, Clemson, Akron, Pennsylvania, Rice, Washington and Jefferson and Georgia Tech.

The iconic bronze Heisman Trophy award was sculpted by Frank Eliscu, with the help of Notre Dame "Four Horseman" Jim Crowley, whose Fordham players posed as models.

1943 HEISMAN VOTING

1. Angelo Bertelli, Notre Dame (648)
2. Bob O'Dell, Pennsylvania (177)
3. Otto Graham, Northwestern (140)
4. Creighton Miller, Notre Dame (134)
5. Eddie Prokop, Georgia Tech (85)
6. Hal Hamburg, Navy (73)
7. Bill Daley, Michigan (71)
8. Tony Butkovich, Purdue (65)
9. Jim White, Notre Dame (52)

Frank Leahy's switch to the T-formation starting in 1942 made a star of Bertelli and helped him win the Heisman Trophy as a senior despite playing in only six of Notre Dame's 10 games. Bertelli's Irish career began as a single-wing tailback in 1941 as his 1,027 passing yards (and a .569 completion percentage that led the nation) propelled his team to a 9-0-1 record. As a junior, he switched to quarterback in the T and ended up throwing for another 1,039 yards and 10 touchdowns. In a 27-10 win over Stanford that year, he threw four touchdown passes and completed a record 10 straight passes. Runner-up to Minnesota's Bruce Smith for the Heisman as a sophomore and sixth as a junior behind winner Frank Sinkwich of Georgia, Bertelli's play enabled Notre Dame to average 43.5 points in its first six games in '43 before the Marine Corps called him into service. Still, he threw 10 scoring passes in those six contests and helped Notre Dame claim the national title despite a final-game loss to Great Lakes while Bertelli was in boot camp. He played three seasons with Los Angeles and Chicago in the All-America Football Conference before a knee injury ended his career. Bertelli ran a beverage distributorship in Clifton, New Jersey. He joined the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1972. Bertelli died on June 26, 1999.

1947 HEISMAN VOTING

1. John Lujack, Notre Dame (742)
2. Bob Chappuis, Michigan (555)
3. Doak Walker, SMU (196)
5. Harry Gilmer, Alabama (115)
4. Charley Conerly, Mississippi (186)
6. Bobby Layne, Texas (74)
7. Chuck Bednarik, Penn (65)
8. Bill Swiacki, Columbia (61)

Lujack took over at quarterback for Notre Dame as a sophomore in 1943 when Angelo Bertelli joined the Marines - and he ended up helping the Irish to three national titles and establishing a reputation as one of the great T-formation signal callers in college football history. In his initial start, versus Army in '43, he threw for two scores, ran for another and intercepted a pass in a 26-0 victory. He spent nearly three years of his life in the Navy but returned in time to earn consensus All-America honors as a junior and senior on Notre Dame teams in 1946 and '47 that did not lose a game. No slouch as a runner (he also played halfback as a sophomore), Lujack also punted - and probably made his greatest individual play on defense. He preserved a scoreless tie in '46 between the second-ranked Irish and top-ranked Army by making a touchdown-saving tackle of Cadet fullback Doc Blanchard from his defensive back position. As a junior, he finished third in the Heisman voting behind Army's Glenn Davis. As a senior, he earned the Associated Press male athlete of the year award. Lujack played four years with the Chicago Bears, leading the team in scoring each year, tying a record with eight interceptions as a rookie, throwing for a record 468 yards in one game in '49 and playing in the NFL Pro Bowl his last two seasons. An Irish backfield coach for two years following his retirement in '52, Lujack then ran an automobile dealership in Davenport, Iowa, until he retired in 1988. He was elected to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1960. Lujack has made several donations to the University to establish an academic scholarship endowment.

1949 HEISMAN VOTING

1. Leon Hart, Notre Dame (995)
2. Charlie Justice, North Carolina (272)
3. Doak Walker, SMU (229)
4. Arnold Galiffa, Army (196)
5. Bob Williams, Notre Dame (189)
6. Eddie LeBaron, Pacific (122)
7. Clayton Tonnemaker, Minnesota (81)
8. Emil Sitko, Notre Dame (79)

Hart and Larry Kelley of Yale (the '36 winner) rank as the only linemen ever to win the Heisman Trophy. Joining Irish teammate and tackle Jim Martin as the last of the two-way players with the advent of two-platoon football, Hart gained a reputation as an outstanding blocker and superb rusher on defense in addition to his estimable pass-catching skills. A four-time letter-winner, Hart never played on the losing side during his years in a Notre Dame uniform as the Irish went 36-0-2 and claimed three national championships. He became a three-time first-team All-American and a consensus choice as a junior and senior. In 1949 he was voted the Associated Press Male Athlete of the Year, outpointing such famous names as Jackie Robinson and Sam Snead. He also received the Maxwell Award as top collegiate player in 1949. A mechanical engineering major, Hart called defensive signals and often played fullback as a senior to confuse defenses. He went on to play eight seasons with the Detroit Lions, helping the team to three NFL titles and earning All-Pro honors on both offense and defense in 1951. Moving to Birmingham, Mich., Hart headed up a variety of business enterprises, including the manufacture of tire-balancing equipment. He was elected to the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame in 1973. Hart's son Kevin played for the Irish from 1977-79 and his grandson, Brendan, also played for the Irish from 2000-02. Leon Hart died on Sept. 24, 2002.

1953 HEISMAN VOTING

1. John Lattner, Notre Dame (1,850)
2. Paul Giel, Minnesota (1,794)
3. Paul Cameron, UCLA (444)
4. Bernie Faloney, Maryland (258)

6. Alan Ameche, Wisconsin (211)
7. J.C. Caroline, Illinois (193)
8. J.D. Roberts, Oklahoma (108)
9. Lamar McHan, Arkansas (78)

Lattner claimed the Heisman Trophy in 1953 during his senior year — in the second-closest Heisman balloting in history — despite the fact he didn't lead the Irish in rushing, passing, receiving or scoring. A jack of all trades who barely nosed out Minnesota's Paul Giel for the award, Lattner benefitted from helping Leahy's final Notre Dame team to a 9-0-1 record that earned the Irish national title recognition from all selectors but the two wire services (they named unbeaten Maryland). He received the Maxwell Award as the top collegiate player as both a junior and senior and finished fifth in the Heisman voting as a junior behind Oklahoma's Billy Vessels. A consensus All-American as both a junior and senior on offense and defense, he made his mark by running, catching and punting the football, while also returning punts and kickoffs and intercepting 13 career passes. He established a record for all-purpose yards from rushing, receiving and runbacks — a mark that stood until Vegas Ferguson broke it in 1979. He finished with 321 kickoff return yards on only eight returns (two for touchdowns) as a senior. Lattner played one year with the Pittsburgh Steelers before entering the service and suffering a career-ending knee injury in a military game. A former restaurant owner in Chicago and executive for a business forms company, Lattner was elected to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1979. Lattner passed away on Feb. 13, 2016.

9. Kenny Ploen, Iowa (150)
10. Jon Arnett, USC (128)

An outstanding all-around athlete who played quarterback, left halfback, fullback and safety, Hornung remains the only player from a losing team (Notre Dame finished 2-8 in '56) ever to win the Heisman Trophy. As a sophomore, Hornung served as the backup fullback and also averaged 6.1 points per contest while earning a basketball monogram. As a junior, he finished fourth nationally in total offense with 1,215 yards and fifth in the Heisman voting behind Ohio State's Hopalong Cassidy. Hornung ran for one score, threw for another and intercepted two passes in a victory over fourth-ranked Navy - and then brought the Irish from behind against Iowa with a TD pass and game-winning field goal in the final minutes. In a loss to USC, he threw and ran for 354 yards, an NCAA high that year. As a senior, he ranked second nationally in total offense (1,337 yards), accounted for more than half the Irish scoring - and converted 67 times on either third or fourth down as a junior and senior combined. A bonus pick of the Green Bay Packers, he led the NFL in scoring in 1959, '60 and '61. He retired after the '66 season, as physical problems kept him from joining New Orleans as an expansion pick. Hornung joined the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1985 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1986.

1964 HEISMAN VOTING

1. John Huarte, Notre Dame (1,026)
2. Jerry Rhome, Tulsa (952)
3. Dick Butkus, Illinois (505)
4. Bob Timberlake, Michigan (361)
5. Jack Snow, Notre Dame (187)
6. Tucker Frederickson, Auburn (184)
7. Craig Morton, California (181)
8. Steve DeLong, Tennessee (176)
9. Cosmo Iacavazzi, Princeton (165)
10. Brian Piccolo, Wake Forest (124)

Huarte's Heisman Trophy victory ranks as one of the biggest upsets in the history of the award considering he missed much of his sophomore season due to injury and didn't even play enough as a junior to win a monogram. Behind the aerial efforts of Huarte and fellow Californian Jack Snow (he caught 60 passes that year for 1,114 yards and a record nine touchdowns), Ara Parseghian in his first year turned Notre Dame from a 2-7 team in '63 into a 9-1 squad that came within minutes of the national title. Huarte threw for 270 yards in the '64 opening-game upset of Wisconsin - including TD tosses of 61 and 42 yards to Snow - and ended up finishing the year ranked third nationally in total offense (2,069 yards). He set 12 Irish records that year, and also earned back of the year and player of the year honors from United Press International. A second-round draft pick of the New York Jets, Huarte played sparingly in the pro ranks for eight years with Boston, Philadelphia, Minnesota, Kansas City and Chicago - prior to retiring from the World Football League Memphis entry in 1975. Huarte was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

1987 HEISMAN VOTING

1. Tim Brown, Notre Dame (1,442)
2. Don McPherson, Syracuse (831)
3. Gordie Lockbaum, Holy Cross (657)
4. Lorenzo White, Michigan State (632)
5. Craig Heyward, Pittsburgh (170)
6. Chris Spielman, Ohio State (110)
7. Thurman Thomas, Oklahoma State (99)
8. Gaston Green, UCLA (73)
9. Emmitt Smith, Florida (70)
10. Bobby Humphrey, Alabama (63)

Brown burst onto the scene as a junior with a scintillating season-ending performance in a come-from-behind upset of USC, then used back-to-back punt returns for touchdowns in an early-season '87 game against Michigan State to cement his Heisman bid. Listed as a flanker, Brown utilized his ability as a pass receiver, rusher out of a full-house backfield and punt and kickoff returner to rank third nationally in all-purpose yardage as a junior (176.5 per game) and sixth as a senior (167.9). He finished his junior campaign with 254 all-purpose yards in the 38-37 win at USC (including a 56-yard punt return that set up the winning field goal), then returned punts for 66 and 71 yards for a pair of touchdowns in an early romp over eventual Big Ten and Rose Bowl champion Michigan State. Brown finished his career as Notre Dame's all-time leader in pass reception yards (2493) while also returning six kicks for touchdowns (three punts, three kickoffs). Despite constant double and triple coverage as a senior, he earned a reputation as the most dangerous player in college football. Brown was a first-round pick of the Los Angeles Raiders (sixth player chosen overall) in the '88 NFL draft. He was selected to play in the NFL Pro Bowl following the seasons of 1988, '91, '93, '94, '95, '96 and '97, '99, 2000, 2001 and 2002. He also played in his first Super Bowl in 2003. The original "Mr. Raider" signed a one-day contract with Oakland to retire as a Raider in July 2005. Brown was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend in 2009.

Notre Dame's seven Heisman Trophy winners gathered in December '87 in New York the night before Tim Brown was presented with his award. The Irish honorees are (from left) John Lujack, 1947; Angelo Bertelli, 1943; Leon Hart, 1949; Tim Brown, 1987; Paul Hornung, 1956; John Huarde, 1964 and John Lattner, 1953.

Players accorded the majority of votes at their positions by selectors are designated consensus All-Americans. Current teams utilized in designation of consensus selections are those chosen by Football Writers Association of America, American Football Coaches Association, Sporting News, Walter Camp Football Foundation and Associated Press. In previous years, different combinations of agencies and magazines have been used to select the consensus All-Americans.

Ever since quarterback Gus Dorais became Notre Dame's initial first-team All-America pick in 1913, Irish players have been honored as first-team All-America selections on 190 occasions. Recognition of at least one All-America second team has been received by Notre Dame players on 81 other occasions.

The NCAA recognizes members of a consensus All-America team each season—with 99 of those selections having worn a Notre Dame uniform. Notre Dame has had 83 different players earn the consensus designation, more than any other school. Notre Dame has produced at least one consensus All-American in 31 of the last 53 seasons. In fact, over one period Notre Dame had a consensus selection in 17 straight years—including all 11 years under Ara Parseghian and all six under Dan Devine—from 1964 through 1981.

The NCAA also recognizes first-team All-Americans chosen on a unanimous basis. Notre Dame has had 33 unanimous choices, more than any other university.

2016 Season in Review

History and Records

University and Media Information

Bob Crable was one of 10 former college players and three coaches named to the 2017 College Football Hall of Fame Class. The 46th inducted player in Notre Dame history, Crable was enshrined in the winter of 2017.

Bob Crable, a two-time consensus All-America linebacker in football at the University of Notre Dame and the most prolific tackler in Fighting Irish history, has been named to the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame Class of 2017.

Crable becomes the 46th former Notre Dame player—and the first since end Thom Gatewood in 2015—to join the College Football Hall of Fame. With 46 former players and six former coaches selected, Notre Dame boasts more honorees than any other school in the country.

Crable will be inducted with the entire 2017 class Dec. 5, 2017, at the 60th NFF Annual Awards Dinner at the New York Hilton Midtown in New York City. The 2017 class also will be recognized at the National Hall of Fame Salute at the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl in Atlanta following the 2017 season.

A two-time Irish captain under head coaches Dan Devine (Crable played for him in 1978–79–80) and Gerry Faust (Crable played his senior season under him in 1981), Crable led the Irish in total tackles in three straight seasons—in 1979 with a Notre Dame single-season record 187, in 1980 with 154 and in 1981 with 167 (plus two interceptions). Crable joins fellow linebackers Manti Te'o (2010–11–12) and Bob Olson (1967–68–69) as the only Irish players to lead Notre Dame in tackles in three consecutive campaigns (tackle statistics go back through the 1956 season).

His season tackle totals in 1979 (187) and 1981 (167) remain the two best single-season marks in Notre Dame history. Crable was a mainstay of the 1980 Irish defense that ranked fourth in the country in total defense (213.2 yards allowed per game), fifth in scoring defense (10.1 points) and eighth in both rushing (109.8 yards) and passing defense (103.0 yards).

The Cincinnati, Ohio, product tied the NCAA and Notre Dame single-game tackle record with 26 against Clemson in 1979 and holds the Irish career record for tackles with 521. Crable had five career games with 20 or more tackles—26 against 14th-rated Clemson in 1979, 24 versus South Carolina in 1979 and against 11th-ranked Michigan in 1981 and 20 versus both Navy and 17th-rated Purdue in 1979. He had four other games with 19 tackles—including in a win over fifth-rated Alabama in 1980 and against Michigan teams in both 1979 and 1980.

As a junior in 1980, Crable's consensus All-America season featured first-team mention on teams named by United Press International, the American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Foundation, Newspaper Enterprise Association, The Sporting News and Football News. He was a second-team pick by the Associated Press. As a senior in 1981, he was a consensus first-team pick by AP, UPI, the AFCA, Walter Camp, The Sporting News and Football News.

As a sophomore in 1979, he was a third-team pick by the AP and Football News. He was a finalist for the Rotary Lombardi Award as a senior in 1981. Crable was the Notre Dame Monogram Club Team MVP as both a junior and senior in 1980 and 1981.

As a three-year starter Crable helped those three Irish teams to a combined 21–12–1 record—7–4 in 1979, 9–2–1 in 1980 (#9 in the final AP poll, #10 in the coaches' voting) and 5–6 in 1981. He led the Irish to the number-one ranking in the AP poll after the Irish won their first seven games in 1980 and helped Notre Dame to that same slot one game into the 1981 campaign. He started 34 consecutive games to finish his collegiate career—leading the team in tackles in 31 of those. His career statistics included 33 tackles for loss (of 95 yards), 10 passes broken up, six fumbles recovered, four blocked kicks and three interceptions.

Crable played on Irish teams that defeated Houston in the Cotton Bowl following his freshman season in 1978 and lost to unbeaten, top-ranked eventual national champion Georgia in the Sugar Bowl after the 1980 season (Crable made 10 tackles in that contest). He recovered a fumble that led to an Irish touchdown in the comeback win over Houston.

Crable was maybe best known for his field-goal block with six seconds remaining against Michigan in 1979 that preserved a 12–10 Irish victory over the sixth-ranked Wolverines in Ann Arbor.

After playing in the 1981 Hula Bowl, Crable was selected in the first round (23rd overall pick) of the 1982 National Football League Draft by the New York Jets. He played six seasons (1982–87) at the professional level—participating in 66 career games, making 43 starts and recording 10 sacks. Crable is the only Notre Dame linebacker to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

In 2006 Crable was named the Butkus Silver Anniversary Award Winner after being named to the Hamilton (Ohio) County Hall of Fame in 1992. He helped his last three Cincinnati Moeller High School teams under Faust to a combined 36–0 record and three straight Ohio state prep titles in 1975–76–77.

Born Sept. 22, 1959, the 6-foot-3, 228-pound Crable received his Notre Dame degree in 1982 from the College of Business Administration, with a major in finance.

Crable served as head football coach for seven seasons (2001–08) at Moeller High School (his alma mater) in Cincinnati after nine seasons as an assistant coach. He was president of Crable Sports-wear (1987–90) and Craco Embroidery (1990–2002) and became president of Hilltop Management Association in Cincinnati. He now works in commercial real estate with Capital Real Estate Partners in Cincinnati while also serving as president of the Crable Investment Group. He's also president of the Crable Foundation that helps fund education opportunities for student-athletes of team sports to attend Catholic schools.

University of Notre Dame alumnus Ed DeBartolo, Jr. purchased the San Francisco 49ers in 1977 with a vision to create a top-notch organization, on and off the field. He succeeded in his goal as he led the franchise to unprecedented winning during the time of his tenure as the team's Chief Executive Officer. DeBartolo became the 13th Irish representative inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame as a member of the class of 2016.

The transformation was not instant as the 49ers suffered back-to-back 2-14 seasons to close out the decade. In 1979, he hired 47-year-old Bill Walsh as the team's head coach, drafted a quarterback from his alma mater by the name of Joe Montana, and created an atmosphere conducive to winning. The fortunes of the franchise changed soon thereafter. By 1981, the 49ers finished 13-3 to claim the NFC Western Division title and then won hard fought playoff battles with the New York Giants, Dallas Cowboys and capped the year with a thrilling 26-21 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals in Super Bowl XVI. The season marked just the beginning for a team that would soon completely dominate the decade and continue their winning ways throughout DeBartolo's term as CEO.

DeBartolo, who had a reputation as a "players' owner" created a first-class atmosphere and infused the roster with talent that resulted in San Francisco enjoying an amazing string of winning seasons. The team averaged an astounding 13 wins per season, including playoffs, during a span from 1981 to 1998 (not including the strike-shortened 1982 season). The 49ers during DeBartolo's reign claimed 13 division titles, made 16 playoff appearances, advanced to the NFC championship game 10 times, and became the first franchise ever to win five Super Bowls.

The other DeBartolo-led 49ers teams that won Super Bowl rings came during the 1984, 1988, 1989, and 1994 seasons. San Francisco defeated Miami in Super Bowl XIX, the Bengals again in Super Bowl XXIII followed by lopsided wins over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV and the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX.

The franchise posted the best winning percentage in the NFL in both the decades of the 1980s and 1990s. DeBartolo was named the NFL Man of the Year by the Football News in 1989 as recognition as the nation's top sports executives.

Aside from his role with the team, DeBartolo was highly respected inside NFL circles and served on the league's realignment and expansion committees.

Some of the greatest names in professional football have appeared on the gridiron wearing a Notre Dame football jersey. Curly Lambeau was a charter member of the Hall in 1963 as a founder, player and coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1919-1949. Lambeau lettered for the 1918 Notre Dame football team. Montana, who is among those mentioned as the greatest quarterbacks to play the game, won a national championship at Notre Dame in 1977 and four Super Bowl titles with the San Francisco 49ers. One of Notre Dame's seven Heisman Trophy winners, Paul Hornung, was inducted into the Hall in 1986, and 1988 welcomed "Purple People Eater" and Minnesota Supreme Court Justice Alan Page (Minnesota 1967-78, Chicago 1978-81) into the Hall of Fame.

A complete list of the former Notre Dame representatives inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, by years of induction (years played at Notre Dame in parentheses):

Quinn also was a finalist in 2005.

BEDNARIK AWARD

The Bednarik Award has been presented annually since 1995 to the college defensive player of the year by the Maxwell Football Club in Philadelphia.

The award is named after former University of Pennsylvania All-America (1947-48) and NFL Philadelphia Eagle center Chuck Bednarik, a member of both the College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Notre Dame has produced one Bednarik Award winner:

2012	LB	Manti Te'o

BILETNIKOFF AWARD

The Tallahassee Quarterback Club Foundation, Inc., is the creator and sponsor of the Biletnikoff Award. It has been presented annually since 1994 to the nation's top collegiate pass receiver.

The award is named after Fred Biletnikoff, a former Florida State All-America receiver and NFL Oakland Raiders standout.

2009	WR	Golden Tate

Notre Dame finalists have included Jeff Samardzija in 2005 and 2006 and Michael Floyd in 2010 and 2011.

BUTKUS AWARD

The Butkus Award has been presented annually since 1985 by the Downtown Athletic Club of Orlando (Fla.) to the nation's best collegiate linebacker.

The award is named after former linebacker Dick Butkus, a two-time consensus All-American at Illinois and a six-time all-pro selection with the Chicago Bears.

Two Notre Dame players have won the award:

2012	LB	Manti Te'o
2015	LB	Jaylon Smith

Michael Stonebreaker finished third in the voting in 1988 and 1990. Courtney Watson was one of three finalists for the award in 2002.

Jaylon Smith was one of five finalists for the award in 2014.

ROTARY LOMBARDI AWARD

The Rotary Club of Houston since 1970 has annually presented the Lombardi Award to the college lineman or linebacker of the year.

The award is presented to the player who best combines athletic performance with the discipline of Vince Lombardi, the former Green Bay Packer coach and a member of Fordham's "Seven Blocks of Granite" from the 1930s.

1971	DE	Walt Patulski
1977	DE	Ross Browner
1990	DT	Chris Zorich
1993	OL	Aaron Taylor
2012	LB	Manti Te'o

LOTT TROPHY

The Ronnie Lott Trophy has been presented annually since 2004 to the IMPACT defensive player of the year by the Pacific Club of Newport Beach, Calif. The award goes to the defensive player who has had the biggest impact on his team, both on and off the field. The IMPACT acronym stands for integrity, maturity, performance, academics, community and tenacity.

The award is named for the former USC and NFL San Francisco 49ers all-star defensive back.

Notre Dame has produced one Lott Trophy winner:

MACKEY AWARD

The John Mackey Award has been presented annually since 2000 by the Nassau County (N.Y.) Sports Commission to the nation's outstanding tight end.

The award is named after former Syracuse star John Mackey, the first tight end named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame after his 10-year career with the NFL Baltimore Colts.

Notre Dame has produced one winner of the Mackey Award:

2012	TE	Tyler Eifert

NAGURSKI TROPHY

The Bronko Nagurski Trophy has been presented annually since 1993 to the nation's outstanding defensive player by the Football Writers Association of America and the Charlotte (N.C.) Touchdown Club.

It is named in honor of Bronko Nagurski, the former Minnesota All-America tackle and running back and NFL Chicago Bears standout. He is a member of both the College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Notre Dame has had one winner of the Nagurski Trophy:

Notre Dame's Shane Walton was a 2002 finalist.

OUTLAND TROPHY

The Outland Trophy is presented annually to the nation's most outstanding interior lineman (guard, tackle or center) on either offense or defense in collegiate football by the Football Writers Association of America, with representation from the Greater Omaha (Neb.) Sports Committee.

The award is named for a former Kansas City surgeon and University of Pennsylvania All-America lineman from 1897, Dr. John H. Outland, who felt linemen did not receive the recognition they deserved.

Since the inception of the award in 1946, four Notre Dame football players have been honored:

1946	OT	George Connor
1948	OG	Bill Fischer
2012	LB	Manti Te'o

UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD

The Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award is presented by the Frank Camp Chapter of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Educational Foundation. Formerly presented by the Kentucky chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame beginning in 1987 it annually honors the nation's top senior quarterback.

The award is named after former Kentucky standout and NFL Baltimore Colt quarterback Johnny Unitas.

Two Notre Dame signal-callers have won the award:

1989	QB	Tony Rice
2006	QB	Brady Quinn

OTHER AWARDS

Here's where Notre Dame football players have been mentioned for other awards:

- Paul Hornung is the lone Notre Dame player to capture the Chic Harley Award, presented since 1955 by the Touchdown Club of Columbus to the college football player of the year.
- Placekicker David Ruffer in 2010 was one of three finalists for the Lou Groza Award. Presented by the Palm Beach County Sports Commission and named for the Ohio State and Cleveland Browns Hall of Famer, it honors the nation's most instrumental placekicker.
- The Davey O'Brien Award, presented since 1977 by the Fort Worth Club to the top quarterback in the country, has featured three Notre Dame finalists--Tony Rice in 1988 and 1989, Rick Mirer in 1992 and Brady Quinn in 2005 and 2006. The award is named after former TCU star Davey O'Brien.
- Cornerback Bobby Taylor was one of three finalists for the 1993 Jim Thorpe Award, presented since 1988 by the Jim Thorpe Association of Oklahoma City to the top defensive back in the nation. The award is named after former Carlisle standout Jim Thorpe, a native Oklahoma Indian. Irish cornerback Todd Lyght was one of three finalists in 1989.

- The first Irish player to finish as a finalist for the Doak Walker National Running Back Award was tailback Reggie Brooks in 1992. The Doak Walker Award, presented first in 1990 by the SMU Athletic Forum, is given to the nation's top running back. The award is named after SMU's 1948 Heisman Trophy winner.
- In 2002, Irish center Jeff Faine was the first Notre Dame player named a finalist for the Rimington Award, given to the nation's outstanding center. Faine was runner-up to Miami's Brett Romberg for the honor. Braxton Cave was a finalist in 2012 as well.
- Cornerback Allen Rossum was a finalist in 1998 for the Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Award. The award was presented through 2006 by the Bowl Games of Hawaii, in conjunction with the Quarterback Clubs of Honolulu and Maui.
- Linebacker Brandon Hoyte in 2005 was a finalist for the Wuerffel Trophy presented by the Fort Walton Beach (Fla.) All Sports Association. Named after former Florida quarterback Danny Wuerffel, the award goes to the college football player who best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement.
- Cornerback Bobby Taylor (1994) captured the Jack Tatum Trophy, presented to the top collegiate defensive back by the Touchdown Club of Columbus.
- Offensive Lineman Aaron Taylor (1993) captured the Jim Parker Trophy, presented to the top collegiate offensive lineman by the Touchdown Club of Columbus.

NICK PIETROSANTE AWARD

The Nick Pietrosante Award is presented each year to the Notre Dame player who best exemplifies the courage, loyalty, teamwork, dedication and pride of the late Irish All-America fullback. The award is determined by vote of the Irish players.

Pietrosante played for the Irish from 1956-58 and won first-team All-America honors as a senior from the American Football Coaches Association and Look. He led the Irish in rushing in his junior and senior seasons with 449 yards on 90 carries in 1957 and 117 carries for 549 yards in 1958. A first-round National Football League draft pick of the Detroit Lions in 1959, he played for that team from 1959-65 and then for the Cleveland Browns from 1966-67.

Pietrosante died of cancer on Feb. 6, 1988.

BYRON V. KANALEY AWARD

Perhaps the most prestigious honor awarded to Notre Dame student-athletes is the Byron V. Kanaley Award. Presented each year since 1926, the Kanaley Awards go to the senior monogram athletes who have been the most exemplary as students and leaders. These awards, selected by the Faculty Board on Athletics, are named in honor of a 1904 Notre Dame graduate who was a member of the Irish baseball team as an undergraduate. Kanaley went on to a successful banking career in Chicago and served the University in the Alumni Association and as a lay trustee from 1915 until his death in the spring of 1960.

Winners of the Kanaley Award from the sport of football include:

FRANCIS PATRICK O'CONNOR AWARD

The Francis Patrick O'Connor Award is named in honor of a former Notre Dame wrestler who died in 1973 following his freshman year at Notre Dame. He was the son of Jane and William "Bucky" O'Connor (he played football at Notre Dame in 1942, '46 and '47) from Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Presented each year since 1993, the award — which goes to one female and one male student-athlete—is presented, upon nomination of their head coaches, to the student-athlete who best displays the total embodiment of the true spirit of Notre Dame as exemplified by their contributions and inspiration to their teams. Among the qualities considered in nominating individuals—as attributed to Pat O'Connor—as caring, courage, confidence, encouragement, humility, humor, honesty, kindness and patience.

Winners of the O'Connor Award from the sport of football include:

2002	LB	Grant Irons
2013	DE	Kapron Lewis-Moore
2015	LB	Jaylon Smith

NOTRE DAME ATHLETICS COMMUNITY CHAMPION AWARD

Presented each year since 1998, this award has been established to recognize the contributions of a Notre Dame student-athlete to the University community and the community at large, who embodies the spirit of leadership, commitment, and selflessness, and who strives to make Notre Dame—as Father Jenkins put it—“a healing, unifying, enlightening force for a world deeply in need”.

Conferring this award recognizes student-athletes who study for the sake of learning, give for the sake of giving, and understand that personal accomplishment is never achieved alone.

IRISH IN THE NFL DRAFT

Since the National Football League began drafting players in 1936 — starting with the initial draft on February 8, 1936, at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel in Philadelphia — Notre Dame football players have been selected by NFL teams on 494 occasions. The total rises to 555 selections to the professional ranks when you include the AFL (37) and AAFC (24) drafts.

Based on the statistics provided by the NFL, Notre Dame has had 66 first-round draft picks, beginning with Bill Shakespeare by Pittsburgh in 1936. Overall, the Irish have had five players (tied with USC and Auburn for most) chosen as the first pick in the entire draft — QB Angelo Bertelli by Boston in 1944, QB Frank Dancewicz by Boston in 1946, E Leon Hart by Detroit in 1950, B Paul Hornung by Green Bay in 1957 and DT Walt Patulski by Buffalo in 1972.

Here's a listing of first-round selections by NFL teams with the overall pick in parentheses:

KNUTE ROCKNE

Knute Rockne received a rude introduction to football.

As a young Norwegian immigrant to the Logan Square district of Chicago, Rockne first played the game with his immigrant neighbors on the sandlots. A slender and swift ballcarrier, Rockne broke away from his pursuers for a long run, a sure touchdown. But a rowdy group of fans for the opponents stepped in, stripped the ball away from his cradled arms and mistook his body for a punching bag. When he finally arrived home, his parents took one look at his tattered body and announced that his football career was over. But a few bumps and bruises would not keep Rockne away from the game he loved for long. With his parents' blessing, he returned to the gridiron in high school and later emerged as the country's most respected, innovative and successful college football coach of all time.

After Rockne finished high school, he worked as a mail dispatcher with the Chicago Post Office for four years and continued his athletic endeavors at the Irving Park Athletic Club, the Central YMCA and the Illinois Athletic Club. By then he had saved enough money to continue his education and boarded the train for South Bend and Notre Dame. After a difficult first year as a scrub with the varsity, Rockne turned his attention to track where he earned a monogram and later set a school record (12-4) in the indoor pole vault. Those accomplishments gave him incentive to give football another try. This time he succeeded and eventually was named to Walter Camp's All-America football squad as a third-string end. During his senior season (1913) when he served as captain, Rockne and his roommate, quarterback Gus Dorais, stunned Army with their deadly pass combination and handed the high-ranking Cadets a 35-13 setback.

But Rockne — who also fought semi-professionally in South Bend, wrote for the student newspaper and yearbook, played flute in the school orchestra, took a major role in every student play and reached the finals of the Notre Dame marbles tournament — considered himself primarily a student. He worked his way through school, first as a janitor and then as a chemistry research assistant to Professor Julius A. Nieuwland, whose discoveries led to synthetic rubber. Rockne graduated magna cum laude with a 90.52 (on a scale of 100) grade average.

Upon graduation Rockne was offered a post at Notre Dame as a graduate assistant in chemistry. He accepted that position on the condition that he be allowed to help Jesse Harper coach the football team. When Harper retired after the 1917 season, Rockne was named his successor.

Under Rockne's tutelage, Notre Dame skyrocketed to national prominence and became America's team. With their penchant for upsetting the stronger, more established football powers throughout the land, the Irish captured the hearts of millions of Americans who viewed Notre Dame's victories as hope for their own battles.

During Rockne's 13-year coaching tenure, Notre Dame beat Stanford in the 1925 Rose Bowl and put together five unbeaten and untied seasons. Rockne produced 20 first-team All-Americans. His lifetime winning percentage of .881 (105-12-5) still ranks at the top of the list for both college and professional football. Rockne won the last 19 games he coached.

Rockne, who was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1951 — the first year of inductions — revolutionized the game of football with his wide-ranging ideas and innovations.

Rockne was the first football coach to take his team all over the country and initiate intersectional rivalries. The Irish competed in a national arena. He challenged the best football teams in the land and almost always won.

Using his medical and anatomical knowledge, Rockne designed his own equipment and uniforms. He reduced the amount of bulk and weight of the equipment, while increasing its protectiveness. He also introduced the gold satin and silk pants that cut down on wind resistance.

Rockne foresaw the day of the two-platoon system and often used his "shock troops," a full team of second stringers, at the start of most games.

Inspired by the precision and timing of a chorus line, Rockne added the Notre Dame shift to his playbook. In the shift, all four backs were still in motion at the snap. Opponents were so dumbfounded by the shift that they couldn't find a consistent way to handle it. The rules board finally enacted a law against the shift.

Rockne also attempted to outsmart his coaching peers by down playing his squads' talent. He never boasted about his team or its strengths; rather, he lamented his squad's lack of skill every chance he got.

Rockne believed that half of football strategy was passing, while most of his counterparts kept the ball on the ground.

But football was never enough for Rockne. He also served as Notre Dame's athletic director, business manager, ticket distributor, track coach and equipment manager; he wrote a newspaper column once a week; he authored three books, including a volume of juvenile fiction; Rockne was principle designer of Notre Dame Stadium; he opened a stock brokerage firm in South Bend during his last season; he was a dedicated family man to his wife Bonnie and their four children and for years raised much of the family's food in his garden. Rockne also made several public speeches a year and served as a public spokesman for Studebaker.

For all of his contributions to the game of football, Rockne was recognized as the 76th most powerful person in sports for the 20th century by The Sporting News.

After the championship season of 1930, Rockne tried to get away for a much-needed rest and vacation. But he was needed in Los Angeles to make a football demonstration movie.

An enthusiastic flier and never one to waste time, Rockne boarded Transcontinental-Western's Flight 599 from Kansas City to Los Angeles on March 31, 1931. Shortly after takeoff, the plane flew into a storm, became covered with ice and fell into a wheat field near Bazaar, Kansas. There were no survivors.

GEORGE GIPP

George Gipp, perhaps the greatest all-around player in college football history, became a legend even though he was unable to overcome a bout with a streptococcal throat infection that led to his untimely death at the age of 25.

But ironically, his death on Dec. 14, 1920 — coming just two weeks after he was selected as Notre Dame's first Walter Camp All-American — assured Gipp's place in Notre Dame's history books.

While on his deathbed, Gipp, who had contracted the strep throat while helping the Irish defeat Northwestern late in his senior season, made this often-repeated plea to his coach, Knute Rockne.

"I've got to go, Rock. It's all right. I'm not afraid. Some time, Rock, when the team is up against it, when things are wrong and the breaks are beating the boys — tell them to go in there with all they've got and win just one for the Gipper. I don't know where I'll be then, Rock. But I'll know about it, and I'll be happy."

Rockne waited eight years to relay Gipp's parting request. On Nov. 10, 1928, after losing two of its first six games, an injury-riddled Notre Dame team traveled to Yankee Stadium to face unbeaten

Army. According to Francis Wallace of the New York News, Rockne made this pregame speech to his under-dog Irish.

"The day before he died, George Gipp asked me to wait until the situation seemed hopeless — then ask a Notre Dame team to go out and beat Army for him. This is the day, and you are the team." Notre Dame won the game 12-6 on a pair of second-half touchdowns. Jack Chevigny scored the first on a one-yard run and, after reaching the end zone, said, "That's one for the Gipper." Football experts who witnessed it said the game was the greatest demonstration of inspired football ever played anywhere.

Even now, 87 years later, every aspiring football player, or anyone facing insurmountable odds, hears the tale of the Gipper. But George Gipp should be remembered for much more than his tragic death and dying wish.

Gipp left his home in Laurium, Michigan, in 1916 and headed to Notre Dame with ambitions of playing baseball. But one fall afternoon Rockne spotted Gipp, who had never played football in high school, drop kicking the football 60 and 70 yards just for the fun of it. The persuasive coach, sensing Gipp's natural athletic ability, eventually convinced Gipp to go out for the team. Gipp experienced nothing but success on the gridiron.

A four-year member of the varsity, Gipp proved to be the most versatile player Rockne ever had. He could run, he could pass and he could punt. Still holder of a handful of Notre Dame records in a variety of categories, Gipp led the Irish in rushing and passing each of his last three seasons (1918, 1919 and 1920). His career mark of 2,341 rushing yards lasted more than 50 years until Jerome Heavens broke it in 1978. Gipp did not allow a pass completion in his territory. Walter Camp named him the outstanding college player in America in 1920. Gipp was voted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1951.

During Gipp's career, Notre Dame compiled a 27-2-3 record, including a 19-0-1 mark in his last 20 games. With Gipp's help the Irish outscored their opponents 506 to 97 in those contests. Notre Dame was undefeated in 1919 and 1920 and the Irish were declared Champions of the West.

Despite his football achievements, Gipp's first love remained baseball. He played centerfield for the Irish and had planned to join the Chicago Cubs after graduation.

THE FOUR HORSEMEN

It was 93 years ago that a dramatic nickname coined by a poetic sportswriter and the quick-thinking actions of a clever student publicity aide transformed the Notre Dame backfield of Stuhldreher, Crowley, Miller and Layden into the most fabled quartet in college football history.

Quarterback Harry Stuhldreher, left halfback Jim Crowley, right halfback Don Miller and fullback Elmer Layden had run rampant through Irish opponents' defenses since coach Knute Rockne devised the lineup in 1922 during their sophomore season. But the foursome needed some help from Grantland Rice, a sportswriter for the New York Herald-Tribune, to achieve football immortality. After Notre Dame's 13-7 victory over Army on Oct. 18, 1924, Rice penned the most famous passage in the history of sports journalism.

"Outlined against a blue, gray October sky the Four Horsemen rode again.

"In dramatic lore they are known as famine, pestilence, destruction and death. These are only aliases. Their real names are: Stuhldreher, Miller, Crowley and Layden. They formed the crest of the South Bend cyclone before which another fighting Army team was swept over the precipice at the Polo Grounds this afternoon as 55,000 spectators peered down upon the bewildering panorama spread out upon the green plain below."

George Strickler, then Rockne's student publicity aide and later sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, made sure the name stuck. After the team arrived back in South Bend, he posed the four players, dressed in their uniforms, on the backs of four horses from a livery stable in town. The wire services picked up the now-famous photo, and the legendary status of the Four Horsemen was ensured.

The 1999 season marked the 75th anniversary of the Four Horsemen's senior year and descendants of each member of that group were honored at the Notre Dame vs. Navy game on Oct. 30, 1999. "At the time, I didn't realize the impact it would have," Crowley once said. "But the thing just kind of mushroomed. After the splurge in the press, the sports fans of the nation got interested in us along with other sportswriters. Our record helped, too. If we'd lost a couple, I don't think we would have been remembered."

After that win over Army, Notre Dame's third straight victory of the young season, the Irish were rarely threatened the rest of the year. A 27-10 win over Stanford in the 1925 Rose Bowl gave Rockne and Notre Dame the national championship and a perfect 10-0 record.

As it usually is with legends, the Four Horsemen earned their spot in gridiron history. Although none of the four stood taller than six feet and none of the four weighed more than 162 pounds, the Four Horsemen might comprise the greatest backfield ever. As a unit, Stuhldreher, Crowley, Miller and Layden played 30 games and only lost to one team, Nebraska, twice.

Stuhldreher, a 5-7, 151-pounder from Massillon, Ohio, was a self-assured leader who not only could throw accurately but also returned punts and proved a solid blocker. He emerged as the starting signal caller four games into his sophomore season in 1922. He was often labeled cocky, feisty and ambitious, but his field generalship was unmatched.

Crowley, who came to Notre Dame in 1921 from Green Bay, Wisconsin, stood 5-11 and weighed 162 pounds. Known as "Sleepy Jim" for his drowsy-eyed appearance, Crowley outmaneuvered many a defender with his clever, shifty ball carrying.

Miller, a native of Defiance, Ohio, followed his three brothers to Notre Dame. At 5-11, 160 pounds, Miller proved to be the team's breakout threat. According to Rockne, Miller was the greatest open-field runner he ever coached.

Layden, the fastest of the quartet, became the Irish defensive star with his timely interceptions and also handled the punting chores. The 6-0, 162-pounder from Davenport, Iowa, boasted 10-second speed in the 100-yard dash.

After graduation, the lives of the Four Horsemen took similar paths. All began coaching careers with three of the four occupying top positions.

Layden coached at his alma mater for seven years and compiled a 47-13-3 record. He also served as athletic director at Notre Dame. After a business career in Chicago, Layden died in 1973 at the age of 70.

Crowley coached Vince Lombardi at Fordham before entering business in Cleveland. He died in 1986 at the age of 83.

Stuhldreher, who died in 1965 at the age of 63, became athletic director and football coach at Wisconsin.

Miller left coaching after four years at Georgia Tech and began practicing law in Cleveland. He was appointed U.S. District Attorney for Northern Ohio by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Miller died in 1979 at the age of 77.

All four players eventually were elected to the Football Foundation College Hall of Fame — Layden in 1951, Stuhldreher in 1958, Crowley in 1966 and Miller in 1970.

UNDER ARMOUR.

When Rev. Edward F. Sorin, C.S.C., arrived in the northern Indiana wilderness, he had only $310, three log buildings badly in need of repair and a far-sighted vision of establishing a liberal arts school to meet the growing educational needs of the frontier. He dreamed of building a great university, and in 1842 he founded the University of Notre Dame du Lac.

Over the years, Notre Dame would evolve into a preeminent place for Catholic thought. While becoming one of the top undergraduate institutions in the country, Notre Dame also has been at the cutting edge of research, including such innovations as the transmission of wireless messages and the development of synthetic rubber. Today researchers are achieving breakthroughs in astrophysics, radiation chemistry, environmental sciences, psychology, tropical disease transmission, cancer treatment, robotics, peace/religious studies and nanoelectronics.

The University also has stressed residential life, with four-of-five students living on campus in 30 residence halls that serve as the focal point of social, spiritual and athletic activities. Notre Dame is one of a handful of universities with a truly national and international student body composed of young men and women who come from more than 90 nations and all 50 states. They attend Notre Dame not only to learn how to think, but to learn how to live, keeping faith with the vision of Father Sorin.

Notre Dame is one of the few universities to regularly rank in the top 25 in the U.S. News & World Report survey of America's best colleges and the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings of the best overall athletics programs. The University is second only to KU Leuven of Belgium among all Catholic universities worldwide, according to the Times Higher Education survey, and faculty in the College of Arts and Letters have won 61 fellowships from the National Endowment for the Humanities since 1999, more than for any other university in the country.

REV. JOHN I. JENKINS, C.S.C.
President

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., is in his third five-year term as the 17th president of the University of Notre Dame. His vision is for Notre Dame to be the Catholic research university for our time — an institution that unifies, enlightens and heals by engaging in research and scholarship of the first rank while maintaining its distinctive Catholic character and long-time excellence in undergraduate education.

During his tenure, Notre Dame has made significant progress toward its research goal, including selection as the lead partner in the Midwest Institute for Nanoelectronics Discovery and the Center for Low Energy Systems Technology, the creation of the Innovation Park research facility and the construction of a world-class turbomachinery testing facility.

His commitment to undergraduate education has been marked by the Notre Dame Forums, yearlong initiatives that have examined important issues such as religion and world conflict, global health, immigration, education and energy.

The University's Catholic identity has been strengthened during Father Jenkins' tenure in multiple ways, including the appointment of a coordinator for University life initiatives and the construction of multimillion-dollar facilities for the Sacred Music Program, Institute for Church Life, the Center for Social Concerns, and the Institute for Educational Initiatives, which includes the Alliance for Catholic Education.

Father Jenkins earned bachelor's and master's degrees in philosophy from Notre Dame in 1976 and 1978, respectively, and was ordained a priest of the Congregation of Holy Cross in 1983. He holds advanced degrees from Oxford and the Jesuit School of Theology. He is a professor of philosophy and the author of Knowledge and Faith in Thomas Aquinas.

A native of Omaha, Nebraska, Father Jenkins was born Dec. 17, 1953.

JACK SWARBRICK

University Vice President and James E. Rohr Director of Athletics

John B. "Jack" Swarbrick Jr., a University of Notre Dame graduate now in his 10th year in 2017-18 as vice president and director of athletics at his alma mater, has attached his signature to a variety of new initiatives during his tenure:

- Launching of Fighting Irish Media — a major enterprise that delivers better information about and access to Notre Dame and its athletic programs via expanded production and distribution of programming.
- Developing a plan for expanding Notre Dame Stadium in order to make it a year-round asset for the University, while also improving the gameday experience for student-athletes and fans.
- That initiative became reality with the 2014 announcement of the Campus Crossroads Project that will add new structures to three sides of Notre Dame's home football facility—creating new homes for student activities and recreation, career services, digital media, as well as academic disciplines anthropology, psychology, music and sacred music.
- Building of student-athlete programs to develop leadership skills, increase community service and provide mentoring and career services resources.
- Meeting the performance needs of Notre Dame student-athletes through establishment of a sports performance division that supports and improves athletic performance through the application of science, medicine and technology.
- Working to create systems and structures to maximize the impact of technical expertise, environments, technology and service delivery on an athlete's ability to optimize performance.

Over the past five years, Swarbrick played a major role in five significant announcements that positively impacted Notre Dame on the national collegiate scene:

- The 2016 launch of the ACC Network — a comprehensive linear and digital network that will give fans access to more than 600 exclusive live events from across the conference via a digital live-events channel "ACC Network Extra", immediately available to users who have access to ESPN3 via WatchESPN and the ESPN app.
- Membership for Notre Dame's men's ice hockey program in the Big Ten Conference that will begin with the 2017-18 season. The Irish will join Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Ohio State, Penn State and Wisconsin to form a seven-team hockey conference.
- Membership for Notre Dame's athletic teams (other than football and hockey) in the Atlantic Coast Conference that began with the 2013-14 athletic seasons. In football, Notre Dame will play five games per year against ACC opponents and also have full access to the league's list of postseason bowl options.
- An extension of the University's relationship with NBC Sports through the 2025 football season.

- The 2014 announcement of an unmatched 10-year relationship with Under Armour that provides performance footwear, apparel and equipment for Irish athletic programs. In addition to being a shareholder in Under Armour, Notre Dame collaborates with Under Armour in the areas of sport technology, product development and athlete performance.
- Creation by the Bowl Championship Series of the four-team College Football Playoff, which started with the 2014 season, with Notre Dame maintaining viable access into that system.

Swarbrick's first nine years featured a variety of on-and off-the-field Notre Dame athletics successes:

- The best across-the-board athletic season in Notre Dame history in 2013-14, as Irish men's programs claimed the Capital One Cup and 22 of 26 sports overall advanced to postseason play, enabling Notre Dame to finish third in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics all-sports standings.
- Number-one rankings for Notre Dame (among Football Bowl Subdivision schools) in the 10 most recent NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) surveys—in 2016 at 98 for all-student-athletes. The Irish football program has ranked number one in those listings three of the last six years.
- An appearance in the Bowl Championship Series football title game following the 2012 season — an unprecedented year in which the Irish finished the regular season 12-0 to rank No. 1 in the final BCS poll while also ranking No. 1 in the GSR standings.
- NCAA championships in 2017 in fencing (a men's and women's combined championship), 2013 in men's soccer, 2011 in fencing (a men's and women's combined championship) and 2010 in women's soccer.
- NCAA runner-up team finishes in 2015, 2014, 2012 and 2011 in women's basketball, 2014 and 2010 in men's lacrosse, 2013 and 2009 in fencing and 2008 in women's soccer.
- NCAA semifinal appearances in women's basketball in 2013, men's lacrosse in 2012 and 2015, hockey in 2011 and 2017, women's tennis in 2009 and 2010, and women's soccer in 2009, plus 2010, 2012 and 2015 third-place fencing finishes.
- Only men's basketball program in the nation to register NCAA Elite Eight appearances in 2015 and 2016
- Individual NCAA championships in 2017 by Lee Kiefer (fencing-women's foil), Francesca Russo (fencing-women's sabre); 2016 by Molly Seidel (indoor track and field-3,000 meters, 5,000 meters); 2015 by Lee Kiefer (fencing-foil), Francesca Russo (fencing-women's sabre) and Molly Seidel (cross country; track and field-10,000 meters); 2014 by Gerek Meinhardt (fencing-foil), Lee Kiefer (fencing-foil) and Emma Reaney (women's swimming-200 yard breaststroke); 2013 by Courtney Hurley (fencing-epee) and Lee Kiefer (fencing-foil); 2012 by Randall Babb (track and field-distance medley relay), Chris Giesting (track and field-distance medley relay), Jeremy Rae (track and field-distance medley relay) and Johnathan Shawel (track and field-distance medley relay); 2011 by Ariel DeSmet (fencing-foil) and Courtney Hurley (fencing-epee); and 2010 by Gerek Meinhardt (fencing-foil).
- 311 All-America selections and 54 Academic All-America honorees.

Born in Yonkers, New York, and raised in Yonkers and Bloomington, Indiana, Swarbrick is a 1976 magna cum laude graduate of Notre Dame, with a bachelor's degree in economics. Upon graduating from Stanford University Law School in 1980, he returned to Indiana to accept a position as an associate in the Indianapolis law firm Baker & Daniels. He was made partner in 1987 and spent 28 years with the firm. Swarbrick became Notre Dame's 12th athletics director on July 16, 2008.

He and his wife, Kimberly, are the parents of four children: Kate, a 2010 graduate of Saint Louis University; Connor, a 2011 graduate of Wake Forest University; Cal, a 2014 graduate of TCU; and Christopher, a 2015 graduate of Notre Dame.

For all the legendary players and memorable moments over the past 455 games, Notre Dame Stadium has unquestionably developed a lore of its own. The stadium, which will celebrate its 87th anniversary with the opening of a $400 million project that will unite academics and athletics on campus, continues to be one of the most recognizable and revered structures in the world of sports.

It was the success of Knute Rockne's football teams that prompted the addition of the original Notre Dame Stadium to the University's athletics plant back in 1930. The spirit was imbued by that Rockne era — and has been sustained by seven Heisman Trophy winners and dozens more All-Americans who have competed there — lives on after eight decades of football at Notre Dame Stadium.

Originally designed by Osborn Engineering Company — the same firm that designed Comiskey Park in Chicago and New York's Yankee Stadium and Polo Grounds — the total cost of construction exceeded $750,000 and it was patterned on a smaller scale after Michigan Stadium. The 1996 season was the final one played with the original capacity of 59,075 fans. A $50 million renovation adding over 21,000 seats was completed before the 1997 kickoff, bringing capacity to 80,795. Starting in 2017, capacity will change again.

Entering 2017, the Irish have played in front of sellout crowds at Notre Dame Stadium in 255 consecutive games and 303 of the last 304 home games have been held before capacity crowds. Every home game starting with the final two home dates in 1964 has been a sellout except one — a 1973 Thanksgiving Day matchup with Air Force. Notre Dame has played 455 games inside Notre Dame Stadium and compiled a 337-113-5 record (.746).

When Knute Rockne-designed Notre Dame Stadium opened for business in the autumn of 1930, it was described as “a monument to sportsmanship, a tribute to fighting youth, and an amphitheater devoted to modern athletics.”

Eighty-seven years later, the newest version of the University of Notre Dame’s home for football qualifies as all that and a whole lot more.

Long considered one of the most iconic athletic facilities in the world, Notre Dame Stadium in 2017 takes on a new role—not only as a centerpiece of the University’s campus and physical plant but also as one of the most effective combinations and commitments to athletics, academics and student life anywhere in major college sports. The stadium location now becomes a day-to-day destination for University students, faculty and staff—representing a perfect melding of old and new.

“The towering spire of the Church (the Basilica of the Sacred Heart) above the new wall, high as it is, carries with the cross at its top the higher purpose of Notre Dame to the surrounding campus. The golden Dome, surmounted by the figure of Our Lady, loses nothing through the . . . new structure, but rather seems to include it in the embracing gesture of the holy hands. . . . No one can come to the new Stadium without absorbing . . . this other, this deeper, Notre Dame.”

That quotation came from an editorial in the October 1930 Notre Dame Alumnus magazine—yet it couldn’t be more true today.

For nine decades Notre Dame Stadium has been home to national championship football teams, Heisman Trophy winners and All-Americans—and, in recent years, to the University’s Commencement ceremony. Exactly 20 years ago, in 1997, it added 20,000 new seats to its resume. Now, in 2017, the stadium location now includes three new structures on the east, west and south sides, as well as extensive renovations on the north end and major game day improvements for fans throughout the venue.

Those upgrades include new wider seats in the lower bowl, upgraded concession and restroom facilities, a 1930s art deco look to the main concourse, nearly 150 television monitors in the concourses, new displays at Gate C honoring Irish football award winners, improved Wi-Fi and connectivity, plus a new video board at the south end of the stadium. The khaki-colored bricks of Notre Dame Stadium remain a familiar sight. But what’s inside those new bricks walls has undergone extensive and substantial changes since the construction and remodeling project began three years ago.

DUNCAN STUDENT CENTER

Space designed to enhance student development will be housed in the nine-story Duncan Student Center. Planning has ensured that the new facility will complement the student organization space and administrative offices located in the historic LaFortune Student Center.

Duncan Student Center on the west side includes:

- Hagerty Family Café, Midfield Commons, Innovation Lounge and several other new restaurants on the first floor
- Grojean Family Loft, a student media center and climbing wall on the second floor
- The Tripp and Sheila Smith Center for Recreational Sports on the third and fourth level
- The Meruelo Family Career Center on the fifth floor
- The 1842 Club on what is termed level 5.5
- Dahnke Ballroom on the seventh level, plus a new broadcast position for NBC Sports
- Rasmus Family Club on level eight
- Various football game management and University hospitality booths on the ninth floor

CORBETT FAMILY HALL

Offices and labs for the Departments of Anthropology and Psychology, which are housed in a variety of buildings on campus, will now be in one place in Corbett Family Hall. In addition, a state-of-the-art digital media center in this building will position Notre Dame as a national leader in what is an increasingly important component of higher education.

Corbett Family Hall on the east side includes:

- The Rex and Alice Martin Digital Media Center and Notre Dame Studios on the first floor
- Department of Anthropology facilities on the second floor
- Department of Psychology offices and classrooms on the third, fourth and fifth levels
- Downes Club hospitality space on the seventh and eighth floors
- A press box and radio booths that opened in 2016, as well as additional hospitality areas, on the ninth floor

O'NEILL HALL

The relocation of the Department of Music and Sacred Music at Notre Dame will provide much needed new space for these growing programs. It also will put music into close proximity to other performing arts departments and programs.

O'Neill Hall on the south end, home to the Department of Music and Notre Dame Sacred Music, includes:

- LaBar Family Performance and Rehearsal Halls on the first floor
- Michuda Family Visiting Artist Rehearsal Hall as well as a lecture hall and music library on the third level
- Music departmental offices and practice rooms on the fourth and fifth levels
- South Club hospitality space on the fourth level

At the top of O'Neill Hall is a new Diamond Vision high definition video board which is more than 54 feet high and more than 95 feet wide, with more than 4.7 million physical pixels. In addition, there are new sideline ribbon boards the length of the field on the facing of new construction.

The north end features:

- A renovated Notre Dame locker room
- Updated Schivarelli Lounge now dedicated to game day recruiting
- A new visiting team locker room with a new visiting team field entrance at the northeast corner of the field
- New postgame media areas

Plus, the traditional tunnel entrance for the Irish squad has been redone to include additional brickwork and new theming.

Dedications will be held for Duncan Student Center Sept. 1, Corbett Family Hall Sept. 8 and O'Neill Hall Oct. 27.

As the University celebrates its 175th anniversary, the Notre Dame Stadium location now achieves its most significant role in representing Notre Dame's commitment and priorities in the areas of academics, athletics and student life.

University and Media Information

The University of Notre Dame is enjoying its 13th full season with access to the Guglielmino Athletics Complex, affectionately referred to as “The Gug” (pronounced Goog). The Gug houses the football practice-week locker rooms, coaches’ offices and meeting rooms in addition to enhanced sports medicine, strength and conditioning and weight room equipment for all Notre Dame student-athletes.

Underwritten with a gift from the late Don F. Guglielmino and his wife Flora, the Gug provides the Irish football team with a central location for post-practice and pre-practice routines as well as daily positional meetings. Before the Gug opened, the Irish football facilities were spread between Notre Dame Stadium, the Joyce Center and the Loftus Sports Center.

The first floor of the 96,000-square-foot complex features the 25,000-square-foot Haggar Fitness Center (gift of Ed and Patty Haggar, Joe and Isabell Haggar) with the latest state-of-the-art equipment that all student-athletes can use on a daily basis. The 8,300-square-foot Loftus Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center (a gift of John and Julie Lofus) services all Notre Dame student-athletes and also houses the athletic training staff. Also on the first floor are the Romano Family Locker Room (a gift of D.J. “Buddy” and Florence Romano), Isban Auditorium (a gift from Leonard and JoAnn Isban), the Allen Equipment Room (a gift of Marty and Sue Allen) and Hickey Coaches’ Locker Room (a gift of Jack and Rosemary Hickey).

The second floor houses the Smith Family Office Suites (a gift from the Smith family in honor of Francis W. and Rita C. Smith) with head coach Brian Kelly’s area overlooking the LaBar Practice Complex. Eleven banners hang in the Morse Recruiting Lounge (a gift of Jim and Leah Morse) commemorating Notre Dame’s 11 consensus national championships.

LOFTUS SPORTS CENTER

Loftus Sports Center is now in its 30th full year of service at the University of Notre Dame; the Loftus Sports Center is one of the most integral athletics buildings on campus. Designed for use by all Notre Dame athletics teams as well as students, faculty and staff, the $6.3-million center measures 614 feet by 210 feet and stands tucked in a forested area of campus just north of LaBar Practice Complex and connected to the Guglielmino Athletics Complex.

Dedicated on April 23, 1988, the Loftus Center saw its first football practice on Sept. 30 of that season. The facility is a gift of John R. Loftus, a member of Notre Dame's basketball team in 1944, 1948 and 1949. The Irish football team practices on Meyo Field (a gift of Raymond D. Meyo), a 100-yard Prestige Turf (installed in 2014) field complete with end zones.

LABAR PRACTICE COMPLEX

LaBar Practice Complex enters its 10th season of use and is home to the outdoor practice fields of the Fighting Irish football team. A gift of Rees and Carol LaBar, the practice fields are located directly south of the Guglielmino Athletics Complex (on the former site of Moose Krause Stadium and Cartier Field). The LaBar Practice Complex features three football fields, lights, video towers, a maintenance building to provide storage and is secured with an eight-foot fence.

Two of the three practice fields are FieldTurf fields (newly installed for 2015), allowing the Irish to practice year-round without fear of damaging grass fields due to inclement weather and general wear-and-tear. The third field is a natural grass field.

GAME CREDENTIALS

All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials for Notre Dame's 2017 home football games must be made through the online credential service at UND.com/credentials. Credential requests must be submitted by the assigning sports editor or sports director prior to 7 p.m. ET Thursday the week before each home game in question. If a media outlet needs to change an existing application, please contact Leigh Torbin at ltorbin@nd.edu.

Because of the demand for credentials and the limited space available, media agencies covering the visiting school on a regular basis receive top priority. All other credentials for print media are issued on the basis of circulation. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a daily sports show receive consideration for credentials. Non-originating, out-of-town radio stations cannot be accommodated.

CREDENTIAL DISTRIBUTION

Media credentials will neither be mailed nor will be available for early pickup. Credentials will ONLY be distributed on game day at the Hammes Auditorium (the Joyce Center's basketball interview room, located between Gates 1 and 2). Media will call opens at 10 a.m. ET for all home games, except the Georgia and USC games, when it opens at 2 p.m. ET. A government-issued ID is required for pickup and each individual must claim only his/her own pass.

PARKING

Parking requests will be accommodated on a space-available basis. If approved, parking passes will be shipped via FedEx no later than the Wednesday before a game to either the sports editor/director or designated attendee using the media outlet's FedEx account number. Parking passes may also be picked up prior to Saturday outside Isban Auditorium at the Guglielmino Athletics Complex before regularly scheduled football media opportunities. Parking passes cannot be picked up on campus on game day.

BRIAN KELLY WEEKLY AVAILABILITY

Brian Kelly, the Dick Corbett Head Football Coach at Notre Dame, conducts a weekly press conference at noon ET each Tuesday in the Isban Auditorium at the Guglielmino Athletics Complex. The 45-minute weekly conference previews the upcoming game is streamed live online and is also distributed via satellite (STILL????). Kelly is available after Thursday's practice to provide one final update prior to gameday. Kelly hosts a conference call at 2 p.m. ET each Sunday after a game, when he'll review the previous day's game. Media members may call in to ask questions. To attain the call-in number for Sunday's media update, media members should contact director of football media relations Michael Bertsch. Additionally, Kelly will join the ACC's Coaches Teleconference at 10:20 a.m. ET on the Mondays of weeks where the Irish face an ACC opponent. Transcriptions of the Sunday, Tuesday media opportunities with Kelly are available through the Notre Dame athletics department website, UND.com.

INTERVIEW TRANSCRIPTIONS

Transcriptions of the Sunday and Tuesday media opportunities with Brian Kelly are available through the Notre Dame athletics department website, UND.com.

STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

Interviews with Notre Dame student-athletes will occur on Wednesdays during each game week. Interview requests for student-athletes must be submitted to Michael Bertsch by 5 p.m. ET the Sunday before the proposed interview. A player availability schedule will be distributed each Monday during the season. Media are not permitted to directly contact student-athletes or coaches to arrange interviews.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Post-game interviews at Notre Dame Stadium are held in the home and visiting media rooms. Audio and video from Notre Dame's interviews is piped live into the press box for media on deadline. Television and radio crews can receive audio through a multi-box in each auditorium. Notre Dame head coach Brian Kelly will appear in the home interview room following the game. All Irish student-athlete interviews will also occur in that room once Kelly is finished. Requests for player interviews should be submitted by the eight-minute mark of the fourth quarter to Michael Bertsch. Transcripts from both head coaches' press conferences will be available approximately 60 minutes following the conclusion of their post-game comments.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Prior to kickoff, all media members will be provided with a game program, updated game notes from both teams, a flip card and any other announcements. Last-minute lineup changes, weather conditions and other information will be relayed through the internal public address system.

During the game, media members will be provided with a running play-by-play, while at halftime, quickie stats and drive charts will be distributed via email.

Following the game, a complete post-game statistics package will be distributed via email and will contain a scoring summary, final team statistics, final individual statistics, complete play-by-play, drive charts for both halves, halftime statistics, defensive statistics, substitution chart, post-game quotes from both head coaches and players and post-game notes.

Live in-game statistics for media will be available via StatBroadcast.

EMAIL

Following each Notre Dame home game, the athletic communications office will be happy to email whatever information media members need to their respective agencies. Please ask any member of the athletic communications staff for assistance on this matter.

RADIO/TV

IMG College owns the radio rights to Notre Dame football games. Visiting stations planning to originate from Notre Dame Stadium are issued credentials by Michael Bertsch following written confirmation of approval for the broadcast. Broadcast lines should be ordered through Carolyn Rush in the University Telecommunications office at (574) 631-7205.

The rights for live telecasts of Notre Dame home football games through 2025 belong to NBC Sports. Visiting stations should coordinate any and all television plans through Michael Bertsch. Television stations planning coverage for news broadcasts are issued credentials following written approval for any filming and/or videotaping.

Accredited organizations may distribute online non-game audio and video content, including interviews, press conferences and team practices provided that such distribution is three minutes maximum per content opportunity per day, appears in an editorial context only and is not posted live (including through social media apps such as periscope, twitter, Facebook, etc.).

The three-minute limit does not include video/audio material that is comprised entirely of a credentialed media employee providing commentary or analysis, including pre- or post-practice stand-up material shot on the field or other facility location.

PRESS HOSPITALITY

Food and refreshments are served throughout the game — free of charge — in the Notre Dame Stadium press box.

HOTEL ROOMS

Hotel rooms in the South Bend area are booked far in advance of Notre Dame home football weekends. Most hotels in the South Bend area require a two-night stay (Friday and Saturday) during Notre Dame home football weekends. Media members are responsible for their own lodging as Notre Dame's athletics communications office no longer reserves blocks of rooms. The athletics communications office can help with hotel suggestions and recommendations. For Notre Dame football road games, media members must arrange their own lodging. Rooms reserved for Notre Dame on the road at its headquarters hotel fulfill only the needs of administrators, coaches and players.

DOES ANYBODY KNOW WHAT TIME IT IS?

Most of Indiana, including the South Bend area, observes Daylight Savings Time, changing clocks in the spring and fall while remaining in sync with the Eastern Time Zone year round. Notre Dame and South Bend are on the same time throughout the year as the East Coast and one hour ahead of Chicago and most of the Midwest. Note that not all counties in Indiana are on Eastern Time, including the northwest Indiana counties of Lake, Porter and LaPorte, which align themselves with Chicago and the Central Time Zone.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

CollegePressBox.com has Notre Dame contact information, weekly team and opponent game notes, stats, depth charts and complete final game books along with complete media guide, spring guide, a complete listing of beat reporters, radio broadcasters, television stations and much, much more. Log on with username and password obtained through Michael Bertsch or the Football Writers Association of America.

UND.COM/PRESSBOX

All Notre Dame football information is available on the official athletics department website of the University of Notre Dame, UND.com. Game notes, depth chart, biographies of players and coaches, transcripts of press conferences, video archives of interview sessions, special features and more can all be found at UND.com.

NBC TELEVISION NETWORK

In 2017, the University of Notre Dame and NBC Sports continues their television relationship for the 27th consecutive season. NBC will broadcast all seven home games for the Fighting Irish.

Play-by-play analyst Mike Tirico enters his second year as part of NBC's coverage. Doug Flutie returns for his fourth season as game analyst. Kathryn Tappen enters her fourth season as a sideline reporter. Liam McHugh will lead the NBC Sports college football studio team that will provide pre- and post-game coverage each Saturday.

On April 18, 2013, Notre Dame and NBC Sports reached agreement on a new 10-year contract giving NBC the rights to televise Irish home football games from 2016 to 2025 and extending the partnership between the University and network to 35 years.

A joint announcement of the extension was made by Mark Lazarus, chairman of NBC Sports Group, and Notre Dame's president, Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C.

"Coming off one of Notre Dame's best and most dramatic seasons in decades, we could not be more proud to extend this historic partnership, which continues to be one of the most innovative in sports-media history," Lazarus said. "We are particularly excited that this extension offers enhanced rights that allow us to bring Notre Dame football to fans on more platforms than ever before."

As it has since 2009, NBC Sports Digital continues to live stream Fighting Irish home games for the web, mobile and tablets.

Father Jenkins noted the multiple benefits of the partnership with NBC.

"In addition to the national broadcast of our home football games, this longtime and valued collaboration with NBC has made a Notre Dame education possible to literally thousands of students," Father Jenkins said. "We are delighted to extend our partnership to bring Irish football to our fans, to continue to help support financial aid, and to tell the Notre Dame story."

Revenues from the NBC contract have played a key role in Notre Dame's financial aid endowment since the start of the relationship in 1991. University officers decided then to use a portion of the football television contract revenue for undergraduate scholarship endowment (not athletic scholarships). To date, 7,073 Notre Dame undergraduate students have received $108,315,934 in aid from revenue generated through the NBC contract.

The University also has committed revenue from NBC to endow doctoral fellowships in its Graduate School and MBA scholarships in its Mendoza College of Business.

In addition to televising games, NBC has collaborated with Notre Dame on an award-winning series of two-minute messages featuring University faculty and student research.

"While our relationship with NBC Sports is longstanding, the more recent merger between NBC and Comcast has opened up additional avenues to expand the breadth of Notre Dame-related sports programming on NBC platforms," Notre Dame vice president and athletics director Jack Swarbrick said.

"Specifically, the evolution of the NBC Sports Network has provided opportunities for special programming featuring inside looks at our football team and several other Notre Dame sports programs and in-depth profiles on the unsung heroes of Notre Dame athletics. These are examples of the growth of our partnership, and we look forward to collaborating on additional projects and distribution strategies in seasons to come."

Per the extension, the NBC Sports Group retains global media rights on all platforms to a minimum of seven Notre Dame home football games per year. As in the prior contract, it allows for occasional games to air on NBC Sports Network, which is available in 85 million homes.

NBC has been televising Irish home games since 1991, and this marks the sixth of a series of agreements with Notre Dame. The original agreement covered the seasons from 1991 through 1995. The first five-year extension (announced in 1994) covered 1996 to 2000, the second extension (announced in May 1997) covered 2001 to 2005, the third extension (announced in December 2003) covered 2006 to 2010, and the fourth (announced in June 2008) covered 2011 to 2015.

The NBC and NBC Sports Network 2017 college football schedule is comprised of Notre Dame home games; games from the Mountain West Conference, the Colonial Athletic Association, the Ivy League, the Bayou Classic and the Atlanta Football Classic. For more information and a full list of college football games on NBC and the NBC Sports Network, visit NBCSports.com.

IMG COLLEGE RADIO NETWORK

The 2017 football season marks the 10th year of a partnership in which IMG College (formerly ISP) serves as the exclusive national rights-holder for University of Notre Dame football radio broadcasts. The Notre Dame-IMG College relationship began with the 2008 season and extends through the 2017 season — with IMG managing, producing and syndicating Notre Dame's national football radio network. Notre Dame football was the first team, professional or college, to have all of its games broadcast nationally on the radio. Additionally, the broadcasts are available to listeners on Sirius Satellite Radio and online at Sirius.com.

Hall of Fame broadcaster Don Criqui and former Irish tailback Allen Pinkett handled the broadcasting chores once again — with Criqui serving as play-by-play specialist and Pinkett providing expert analysis.

Criqui previously served as play-by-play announcer for Notre Dame broadcasts from 1974-76 before rejoining the broadcast team in 2006. Criqui, a Notre Dame graduate, is renowned nationally as one of the outstanding play-by-play broadcasters on network television and radio. In addition to IMG's Notre Dame coverage, Criqui also serves as play-by-play announcer for the NFL on CBS Television. Criqui received critical acclaim for his work on NBC and CBS Sports' coverage of the NFL, and in 2003, he was presented with the highest award for a broadcaster when he received the Pete Rozelle Award at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Pinkett brings a wealth of football experience to his 14th season in the booth with Notre Dame football. A native of Sterling, Virginia, he was a three-time All-American at Notre Dame, finishing eighth in Heisman Trophy voting in 1985. He ranked as the Irish's all-time leading rusher and scorer when his career ended. Pinkett played six seasons with the NFL's Houston Oilers and one with the New Orleans Saints before retiring in 1991.

Executive producer Bill Karambelas returns in 2017. He served as executive producer for road football games in 2008 and will produce all 12 regular-season games for the ninth straight season.

IMG College is the nation's leading collegiate sports marketing company, offering national, regional, and local multi-platform marketing opportunities targeting 190 million college sports fans — the largest and most attractive sports fan base.

IMG College is blazing new trails in the growing collegiate market with exclusive rights to nearly 90 universities and conferences in 51 of the top 56 Nielsen markets. IMG's exclusive rights include intellectual property, experiential and promotional assets, event signage, digital, tickets, hospitality, live event radio, and shoulder programming including coaches' TV and radio shows. . . customized for sponsors by a staff of nearly 400 sales and marketing professionals.

IMG College, through its licensing affiliate, IMG College Licensing, also represents the exclusive trademark licensing and consumer product rights for nearly 200 top schools, conferences and bowl games, and provides a comprehensive suite of solutions-based services to schools in ticketing; stadium seating; fundraising; premium events and hospitality.

IMG College produces 35,000 hours of radio programming annually on the largest network in the country, manages 5,000 hours of TV programming produced annually, is the leading publisher of college sports publications, and averages nearly 19 million unique visitors per month across its collegiate digital platforms.

Headquartered in Winston-Salem, N.C., IMG College employs more than 700 people in nearly 100 offices throughout the U.S.

IMG College is a division of IMG, a global sports, fashion and media business.
